Civil Suit Seeks Stock

A civil suit filed by Warren J. Schluchter maintains W. Don Miller failed to perform an agreement regarding sale of stock in Klamath Ready Mix.

The suit maintains Miller failed to turn over to Schluchter 16 shares (a small percentage of outstanding stock) after Schluchter had offered Miller $800 and five $100 promissory notes. Instead, Miller returned the money and notes and announced intention to sell to a third party. Schluchter maintains Miller was obligated by agreement to accept the money and deliver the stock to Schluchter, a present stockholder.

The suit does not imply that Miller refused to deliver stock after accepting payment for it.
