

MR. AND MRS. PETER JOHN ROBINSON

Phyllis Crabtree Brille In Eugene

Phyllis Maria Crabtree became the bride of Peter John Robinson on December 20 at the Central Lutheran Church in Eugene. White stock and chrysanthemums and red carnations and holy around the candelabra set the color decor for the 2:30 double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Olaf Anderson.

Present for the services were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse A. Crabtree of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Robinson of Charlotte, North Carolina, parents of the bridegroom, are former residents of this city.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she chose a white wool jersey sheath dress with a chapel veil attached to a small hat of silvery white flowers. Loops of pearls fell from three white orchids which she carried on a white Bible.

Sally Tontz of Salem, the bride's cousin, was maid of honor. Her sheath dress was of deep red velvet and she carried gardenias and red carnations.

Mrs. Crabtree was attired in a red wool sheath dress with a gardenia corsage.

Bill Emery served as best man.

Following the church service a wedding dinner was served to the bridal party and family in the Mural Room of the Eugene Hotel. When the newlyweds left later for a honeymoon trip to San Francisco, the new Mrs. Robinson was wearing a camel-color suit with an orchid corsage. She is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and attended the University of Oregon where her husband is now a student. They reside at 1889 Hilyard Street in Eugene.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Henry Egger, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards McCoy, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Tontz of Salem, Kathy Beal of Eugene.
