

Donna Parsons To Head Lodge

DUNSMUIR — Flowers and greenery provided a setting for the installation of Donna Parsons as worthy adviser of Dunsmuir assembly, Rainbow for Girls, at recent ceremonies at the Dunsmuir Masonic Temple.

"Love is a Many Splendored Thing," the theme of the evening, was emblazoned across the east curtain and an illuminated heart completed the decorations for the evening.

Donna Parsons, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Parsons, took her vows of office wearing a moss green evening gown fashioned with a satin overskirt over net. A bouquet of snapdragons and roses was presented to her by Cindy Young, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Young.

Her fellow officers are Noralyn Caswell, recorder; Wilma Jean Champlin, treasurer; Pamela Strickland, chaplain; Carol Wagner, drill leader; Adele Kenney, love; Linda Guy, religion; Karen Cummings, nature; Marilyn Bell, immortality; Vicki Jones, fidelity; Christine Graves, patriotism; Judy Humphrey, service; Margaret Wilcox, confidential observer; Sandy Anderson, outer observer; Anna May Flannery, musician, and Lorraine Grenvick, choir director.

Margie Grenvick served as installing officer assisted by Judy Crowe, chaplain; Beverly Crowe, marshal; Nancy Swift, honorary marshal; Judy Ford, musician; Charlene Phipps, treasurer; and Patty Rodley, recorder. Mrs. Reva Coon was installing mother adviser.

Mrs. Edna Reed was installed as the new mother adviser. Rainbow board members are Jesse Herrin, C. W. Champlin, Edna Reed, Elsie Ellington, Robert Harris, Aletha Guy and Vera Parsons.

Wabeno Council

WEED—The date of March 10 has been slated for a rummage sale by Wabeno Council 231, degree of Pocahontas. Members of the local council voted at the regular meeting held Friday night, February 5, to also hold a food sale in conjunction with the rummage event in the Weed Court Club building.

Mrs. Alma Killingsworth, Pocahontas, presided at the session, and adjourned the meeting for the social hour highlighted by a Valentine gift exchange.

Red and white valentines decorated the refreshment tables and their arrangement spelled out the words "Be Mine," in the table centers.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dorothy Sottan and Mrs. Rachel Doughty, hostesses. Valentine games rounded out the evening entertainment.

Berkeley Chapel Wedding Scene

LAKEVIEW — Of interest to many friends in this locality is the marriage on December 13 at the Little Chapel of the Flowers in Berkeley, California, of Toni Roach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hale Roach of El Sobrante, California, and Donald Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Robinson of Lakeview.

The Rev. Leonard Maigaard performed the ceremony in which the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of taffeta, detailed on the bodice with re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls. A cap of lace and seed pearls held her illusion veil, and she carried a bouquet of English holly and gardenias.

Mike O'Hair of Klamath Falls was initiated into Sigma Pi, national social fraternity at Oregon State College, on January 24.

The honor attendant Sandra Blackwell and bridesmaid Pat Lind wore satin gowns of Kelly green with matching bow hats, and carried smaller bouquets of holly and gardenias. Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Lori, who wore an ankle length dress of lime green satin with sash of Kelly green. Holly formed her bouquet.

The bridegroom's brother-in-law, William Rice, was best man, and escorting the guests to their seats were Michael Roach and Jerry Barry.

They will make their home for the present in Ashland, where he is attending Southern Oregon College. They have both been students at Chico State College. The bride is a graduate of El Cerrito High School and her husband is a 1955 graduate of Lakeview High School. Following his graduation he spent two years in the armed services.

About 200 persons attended the reception in the Bermuda Room at the Richmond Memorial Auditorium. Mrs. Roach greeted the guests in a turquoise green lace sheath, matching accessories, feathered half-hat and a pink camellia corsage. The bridegroom's mother received in a red print silk sheath with black patent accessories, and a white rosebud corsage. The bride's going-away costume was of aqua green with an orchid corsage. During the wedding she had carried the handkerchief carried by the bridegroom's grandmother, Nellie Cressler Robinson, during her wedding.

Members of the bridegroom's family who were present were his aunts, Mrs. Sylvia Madeira of Long Beach, Mrs. Elma Briles of Los Angeles, Mrs. Anita Badostain of Van Nuys; his uncle, Ray Briles and two daughters of Oakland, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Rice, of Ketchikan, Alaska.

With the 35th wedding anniversary of the Robinsons occurring on December 14, they celebrated the occasion on the evening of the wedding with a dinner for members of the family at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley. There were 11 guests present.
