WALL STREET

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed higher today after a vigorous rally but late profit taking sliced gains. Trading was heavy.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4,000,000 shares compared with 4,210,000 Wednesday.

Pivotal stocks rose from fractions to 2 points or so. More speculative issues made wider gains, some stretching to half a dozen points.

The market was higher from the start as it followed through from the rebound which capped Wednesday's severe selling climax to the long January-February decline.

American Home Products was up about 6 points. Gains of about 3 were made by Beckman Instruments, International Business Machines, Polaroid, Thiokol and Youngstown Sheet.

U.S. government bonds firmed.

Santa Monican Declared Guilty

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)— A jury has convicted John Robert Briggs of trying to murder his wife and mother-in-law by pushing their car over a cliff.

Briggs' wife, Norma, 35, sobbed as the verdict was announced Wednesday. She testified in his defense, saying her foot slipped on the gas pedal while the car was parked at the brink of the cliff in the Santa Monica Mountains. But she had testified at Briggs' preliminary hearing that he had tried to kill her and her mother, Mary D. Nilson, 70.

Review Slated On Age Hiring

Practices and policies affected by the state's new law prohibiting discrimination in employment because of age will come up for review at a Bureau of Labor hearing here February 24.

The meeting will convene in the city hall council chambers, Fifth and Walnut streets at 10 a.m. Representatives of the labor bureau's Senior Worker Division administering the regulations are expected to be available for conference until 4 p.m.

Labor Commissioner Norman O. Nilsen states the public hearings are being held throughout Oregon to acquaint interested persons with the requirements of the law and to provide an opportunity for expression of views on rules for its administration.

The hearing discussions will highlight the main points relating to age discrimination as well as the workers, organization and employers covered by the act which is a new form of social legislation passed by the 1959 Oregon Legislature. In general the law removes age barriers in employment for individuals between 25 and 65 years of age in firms employing six or more persons. However, it does not remove job requirements relating to necessary education or experience and such physical demands of the work as strength, dexterity and endurance.

The commissioner states his department expects to accomplish the purpose of the law largely through an educative process. The big objective is the measurement of a senior worker's qualifications for an occupation by his abilities without arbitrary age standards.

Three Years Given Man

Houston V. Brand, 34, was sentenced to three years in the state penitentiary today for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Brand had pleaded guilty December 17 to a charge he had enticed an 11-year-old girl into his car in late September and had fondled her. He had been sent to the Oregon State Hospital for 30 days' observation prior to sentencing.

Attorney Richard C. Beesley, representing Brand, told Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg Brand possibly could be helped by further hospital treatment. Beesley suggested a sentence that would enable further hospitalization, "if the court could see fit."

The judge noted that a medical report termed further treatment of improbable value, and sentenced Brand to the penitentiary.

Pupil Arrested For Truancy

City Juvenile Officer Ray Howard took a 16-year-old high school sophomore into temporary custody Wednesday for truancy.

The youth was confined to the county juvenile home on advice of county juvenile officers. They said he has been guilty repeatedly of playing hookey. He was ordered to appear for an interview in the juvenile office Friday.

Another juvenile, a 19-year-old girl, attempted suicide Wednesday, police believe. She was treated for an overdose of a sleep-producing drug at a local hospital.

ior High in 1939, and was principal of a Coos Bay grade school from 1940 until 1943, and high school principal until 1947. Then he got the Coquille job.

In Coos Bay, he was a charter member, president and deputy governor of Toastmaster Club, secretary of Rotary and a member of Coquille Park Commission, a member for five years of Lions Club, president of the western region of Elementary Principals Association, president of the association for a time, a member of the Oregon Education Association legislative committee three years, president of the Coos County OEA division a year, and legislative chairman for Coos County two sessions.

He has been chairman of Oregon High School Activities Association football, basketball and track committees and president of Coos County Schoolmaster Club.

Hunsaker earned a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Oregon by studying summers during his six years at Jacksonville. He holds a masters degree in history and education from Oregon State College.

He holds a life elementary teaching certificate and a five-year secondary certificate, and supervisory and administrative certificates for elementary and secondary schools.

During the war years he worked summers as acting chief ranger of Crater Lake National Park. Previously, he was laborer, fire guard, ranger and district ranger for 10 summers there.

The Hunsakers have been married 29 years. They have four daughters—Nancy, 16; Diana, 14; Helen, 12, and Alice, 2.

No contract has been signed but school attorneys are preparing one in cooperation with Hunsaker, for submission to the boards.

Numerous applicants for the position were screened and interviewed. Hunsaker will begin work July 1 at a salary not yet decided.

Board members agreed unanimously to offer Arnold Gralapp, present superintendent, a position as consultant to the new man for the seven months beginning July 1 at half his present salary.

Two Trucks Collide

Two big trucks collided at the intersection of West Side Bypass and Main Street Wednesday at 1:15 p.m.

No injuries resulted and no citations were issued, but both trucks received minor damage.

The driver of one truck and trailer, Lester Fisher of Portland, told city police he was turning left off Main Street onto the bypass, when a boat carrier truck heading south failed to stop for a sign and drove on.

Fisher said he slammed on his brakes to avoid collision. His truck was hit from the rear by a semi-truck driven by Noble Olaf Merrifield, 132 Laguna Street.

Officers also investigated an accident involving a car driven by Donald Arthur Isensee, 17, of 79 Washington Street, on Lakeshore Drive at 8:50 p.m. Wednesday.

Isensee said he hit gravel and lost control of the car, a 1956 Cadillac. No citation was issued. Police said there was no indication Isensee was driving recklessly.

The car struck a guard rail at Fremont Bridge. The car was badly damaged.

Police Book Man As Drunk

City police arrested Thomas Cosgrove, 59, at a Main Street restaurant Thursday afternoon on suspicion of theft of a case of canned oysters and a case of canned crab.

Cosgrove was booked for drunkenness. The restaurant owner indicated he would sign a complaint against him.

An electrician spotted Cosgrove taking the goods in an alley behind the restaurant, police said. Cosgrove was sentenced to pay $25 or spend five days in jail in municipal court Thursday morning.

A possible attempted theft was reported by the Rev. Harry Strachan of Klamath Temple, 1007 Pine Street, Wednesday.

Reverend Strachan said someone entered the Temple through a small window in the rear and ransacked portions of it. Papers were strewn around and the culprit made an attempt to enter the locked office. Nothing was found missing.

Police also investigated a possible theft attempt at the Big Y Market at Pine and Seventh Street. They believe, however, that the evidence was left, rather, by an incompetent driver.

They said a four-foot by five-foot hole was punched in the side of the building sometime Wednesday. Nothing was found missing from the store.

Gun Wound Proves Fatal

Lester Lee Brown, 39, died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound in a Main Street hotel at 12:05 a.m. Thursday, city police said.

Brown, a member of Southern Pacific Extra Gang No. 10 in Klamath Falls, left no note. He mailed a letter about an hour before firing the shot, a hotel resident said.

He was dead when police arrived a few minutes after the shot was heard by a man in a room next door.

Police found a .22 automatic pistol on Brown's chest near the wound. They called a doctor, who pronounced the man dead.

He leaves his mother, Mrs. Bertie L. Hart of Sacramento; a brother, Delbert Brown, and a sister, Mrs. C. R. Witt, both of Gazelle, California. He also leaves six other sisters whose names and addresses have not been determined.

Brown was born February 23, 1920, in Rush Springs, Oklahoma. Funeral services are pending at O'Hair's Memorial Chapel.

Water Safety Hearings Set

The county court scheduled for February 24 public hearing on proposed water safety regulations on Lake of the Woods.

Regulations were proposed by the Lake of the Woods Association, representing summer home owners, to control potential hazards to swimmers, boaters and skiers.

After the public hearing, the court will consider recommending the regulations to the State Marine Board, a new state agency established by the 1959 Legislature.

Regulations proposed by the home owners' association would:

1. Impose a 10 m.p.h. boat speed limit within 200 feet of shore.
2. Impose a 20 m.p.h. speed limit elsewhere.
3. Prohibit water skiing within 200 feet of shore except for launching and landing.
4. Prohibit swimming beyond 200 feet of shore.
5. Require observers in water skiing tow boats on Sundays and holidays.

The court said one addition had been suggested by an interested reader. This person suggested a 5 m.p.h. speed limit within 500 feet of fishermen.

The public hearing is scheduled for 2 p.m.

Workman Injured

Richard McCullom, 38, of Merrill, was brought to Klamath Valley Hospital by a California Highway patrolman for treatment of a severe hand injury Wednesday about 2 p.m.

McCullom, according to reports, was injured while working on the Kandra Ranch at Mount Hebron. No details were available.

He was said to be recovering Thursday morning.

Both Defense, Prosecution To Rest In Dr. Finch Case

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The defense and prosecution both were set to rest their cases today in the murder trial of Dr. R. Bernard Finch and Carole Tregoff.

The trial was not expected to reach the seven-woman, five-man jury until late next week, however, because of a long weekend recess until next Tuesday when closing arguments will begin.

Swedish maid Marie Anne Lidholm was one of a few rebuttal witnesses scheduled to testify in the windup of evidence today. Her lengthy previous testimony was the state's only eyewitness accounts of events of July 18 when Mrs. Barbara Finch was killed.

Wednesday lawyers for the 42-year-old doctor and his mistress conferred with Judge Walter Evans on his legal instructions to the jury. The prosecution has said it will seek the death penalty for both on charges of first degree murder and conspiracy to murder.

Assistant Dist. Attys. Fred Whichello and Clifford Crail were understood to have told Judge Evans they feel the only other verdicts—besides acquittal—would be second degree (unpremeditated) murder or manslaughter.

Attorneys for Miss Tregoff said they object to any instructions on "included offenses" for their client. They seek complete acquittal.

But Grant Cooper, lawyer for the doctor, said he has suggested instructions for his client which would include lesser offenses such as assault with intent to commit murder, assault with a deadly weapon to commit murder and assault with a deadly weapon.

Judge Evans planned to spend all of Friday studying his instructions. The trial will be in recess until Tuesday because of Washington's birthday on Monday.

Should the jury return a verdict of first degree murder against either defendant, the trial will then resume with evidence and arguments on the severity of sentence. Then the jury would retire a second time to decide whether the penalty should be death in the gas chamber or imprisonment.

Club in building an athletic program for youth.

Brackman said:

"I would like to serve the people of Klamath County as county commissioner, pledging myself to work in a direction that will do the most good for the greatest number of people, and striving toward a full-time participation by the county court so people who wish to be heard may appear before it at any time.

"I would direct my efforts toward solution of the suburban area road problem and the related problems encountered in a growing community. I have lived and worked along with the working people of our county and know their problems. I would treat that as just that, a job, requiring my best efforts.

"Most people are unaware that all of the elected officials in your courthouse are ex-officio members of the county court. I would consult with them whenever their knowledge would be beneficial to the issue involved."

College Pupil Nabs Burglar

LAKEVIEW — Cook Laird of Lakeview, student at Oregon State College, apprehended an intruder in his Phi Kappa Tau fraternity house at an early morning hour recently.

Laird wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Laird, that he was on the second floor of the house writing a report and the only one up at the time. He heard a noise in a room down the hall and investigated. When he turned on the light, an intruder jumped for the window and was out the fire escape. Laird ran after him, yelling, and was about five feet behind when the fellow slipped and they both went down in a puddle of water.

In the meantime, another fraternity member heard the commotion and arrived to help Laird get the prisoner back to the house, where they called police.

Officers arrested Michael Clare Goodrich, Corvallis student. He is held in Benton County Jail in lieu of $1,500 bail pending grand jury action.

Thefts of money from students' wallets at Phi Kappa Tau had been reported in January and another prowler was frightened away from the house on January 12.

Meeting Set By Loggers

Two Klamath Falls men will take part on panel discussions at the 22nd Oregon Logging Conference and Equipment Show at Eugene, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 25, 26 and 27.

Art Smyth, branch forester of Weyerhaeuser Company, will act as a moderator on a panel discussing fire protection, on Thursday at 9:30 a.m.

Robert Kennedy, Bly Logging Company, will be a member of the panel on Construction Practices and Sale Layout.

In addition to the panel discussions, registration and dinner dancing Wednesday evening at the Eugene Hotel and Friday night banquet and dance are scheduled.

Theme of the conference is "From Stump To Dump."

Grand Jury To Get Case

A 29-year-old Klamath Falls man was bound over to the grand jury Thursday after an unusually short preliminary hearing in district court.

District Judge D. E. Van Vactor ordered David Larry Fowler held to the jury after only 12 to 15 minutes of hearing.

Fowler was accused of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. City Police Juvenile Officer Ray Howard testified Fowler had taken a 17-year-old Merrill High School student for a ride on the Midland-Keno Road in May. At that time, Howard said, Fowler molested the boy.

The boy was the only other witness at the hearing. Fowler was not represented by an attorney.

Fowler was returned to jail in lieu of continuing $2,500 bail.

Assault Case Defendant Found Guilty

Philip Duane Jackson was found guilty Thursday of assaulting his aged grandmother by waving a .22 caliber pistol in her face. Foreman Joyce Utley of Klamath Falls returned a circuit court jury's verdict at 11 a.m. today, 30 minutes after the jury began deliberations.

Circuit Judge John J. Murchison of Portland set sentencing for 10 a.m. February 29.

Jackson was found guilty of assault with a dangerous weapon upon Mrs. Anna May Copperfield during an involved family dispute at Mrs. Copperfield's Bonanza home December 21.

Witnesses called by Deputy District Attorney Ernest Gordon were Mrs. Copperfield; Alice Hall of Bonanza, another of Mrs. Copperfield's grandchildren who lived in her home, and Deputy Sheriffs Robert Hartley and Lewis Van Sipe. Witnesses called by Defense Attorney Robert Redding were Mrs. Copperfield and Jackson.

The 23-year-old defendant was charged with two other crimes at the same time. He was convicted of assault and battery upon Mrs. Bertie Joe and paid a $250 fine. A charge of lewd cohabitation against Jackson and Bernadine Dickens was dismissed in district court.

Jackson currently has an appeal before the supreme court contesting a district court assault and battery conviction last July. That conviction was upheld in circuit court, and is to be argued before the supreme court March 2.

Judge Murchison heard the present trial after Redding had sought disqualification of Judges David R. Vandenberg and Charles H. Foster.

Jury members were George Brothanek of Malin, Miles E. Cain of Keno, and Joyce Utley, Thomas Wasson, Martin Swanson, Norman Wilson, John Penny, Ben Layman, J. F. Lee, Mark Carman, F. E. Foster, and Granville Goodman, all of Klamath Falls.
