NEW ERA DAWNING?

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — The nation's future homemakers would like to have their husbands help with the housework "only a little bit," said finalists in a project to name the All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow. Most finalists also said that they are "willing to let the husband be boss of the house."

Africa Trip Is Hard One

NAIROBI, Kenya (UPI) — Two European drivers recently took an ordinary automobile across the width of Africa and back in just over 10 days.

Neil Vincent and Roddy Antrobus drove their British-made (Vauxhall Victor) car between Mombassa, Kenya, and Banana, Belgian Congo, in 10 days, 2 1/2 hours at an average speed of more than 30 miles per hour.

Their 7,218-mile trip involved 42 river crossings by primitive and unpredictable ferries, tracks through jungle so dense they needed headlights at high noon, deep sand and frequent detours on almost non-existent roads.

NINA PENCE, Klamath Falls only registered woman architect, designed the Art Gallery, drew blueprints, was in charge of actual construction, giving hundreds of hours of time and work as her contribution to this community effort. The work Miss Pence donated exceeded any single cash donation.
