Husbands Feted At Lioness Party

Members of the Klamath Falls Lions Club Auxiliary entertained their husbands at the annual Sweetheart Party on February 8 at the Yacht Club.

The club rooms were gay with frilly Valentines and cupid cutouts hung along the walls. Supper tables were attractive with red candles and numerous white manzanita trees on which were tied tiny red hearts.

President Blanche Franklin assisted by Hester Dexter, Kathleen Hepburn, Dorothea Nolan, Clemence Newton, Dorothy Ward and Marceil Clark were responsible for the elaborate decorations.

Officers of the auxiliary were hostesses for the potluck supper which followed the 6:30 cocktail hour.

Eldred Putnam was crowned King of Hearts by Lioness Dorothea Nolan. Mrs. Putnam received the queen's crown.

Special prizes were awarded during the evening to Dr. Frank Johnson, Loy Barker and Hap Hepburn.

LEGION AUXILIARY

MALIN — The Malin American Legion Auxiliary met Wednesday evening, February 3, at the home of Anita Stephens with Carol McCulley, president, conducting the meeting. Marge Conroy, membership chairman, reported the Malin Unit now has 42 members. Clothing is being collected to send to the Save the Children Federation. The annual American Legion birthday dinner will be Wednesday evening, March 2, at the community hall with legion and auxiliary members and families invited. Refreshments were served following the business meeting by the hostess.

ETNA WOMAN'S SOCIETY

ETNA — The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church held its February meeting Tuesday afternoon at the church with Mrs. Mary Ruth Maplesden, vice president, in charge. Mrs. Vanover, assistant Siskiyou County probation officer, gave a talk on the problems confronting probation officers in their line of duty, need for more foster homes, and the prospective detention home.

A short business meeting was held prior to the introduction of the guest speaker and luncheon was served by the Mary Martha Circle.

THE BETROTHAL OF Arlene Judith Johnson and Thomas James O'Neil is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irven G. Johnson of Merrill. The bride-elect, a graduate of Merrill High School, attended Southern Oregon College and is now employed by the First National Bank of Merrill. Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil Sr. of Merrill, was also graduated from Merrill High School and attended Oregon State College for two years. He is associated with his father in farming operations in Merrill. Their September wedding will take place in St. Augustine's Church. — Photo by Ferebee

Squaw Valley Attracts Many

A sizable number of Klamath Falls folk will be among the spectators at Squaw Valley during the next two weeks for the Olympic games which opened Thursday.

Arriving a little early in order to do some skiing themselves and get a good look at the slopes were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hicks. They went to Reno last week and were met by Dr. and Mrs. Lou Danielson of Pasadena. The two couples have visited Sun Valley often together. Also a part of their party will be Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lamb of San Francisco.

Reservations have also been made at the Pony Pass Motel in Sparks for Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Drew of Las Vegas who will see the Greer, Frank, Cecil and Lloyd Drews and their children at various times during the meet. Also planning to attend are Dr. and Mrs. Robert Mueller and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Stiles.

Dr. Marian Luten Speaks To Group

Dr. Marian Luten, Klamath Falls physician and surgeon, was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Catholic Daughters on February 8. Dr. Luten gave an interesting resume on the care of the skin followed by a question and answer session.

Members of the court welcomed Mrs. Pauline Paroline who transferred from Porterville, California. Mrs. Mary Martin and Mrs. Mae K. Short were reinstated also at this time. Mrs. Short was a charter member when Court Klamath 1295 was organized here in 1938.

Sacred Heart Academy students will again participate in the poetry contest sponsored by the court. Other important coming events are the silver "Book Tea" on February 22 at 8 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Parish Hall and the party for the Pope's Relief on March 28.

The state convention will be held in Portland at the Multnomah Hotel on April 29, 30 and May 1.
