

Olympics Get Down To Business

Snow Halts For Opening, Action Starts

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—The Eighth Winter Olympics gets down to business today. The athletes take over and start gunning for the precious gold, silver and bronze medals.

And judging by the moving and dignified opening day ceremonies—which drew raves from almost everyone here from home and abroad—this still could be a magnificent show if the weatherman cooperates.

The prediction for competition was for partly cloudy weather with a high temperature of 40 in mid-day.

The Scandinavians were expected to dominate the first event, the men's 30-kilometer (18.64 miles) cross country ski race.

Forty-eight long distance skiers were entered in the cross country at McKinney Creek, 17 miles from here.

This, however, figured to be a battle among Finland's Veikko Hakulinen, the defending champion; Sixten Jernberg, Sweden's "king of the skis;" Norway's Hallgeir Brenden, and Kalevi Hämäläinen, another veteran Finnish ace.

The U.S., as usual, wasn't given a chance for a medal in this grind. Uncle Sam's entries include Leo Massa, Lake Placid, N.Y.; Mack Miller, Crested Butte, Colo.; Sven Johansson, Spangard, Alaska; and Joe Pete Wilson, Lake Placid, N.Y.

The spectacular Canadian team of Bob Paul and Barbara Wagner was the experts' pick in the pairs figure skating in the $3,500,000 Blyth Ice Palace.

These were the only championships on tap following the postponement of the men's downhill race to Feb. 22 because of Thursday's heavy snowfall.

The organizers of these troubled games, marred by squabbles, injuries, floods, and too much snow, were heartened by the fine reaction to Thursday's opening ceremonies.

The ceremony, however, was run off in just one hour.

Despite traffic snarls caused by a heavy snowfall, some 15,000 spectators somehow managed to reach this tiny valley nestled in the high Sierras. About 6,500 of them, clad in gay, multi-hued ski suits, gathered in the Blyth arena to watch the parade of 740 brightly attired athletes from 30 nations.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon braved the hazardous mountain roads, the last 46 miles of a 3,000-mile journey from Washington, to say just 15 words:

"I now declare open the Olympic games of Squaw Valley celebrating the Eighth Winter Olympics."

BOWIE CARD SHUFFLED
BOWIE, Md. (UPI)—Bowie race track will run four 10-race programs to compensate for the races lost in the Feb. 13 snowstorm. Five races were run that day and four called off.

IT HELPED, ACTUALLY—There are three steps to two points according to Sacred Heart Trojan Tony Krok. Krok led his club, although it was defeated by Merrill, 59-44, with a total of 13 points, in the opening round of the B tourney. In the photo by Don Kettler, Herald and News photog, Krok illustrates the second of the three steps. First, he brings the ball down the floor with his tongue bulging his cheek; second, he assumes the attitude shown above, and third, the ball goes through the hoop. It's simple, Merrill's Dick Carlson casts a quizzical eye on the operation.

Niles To Start For OSC Cagers

CORVALLIS (AP)—Oregon State hopes to avenge two earlier basketball defeats when it plays host to Southern California and Washington here tonight and Saturday.

Oregon State has a 13-7 season record with its most one-sided defeat, 84-59, inflicted by Southern Cal in Los Angeles.

Acting coach Paul Valenti plans to start a lineup that averages 5 feet, 4 inches in height. It is made up of Karl Anderson, 6-10; Bob Jacobson and Bob Niles, both 6-6; Jim Woodland, 6-1; and Bill Wold, 6-0.

Luis Aparicio of the Chicago White Sox stole 56 bases in 63 attempts in 1959. He was thrown out twice at third base and once at home plate.

Extras Over For Bradley, Cincinnati '5'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The tune-ups are over for those blistering Bradley Braves. Now it's back to that duel with the Cincinnati Bearcats that'll decide the Missouri Valley Conference title, places in the NCAA and National Invitation Tournament fields and maybe the No. 1 spot in The Associated Press' national college basketball poll.

The Braves wound up their non-conference activity for the regular season Thursday night, toying with Oklahoma City 82-69 for their 14th straight victory and 20th in 21 games. Their five remaining games all are MVC challenges, beginning at North Texas State Saturday.

New York University, an at-large selection for the NCAA tournament, snapped Holy Cross' 11-game win streak 74-60. St. Louis (15-6) improved its NIT chances with a 68-64 road victory over Wichita, and NCAA-bound Miami (Fla.) rolled to a 21-3 record, 121-85 over Florida Southern.

Maryland, hitting 18 of 19 second half foul shots, nailed third place in the Atlantic Coast Conference 71-61 over Duke, and Utah kept on Utah State's heels in the Sky-line race, beating Denver 102-77. NYU, now 14-3, walloped Holy Cross (16-3) in the second game of a Madison Square Garden doubleheader after Selon Hall had kept its slim tourney hopes alive by taking the opener from Niagara 78-74.

The New York Violets trailed midway through the first half but took the lead for keeps when 6-5 Al Filardi came off the bench and hit six straight points during a 9-0 NYU burst. Soph Ray Paprocky led NYU with 25 points while 6-7 Tom Sanders had 17 points and did a top defensive job on Holy Cross' ace scorer, Jackie Foley. Foley had 18 points but got seven of them in the last few minutes. Miami's 121-point burst against Florida Southern was a school record. Ron Godfrey, hitting eight straight shots in the first half, was top scorer with 26 for the Hurricanes, ranked tenth nationally.

UO's Herron To Wear Mask

EUGENE (AP)—High-scoring Dale Herron will wear a mask to protect a fractured nose when he plays with the University of Oregon against Washington tonight and against Southern California Saturday.

He suffered the injury in a physical education tumbling class. Sword Dancer, racing's outstanding horse of 1959, is by Sunglow out of Highland Fling.

No Fight Yet, Still Debating

NEW YORK (AP)—Will Roy Cohn's group get a license to promote boxing? Will Ingemar Johansson again fight Floyd Patterson in New York? Will they ever get through talking and start fighting?

Some of the answers may be forthcoming today. The New York State Athletic Commission has called a hearing on the application by Cohn's group (Feature Sports Inc.)

The commission and various authorities have been probing the promotion of the first heavyweight title fight last June and the contract for the rematch since last summer. The Cohn application has been on file since Dec. 30.

Third League Confab Resumed

HOUSTON (AP)—Branch Rickey says organizing the Continental League is like getting six young children ready for church.

"Only there are eight instead of six," said the 78-year-old Rickey as he began a second day of Houston conferences with league directors.

Rickey has set what he terms a firm target date — April 18, 1961 — but admits he will have to call on baseball Commissioner Ford Frick frequently for advice, guidance, and blessings.

He hinted broadly Frick may be asked to settle one of the Continental's most bothersome problems of the moment — Houston territorial rights.

One of the 10 requirements the Continental must meet before being admitted into baseball as a third major league is possession of such rights.

Rickey and Bill Shea, the New Yorker who started the Continental boom, hinted broadly Frick may be asked to grant a waiver if efforts to settle the muddled Houston situation are unsuccessful.

Both said current owners of the American Assn. Houston Buffs are seeking too much money. Both emphasized that baseball requires that such asking prices be just and reasonable.

Cities in the new league are Denver, Dallas-Fort Worth, Houston, Atlanta, Minneapolis-St. Paul, New York, Toronto and Buffalo.

Len Matthews, Godih Meet

NEW YORK (AP)—Len Matthews, a 20-year-old slugger from Philadelphia, and Lahouari Godih, an Algerian-born Parisian with 61 pro fights, will try to stir up a little excitement tonight at Madison Square Garden.

Last time out Matthews knocked out Johnny Busso in 2:48 of the first round. He has stopped 14 opponents while compiling a 22-3-1 record in less than four years as a pro.

Godih, 30, has been boxing since 1950 in the professional ranks and ever since he was old enough to in scoring with 22 points and teammate Chet Schooler was next with 17. Crumie garnered nine field goals and four gifts. Pacing the Grizzlies' scoring was Gerald Warren with 16.

The Gilchrist squad was plagued all afternoon by poor ball handling and sloppy passing. Much of this was caused by Bonanza's continued pressing and superior height.

Playing their last game for the Grizzlies were Bill Hawkins, Don Hitt, Charlie Russell, Will Ramey and Chet Emery.

The boxscore:

	FG	FT	PF	TP
Bonanza (73)	9	4-11	3	22
Crume	7	3-4	4	17

TITLE TO LYONS
DUNEDIN, Fla. (UPI)—Tony Lyons of Jamestown, N.Y., won the PGA National Golf Club championship Thursday with a 72-hole 291. He fired a final three-over-par 75 on the rain and wind-swept course.

put up his hands in the amateurs. When he left France in 1958 to campaign in this country, he relinquished the French lightweight title. His record is 51-8-2 with 12 knockouts.

The fight will be carried on network (NBC) radio and TV, starting at 10 p.m. (EST). Two judges and a referee will score it by rounds, using a supplementary point system in case of even rounds.

Rabbit Hunt Slated Sunday
Klamath Archers and Chiloquin Bowmen will combine for a rabbit hunt in the Bonanza area on Sunday. All archers of the area, whether members or not, are invited.

Archers are to meet at 9 a.m. on Sunday at Farmers Lumber Company, 7151 South Sixth Street, which is the location of the indoor range for Klamath Archers. There will be transportation provided for those who do not wish to drive their own cars.

Only blunt and broadhead will be shot on Sunday.

Those participating should bring sack lunches. Approximately 20 are expected.

Local archers will hold their regular business meeting at the indoor range this evening, with potluck supper at 6:30 p.m.

Tourney Slots Go On Block

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Hermiston, South Salem and Sandy can cinch berths in the Oregon-class A-1 basketball tourney at Eugene next month by winning games tonight.

Hermiston, tied for No. 5 spot in the Associated Press poll, plays Pend in an Intermountain League game.

South Salem, tied for 10th in the poll, meets Corvallis, and a victory would give South Salem the Valley League title.

Marshfield, No. 2 in the AP poll, plays Cottage Grove tonight and Willamette of Eugene Saturday.
