

MRS. RICHARD BAUER was Kathleen Bue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Salve Bue of Burney, before her marriage on January 29 at Newhall, California.

Kathleen Bue January Bride

BURNEY—Kathleen Bue, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Salve Bue of Burney, exchanged marriage vows with Richard Ralph Bauer in the presence of relatives at the First Presbyterian Church of Newhall, California, on Friday evening, January 29. The Rev. J. H. Robertson, friend of the bride's family, read the ceremony.

The bride chose an off white dress and small flowered white satin hat for the 8 o'clock nuptials.

She was graduated from Oregon State College last June where she was a member of Madrigal Singers and the Choral Society.

After touring Europe with her parents, she accepted a secretarial position with the California Fruit Growers Association in Los Angeles.

Southern California relatives who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Bauer, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Meyer and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Barbour, brothers-in-law and sisters of the bridegroom; the bride's brother, Harold, and his family, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Ryckman and son, Gregg, all of Los Angeles.

After a honeymoon at Carmel, and at the home of the bride's parents, the newlyweds will be at home to friends at 3300 West Third, Los Angeles 5, California, where he is a medical student at the University of California, Los Angeles.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

BONANZA—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dixon entertained with a dinner at their home near Bonanza on Sunday in honor of their daughter, Julia, who was 1 year old January 31. A social afternoon followed the dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Benson Dixon and Ralph Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. George Simmons and Jeanine, Christine and George Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peterson, Stacie, Johnnie, Jimmy and Billy, all of Bonanza, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wagner and Raymond and Jeanette, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bliss and Chris, all of Klamath Falls.

CINDY, left, just two on February 7, and Christy, are pretty daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Casteel, comparative newcomers to this city. Their father is a member of the teaching staff of Klamath Union High School. A third daughter, Cheri, joined the young family six weeks ago. Christy is at present with her grandparents in South Dakota and Indiana. Her grandfather, Tech. Sgt. Russell Corbett, leaves soon for Iceland and an Air Force assignment. Mrs. Corbett will make her home in Klamath Falls with her daughter's family. Other grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Casteel of Greeley, Colorado.

A pink and white color theme was used for the tables with roses and candles. A scrapbook of old favorites was made by each guest contributing her favorite poem, recipe, cartoon, joke, Bible verse and other quotations and signing a guest list page. Present besides the hostesses and honoree were Agnes Calloway, Bernice Smith, Lois House, Bertha Grimes, Carrie Maplesden, Verna Maplesden, Hazel Naylor, Gladys Dimmick, Bertha Corbett, Esther Fearing, Helen Lincoln, Rose Ann Dillman, Esther Skillen, Sadie Buchner, Maude Short, Ruth Burr, Louise Freitag, Lydia Stephens, Hallie Daggett, Atlanta Adams, Leslie Hyde, Olive Krueger, Jeanette Clay, Claire Neville, Thelma Owen, Anna Hovenden, Viva Elliott, Millie Sethman, Anna Dunham and daughter, Linda.

Two Take Vows At Church Altar

MONTAGUE — Bonnie Louise Rowe exchanged nuptial vows with Ronald Douglas Watson in a candlelight ceremony on Saturday evening, January 29, at the Pentecostal Church of God in Yreka, with the Rev. James Cargill officiating.

The young couple repeated their marriage vows at 8 o'clock before the altar which was flanked with large baskets of white chrysanthemums and stocks and lighted candelabra.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira (Bunny) Rowe of Montague, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Watson of Hill.

The ceremony was witnessed by relatives and a few close friends. Serving as candlelighters were Mickie Rowe, brother of the bride, and Karen Watson, sister of the bridegroom.

For her marriage, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white satin, featuring a high neckline and long sleeves. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a circlet of lily of the valley centered in a ruffle of net.

On the evening prior to her marriage, the bride was the honoree at a potluck bridal shower supper, given for her by a close friend, Diane Fehlman, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Fehlman.

Following the dinner, appropriate games for the occasion were played, with prizes being won by Jean Meamber, Carol Schollerman, Jean Taylor and Mrs. Betty Dow.

The gifts had been arranged in a large umbrella, placed in the center of the room, and following the games, the young bride-elect opened the many attractively wrapped packages.

Those present in addition to the aforementioned were Penny Barnum, Jerry Elmore, Geraldine Fehlman, Nancy Jones, Ardyce Joslin, Lutilia Lacy, Jane Meamber, Gaye Messner, Charlene McCarthy, Ticky Rawhauser, Penny Rick, Nancy Robustellini, Arlene Sears, Sydney Wagner, Mrs. Ruth Watson, and daughter, Karen, Doris Wheeler and Lulu Belle Whitten. Unable to be present were Caroline and Linda Brawman, Jennifer Morris, Mina Casterline, Kathy Brister and Mrs. Robert Akin.

Party Honors Etna Woman

ETNA—Mrs. Lottie Ball was feted with a surprise birthday party recently in the social hall of the Congregational Church. Norma Boedecker and Mary Ruth Maplesden were co-hostesses for the event.
