Bauer-Manning Vows Read In Yreka Church

YREKA—Marilyn Kay Manning and Richard Donald Bauer exchanged their nuptial vows on Sunday afternoon, January 31, at the Yreka Methodist Church before the altar which was flanked by baskets of white chrysanthemums and lighted candles. Approximately 75 guests were present at the 2 o'clock double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Harold C. Coleman.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Manning of Yreka, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bauer of Albany, California.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over white satin with bouffant skirt and fitted bodice featuring a portrait neckline, embroidered with sequins, and long sleeves pointed at the wrists. A sequin studded crown held a fingertip veil of illusion. A white orchid nestled in the center of the cascade bouquet of stephanotis, tied with white satin ribbons, which centered the white mother of pearl Bible she carried.

Beverly Dittner of San Francisco was maid of honor, and Gloria Manning, sister of the bride, and Louise Hitchcock, served as bridesmaids. Identical gowns, worn by all attendants, were of royal blue nylon chiffon over taffeta, fashioned with full skirts, and featuring snug bodices banded in matching satin trim, and full three-quarter length sleeves. Bunches of blue velvet leaves studded with pearls held the brief circle veils, and they carried nosegays of baby chrysanthemums and stephanotis tied with royal blue satin ribbon.

Serving as best man was Marvin Geistlinger of Albany, and guests were seated by Dick Day of Berkeley, Ken Santos and Leo Boulla, both of Albany.

Judy Moore played traditional wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Wilma Parker, who sang "The Lord's Prayer," and "I Love You Truly."

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the

Couple Wed In Home Rites

WEED — Beauty baskets of white gladioli banked the fireplace in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Mazzei for the wedding of Mary Rose Scalise and Arthur W. Lipscomb Saturday evening, January 30.

Judge Kenneth T. Stone performed the 8 o'clock ceremony witnessed by over 30 friends and relatives of the couple. Recordings of wedding selections as background music highlighted the home wedding ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Scalise and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lipscomb of Careywood, Idaho.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was given in a waltz length dress of white lace and nylon net, fashioned with a Sabrina neckline, three quarter sleeves, and the skirt detailed with alternating tiers of lace and net ruffles. Her veil fell from a coronet of pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Antoinette Scalise, maid of honor for her sister, wore a rose colored nylon lace frock and carried a cascade arrangement of pink rosebuds.

Joseph Scalise, the bride's only brother, was best man.

The guest book was attended by Jeanette Mazzei. During the reception immediately following the wedding rites, petite Linda Aiello passed pastel candies and wedding tokens tied in nets and arranged on heart motifs, from a white satin covered basket accented with two red roses. "Mary and Bill" was inscribed on the heart motif.

A five tiered wedding cake centered an attractively appointed bridal cutting of the first serving by the bride and bridegroom. It was served by Jose Scalise, a sister of the bride, and a friend, Mrs. Pete Aiello.

The entire ceremony was tape recorded by Mr. and Mrs. Mazzei and presented as a wedding gift to the newlyweds.

The bride is a graduate of both the Weed schools and is presently manager of the Sprouse Reitz Store. The bridegroom, employed by International Paper Company, is a graduate of Burroughs High School of China Lake, California, and is a Marine veteran.

The newlyweds are making their home in the Cascade Apartments having returned this week from their honeymoon travels to Monterey, Carmel, Squaw Valley and Reno.
