

Four File For Office

DORRIS—By the noon deadline for filing for city offices Thursday, four residents had filed their candidacy for the three vacancies on the city council, one for mayor, and the incumbents for city clerk and city treasurer were unopposed.

Present Mayor Robert H. Edgar, who had said he would not file because he was moving, said that he had changed his mind after receiving many phone calls and being approached by numbers of residents.

W. H. "Cy" Cramer, employe of Mountain View Moulding Company; Arnold S. Skoog, local butcher and incumbent; Robert E. Carnini, employe of the Associated Lumber and Box Company, and Beryl G. Smith, employe of the Dorris Lumber and Moulding Company, filed for seats on the city council.

Incumbent city clerk, Mrs. Virginia Hamilton, was unopposed, as was the present city treasurer, Mrs. Daisy Selberg.

Award Rites Set Friday

LAKEVIEW—The second annual youth leaders award ceremony sponsored by American Legion Post 53 and Auxiliary of Lake County will be held on Friday, February 26, at 8 p.m. in the Memorial Hall.

Chosen as principal speakers for the event are two local men prominent in youth work, Circuit Judge Charles H. Foster and Bishop John E. McDonald of the LDS Church, also general manager for the Lakeview Lumber Products Company. Presentation of certificates of meritorious service to the youth leaders nominated will be made by Wallace Chapman, district commander of the American Legion, and the plaque for the outstanding youth leader in the county for 1959 as well as the organization cash award will be presented by Mrs. Harry Anthony, auxiliary district president.

Judge Foster will speak on youth programs and juvenile delinquency and Bishop McDonald will discuss the moral and spiritual guidance of our youth through youth programs and youth leaders.

The program, started last year by the local organization, asks for nominations from other organizations for the leader outstanding in youth work in its group. The eight leaders and their organizations named this year are the Rev. Al Bekkedahl by the Westside Grange; Mrs. Peggy Bell by the Girl Scouts; Mrs. Mildred Scoville by the 4-H clubs; Mrs. Margaret Harlan by the Boy Scouts; Art Morton by the Little League; Stanley Tooke by the Lakeview park board; Clair Smith by the Fremont Highlanders, and Millis Flynn by the Babe Ruth League.

Mrs. Mavis Kiewer and the Girl Scouts were the winners last year.

THE STRING SECTION of the KUHS Symphony Orchestra is polishing technique for a concert Thursday. In the foreground are Julia Lawrence, concert mistress and first violinist, and M. Dale Hallack, director.

KU Symphony Sets Concert For Thursday

The Klamath Union High School Symphony Orchestra will offer seven selections—the mixed chorus five—during a public concert next Thursday beginning at 8 p.m. in Mills School Auditorium.

The concert will be the first of several this spring showing off various musical groups at the high school.

The orchestral program includes "Overture Theodora" by Handel, an oratorio; "The Merry Wives of Windsor," an overture by Nicholas, "Walk to the Paradise Garden," a descriptive tone poem by Delius, "Vignettes" by Kirk, "Romanian Gypsy Dances" arranged by Don Wilson, "Ebb Tide" by Maxwell, and a medley from "The Music Man," a hit Broadway play by Meredith Willson.

The chorus will offer "You'll Never Walk Alone" by Richard Rogers, "The Halls of Ivy" by Russell, "All Through the Night," a folk song; "Thanks be to Thee" by Handel, and "Good News" arranged by Smith.

The orchestra is directed by M. Dale Hallack and the chorus by Don Herbig, who is new to the music faculty this year.

Julia Lawrence, orchestra concert mistress, will play a violin solo, and Lonnie Hallack an alto saxophone solo.

Tickets will be available at the auditorium door. Season tickets are sold by all members of KUHS musical groups.

EDENS WILL RESIGN

DURHAM, N.C. (UPI) — Dr. A. Hollis Edens, 59, Friday announced he will resign as soon as possible after 11 years as president of Duke University. He said he was resigning to allow a new president willing to serve "a longer period of time than I would wish for mine" to lead the university's 76-million-dollar development program.

Dog Licenses To Be Available

Residents of the Fort Klamath area will again this year be able to obtain dog licenses locally on Friday, February 26, from the hours of 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. During that time, Bill Schlegel, Klamath County poundmaster, will be at the Fort Klamath Hotel, and will issue dog licenses at fees of $2 for male animals and $3 for females. After March 1, $1 will be added to each license fee. This public service was available at the Fort Klamath Hotel last year and was convenient for those dog owners who for some reason had not obtained their licenses, and news that the poundmaster will be on hand again this year will be welcome to those who have not yet secured their 1960 dog licenses.

Ron Delany won four straight Wanamaker Mile races at the Millrose Games.

JIM VEATCH

Lad Serves On Best Ship

Jim Veatch of Klamath Falls is a crewman of a very elite Pacific Fleet Navy ship.

The destroyer tender Bryce Canyon is the only ship in the fleet to have won the Navy's battle efficiency award, the Navy "E," five years consecutively.

Veatch, 19, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Veatch of Old Midland Road. He is home for 30 days of leave after a long cruise with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

He visited Hawaii and Guam, Japan, Hong Kong, the Philippines and Okinawa. Veatch will again ship out in August for a seven-month cruise.

He enlisted in June, 1958, following graduation from Klamath Union High School. His rank is seaman torpedoman.

Dance Slated For Red Barn

DORRIS—The Red Barn's first rock 'n' roll show and dance is scheduled for the evening of Wednesday, February 24.

Previously the landmark night spot has featured western music nearly exclusively.

On tap are Johnnie Preston and his band who fashioned today's number one recording, "Running Bear," now into its second million sales.

Three other young popular vocalists will appear with Preston and "The Twisters," a seven-piece band which also records.

The entertainers all are currently on their first West Coast tour.

JOHNNIE PRESTON

Police Radio Helps Paper

ELKINS, W. Va. (AP) — The Elk Mountain Inter-Mountain, an afternoon newspaper with a circulation of 5,142 turned to police radio Friday in order to publish.

With telephone and news service wires knocked out by a snowstorm, things looked grim for a while. Then the Inter-Mountain contacted another afternoon paper, the Fairmont West Virginian, via police radio and asked for help.

The West Virginian prepared a capsule summary of the day's news, including birth of a son to Queen Elizabeth, and had it radioed to Elk Mountain. Fairmont is about 40 miles north of Elkins.

Queen Victoria's luxurious private railway cars, built in 1869, were given gas lighting. But, the Queen ordered oil lamps and candles to replace the gas jets.

that will take them through California and the Northwest.

A member of the band, Benny "Fastest Gun Alive" Barnes also sings western songs.

The show begins at 9 p.m. and ends at 1 a.m.

Broken Heart Fatal To Dog

DETROIT (AP) — Love and attention weren't enough for Old Brokenhearted. The mongrel dog died grieving for his lost master.

Veterinarian J. B. Graves said the dog died of "old age — and a broken heart."

The half-Chow, half-collie was hurt by an auto near suburban Birmingham Feb. 3. He was taken to Dr. Graves' animal hospital and treated, but no one claimed him.

The 8-year-old pooch refused to eat for days until Graves' tiny daughter coaxed him to eat some chicken.

Old Brokenhearted, so named by Dr. Graves, perked up enough to be adopted by a nearby Bloomfield family.

But without his master, Old Brokenhearted just slipped away Thursday.
