Wool Pool Club Closes Saturday

The 1960 Klamath Wool Pool membership will close Saturday of this week was the warning issued today by Earl Mack.

"Wool producers who have not signed up by Saturday will not be able to ship with the Klamath Wool Pool," Mack said.

Approximately 19,000 fleeces have been signed up, which is about the same number as last year, but it is known that this year's production will be larger than that of 1959, he stated.

Wool producers may sign up at the Klamath County agent's office, the Farm Bureau office on South Sixth Street, the Klamath Falls branch of the First National Bank of Oregon, the Merrill branch of the First National Bank of Oregon or at the Farm Adviser's office in Tulelake.

Famed New York Landmark To Make Room For Hotel

NEW YORK (AP)—At the vast entrance sparkles a galaxy of 4,500 lights. Within are sculptured trills, acres of rich rugs, hangings of stuff called "dream cloth." A ton and a half chandelier shimmer over the huge rotunda.

Such is the Roxy Theater.

SCOUT NEWS

CHILQUIN — National Boy Scout Week was celebrated by the Chilquín Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts in a variety of ways. The scouts held their first court of honor since their organization in 1959. The Cub Scouts entertained their families at a dinner and pack meeting. All the boys wore their uniforms to school during the week and last Sunday was Scout Day at church.

At the court of honor Thursday, February 4, Dick Wyatt, Modoc Council executive, gave the following awards:

Kim Hale and Donald Rogers, first class pins and a merit badge in public speaking; Rickey Chase, Mike West and Charles Spicer, second class pins; Raymond Hatcher, Doug McIntyre, Donald Plouffe, Richard Lockwood, Kenneth Adams, Keith Adams and Richard Starkey, tenderfoot badges.

Scoutmasters are Frank Hale and James Rogers. Firemen sponsors are George Pohl, Lewis Pohl and George Hobbs.

Den mothers were in charge of the dinner served to Cub Scout families last Saturday night in the grade school cafeteria. The boys had made the favors and later in the evening held a pack meeting. Gerry Wolff and Darrell Haas did several science experiments. Ross McIntyre, cubmaster, presented Stephen Hess and Freddie Larsen with their Bobcat pins; Danny Kirkpatrick, Larry Peters and Mark Freid, their Wolf badges.
