COME, BE OUR VALENTINE read invitations received by many local women from hostesses, left to right, Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Louis Serruys and Mrs. Robert Thompson. Guests were asked for coffee in the morning or tea on the afternoon of Wednesday, February 10, at the Thompson home, 660 Loma Linda Drive. Hostesses and those assisting wore unusual Valentine heart corsages. The same hearts filled with colored baubles were tied to a branch tree for an effective coffee table arrangement. White flowers and red ones in pretty vases were about the room.

VISITING during the afternoon at the Valentine tea were, left to right, Mrs. Al Hattan, Mrs. Steve M. Vranson, standing next to her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Jones, and Mrs. George Hillis. Guests were served from a table centered with a dainty arrangement of pink rosebuds and violets between tall pink candles. Presiding at the silver services were Mrs. John Ashley, Mrs. Estlin Balsiger, Mrs. C. John Cox and Mrs. Lawrence Slater in the morning, and Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. Wilford Lamm, Mrs. V. E. O'Neill and Mrs. Frank Jenkins in the afternoon.

LARRY WHYTAL, pictured with Mrs. Whytal at left, was inducted as commodore of the Klamath Yacht Club during ceremonies at the dinner dance Saturday evening, February 6. The club charter is given to him by Ray Byrnes, past commodore, at the right, with Mrs. Byrnes. Committee chairmen named by the new commodore include George Yahraus, house; Lewis Kandra, grounds; Arthur Siites, harbor master; Ed Guarnera, outdoor activities; Tom O'Harra, publicity. Directors are William Smith, A. L. Vincze and Clifford Evans.

A HANDSOME GIFT, thermometer, barometer and humidity indicator, was given Past Commodore Ray Byrnes from the officers who served with him last year. Making the presentation was W. Don Miller, master of ceremonies at the dinner. — Photo by Guderian

INTRODUCED at the Commodore's Ball were the new officers of the Anchor Club, who were installed at a morning meeting the same day. Left to right are Mrs. C. W. Evans, vice chairman; Mrs. E. A. Guarnera, secretary - treasurer; Mrs. George Yahraus, chairman. Mrs. Evans and her committee arranged clever table decorations for the dinner using pots of flowers with sails to depict boats. On the walls were displayed the club flags. A fire in the huge fireplace added a cheery note for the evening of dancing to stereo music which followed dinner.
