Hailing the increase in family shopping
...with a big fun and savings event!

We see more and more families shopping together — planning meals as they roam through the store... sharing the fun of discovering new products... chatting with neighbors and friends. And we like it! We like the feeling of being a part of this family "share-shopping" because serving family food needs is our reason for being here. So this week we're throwing a "family party" — with extra savings, favors, and refreshments. Big doins! We hope you will bring Dad and the youngsters to join in the fun!
