

Klamath Pair Finish Program

Thomas C. Barnes and Morris D. Gunderson of Klamath Falls completed a special three-day training program for sewage works operators Wednesday at Oregon State College.

Sponsors of the course, the state Board of Health, the State Sanitary Authority, and the League of Oregon Cities, say the purpose is to promote efficient and economical operation of sewerage works and to reduce hazards to public health in disposal of wastes.

Peace Memorial

Activities planned during the immediate future at Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church are numerous.

The Rev. Harold E. Kurtz, missionary from Ethiopia, will be guest speaker at the March 5 family potluck supper. The Reverend and Mrs. Kurtz are stationed at Major, Chicago, where he is in charge of evangelistic work and language study, assisted by his wife. Dinner will be at 6:30 p.m. followed by the program.

The Reverend Kurtz is a brother of Bill Kurtz, former resident of Klamath Falls and moderator of the Presbytery of Southwest Oregon.

The Women's Association will hold February meetings as follows: February 22, 7:30 p.m., Emerson at the home of Mrs. Laverne Smith, 2660 Homedale; Moser, Mrs. Nellie Olson, 2520 Hope Street.

Tuesday, February 23, 7:30 p.m., Beatrice, Mrs. Lela Thurman, 3307 Hilyard.

Friday, February 26, Forsythe, 9 a.m., Mrs. Irene Ferguson, 4202 Douglas; Travaille, 9 a.m., Mrs. Marie Ragland, Pine Grove; MacKenzie, 12:30 p.m., Mrs. Vesta Shogren, 4107 Bisbee.

The next meeting of Evangelism Callers will be Thursday, February 25, 7 p.m.

The board of trustees will meet with representatives of Counselors International, 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, February 23, in the church for an important meeting.

The Blue and Gold dinner for Cub Pack 8 will be held in the church Monday, February 29.

The session will meet with new members at 8 p.m. February 28. Presbyterian Men will not hold a breakfast Sunday, February 21.

Moscow has clean streets because thousands of women are sent forth with brooms to clean up after the litterbugs.

Pioneers Plan Organization

ROSEBURG (AP) — The 30 persons who helped to publicize Oregon's Centennial by making a covered wagon journey from Independence, Mo., to Independence, Ore., are going to organize a permanent corporation.

They will meet here Sunday to form the On-To-Oregon Cavalcade. It will be their first get-together since completion of their 2,650-mile trip last August.

They own nine acres near Independence, Ore. They plan to develop the land into a public park with a museum in which they would display historical items they acquired on last summer's journey.

with rummage to be picked up, please call Jackie Bedord, TU 4-6773.

VFW Dance in the VFW Hall Saturday, February 20, with the usual good music. Members and invited guests are welcome.

Hank Fields of Alturas will call at the Merry Mixers' Square Dance in their Pelican City hall at 8 p.m. Saturday, February 20. Ladies please bring dish for potluck.

Oldtimers, there will be no dance as scheduled for the KC Hall Saturday, February 20, because of illness in the orchestra.

Leonard Williamson will call for the Maverick Square Dance party tonight at 8 o'clock in Summers School. Ladies bring cake. Everyone invited.

Mrs. Leola Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dallas will entertain with a program of music at the meeting of the Retired Teachers Group Saturday, February 20, at 1:30 p.m. at the YMCA building.

Klamath Lark Lodge No. 460 VOA will celebrate its 35th anniversary Saturday, February 20, at the IOOF West Hall. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m., followed by the meeting and program. Members and friends are invited.

The Spaghetti dinner planned by the Lions Club for February 26 has been postponed until a later date because of the Community Concert at Mills School. A future date will be announced.

Phil Hitchcock, former Oregon senator and Klamath Falls businessman for several years, stopped here for lunch Thursday. Hitchcock, flying his own plane, was en route to Sacramento to attend a Pacific Coast Conference of Presbyterian Men.

Mrs. Elmer Bramlett, in the accounting department of Balsiger Motors, is recuperating following recent surgery at Klamath Valley Hospital.

All Junior Westminister Fellowship young people must have themes to go with their mosaic tiles Sunday evening, February 21. For further information call TU 4-5782 or TU 2-4021.

Mrs. Lena Horton, 234 North Third, will be hostess to members of the Happy Hour Club at her home, 234 North Third Street, for a 1:30 p.m. dessert on Tuesday, February 23.

Plans Formulated For X-ray Tests

Preliminary plans for a chest X-ray survey in Klamath County this year, starting the latter part of April and extending through June, were made this week when personnel of the county health department and of the tuberculosis and health association met with Max W. Braden of Portland, health education consultant from the state board of health.

Another meeting was set for March 15 when representatives will be invited to attend from other communities, service clubs and various organizations.

At this time, the schedule of the X-ray mobile unit will be discussed, and plans made for obtaining volunteers to assist at each location. Place of this meeting will be announced later.

Potluck Supper Set By Church

CHILOQUIN — The Chiloquin Methodist Church is holding a family potluck dinner to be followed by a short program Sunday evening, February 21. The theme of the evening is Africa. The dinner is scheduled for 6 o'clock.

The Women's Society of Christian Service is in charge of the evening. Decorations are being made by girls of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades under the direction of Donna Robinson. A time of group singing is planned and later a discussion on Africa for the adults and some African games are planned for the young people.

Mrs. F. D. Wilder is general chairman and announces that the Rev. D. L. Brown will give a very short talk on mission work in Africa at the close of the program. Everyone is invited to attend.

SCOUT NEWS AWARDS WON

Cub Scout Pack 10 members won awards during a meeting in Shasta School recently.

They were Franz Hille, Richard Baker, Harold Tice, David Antley, Gary Haden and Bobby Ward.

Cubmaster Bill Ward called the meeting to order. The Webelos Den led the flag salute. Ward reported on a recent visit to the Air Force radar station on Haymaker Mountain.

Den 4 presented a skit about science. The den also won the attendance pennant.

Next meeting will be a blue and gold banquet February 26.

Leasing Slated On Six Lots

Six lots of Bureau of Reclamation grazing and farming land at Lower Klamath Lake will be available for lease March 8.

Sealed bids will be received in the bureau office in Klamath Falls until 10 a.m. that date.

Four are in Lease Area K—the "Klamath Straits." The other two are in Lease Area F.

Information concerning bidding procedure and leasing conditions is available at the office, Washburn Way and Joe Wright Road, and from bulletins in all post offices in the Basin and vicinity.

Program Completed

MALIN—Ival C. Taylor of Malin completed a three-day training program for sewage works operators Wednesday at Oregon State College.

The school offers the course annually as a service to cities, sanitary districts and utility companies. It is sponsored by the State Board of Health, Sanitary Authority and the League of Oregon Cities.

CORRECTION

State police confirmed that Jack Clayton Minkler, 234 Martin Street, was not cited following a multiple rear-end accident on Lakeport Boulevard Monday. Drivers cited were Jimmy Malcolm Thompson, 2350 East Main Street, and Jesse Calvin Fleming, 1033 Alameda Avenue, not Minkler as written in a previous news story.
