SCOUT NEWS

BLUE AND GOLD BANQUET

Archie McClurg received a pin recognizing his 10 years of service to scouting during the annual Cub Scout Pack 9 Blue and Gold Banquet held recently at Pelican School.

McClurg organized Troop 9 and Pack 9 and is chairman of the pack, and committeeman for the troop.

His wife, Goldie, who helped organization, also received a 10-year pin. She is den mother of Den 3 and president of Troop 9 Auxiliary. A nine-year pin went to Mrs. Guard Knauss, former den mother of Den 4 and now assistant den mother.

Knauss was awarded an eight-year pin. He has been cubmaster, assistant cubmaster, committeeman and institutional representative for the pack and helped re-activate Troop 9 and Explorer Post 109 and the Moose Lodge troop.

The pins were presented by Scoutmaster Louis Leppert.

Pack Treasurer Travis Miles received a six-year pin. Cubmaster Clyde Martin and Assistant Cubmaster Joe Matlick Jr. received five-year pins.

Den 5 Den Mother Mrs. Betty Adams and Den 4 Den Mother Mrs. Bernadette Mathis each received two-year pins.

Dinner was supervised by Mrs. McClurg. Members of Troop 9 Auxiliary served. Hostesses were Mrs. Edna Clawson and Mrs. Violet Phillips.

Tables were decorated in cub, scout and explorer motifs. Other representatives of Troop 9 present were Assistant Scoutmasters John Yontes, Dick Knight and Jim Brown.

Jesse "Peanuts" Barker, Post 109 adviser, also attended.

About 200 guests were present.

SAYS COMMUNISM DECLINES

TEMPE, Ariz. (UPI) — Former British Prime Minister Clement Attlee Wednesday night had encouraging words about the success of the fight against communism.

Attlee told a gathering at Arizona State University that communism is growing weaker in Europe, suffering defeats in India and Burma, not getting anywhere in this country and never did get anywhere in Great Britain.
