

OVER THE GARDEN GATE

MT. LAKE GARDEN CLUB
Mrs. Paul Faircro was assisted by Mrs. George Houck and Mrs. Robert Bryson at the February 15 meeting of Mt. Lake Garden Club. Mrs. Richard Fleming, vice president who presided, welcomed as guests Mrs. Florence Harkens, Mrs. Lane Smith Sr. and Mrs. Lane Smith Jr. of the Green Springs Garden Club. Mrs. Smith Sr. is spring flower show chairman.

Twenty two members answered roll call by briefly discussing in-door garden plans. Ardyce Woodard was complimented on a pastel arrangement she displayed.

Information on the Landscaping Design Course to be held at Oregon State College will be mailed soon, according to Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, state chairman. It was reported that any flower show planning to apply for national awards must follow the national rules and may not use any material on national conservation lists. This must be specified in the flower show schedule. State of Oregon and Forest Service list of plants will be furnished members by the local club.

The State Highway Commission has approved plans to designate Highway 97 a Memorial Highway by placing Blue Star Memorials at designated areas in cooperation with the State Federation of Garden Clubs. A contribution from the club was favored as a tribute to the armed forces. Delegates elected to represent Mt. Lake Club at the district meeting April 26 are Crystal Cheyne and Ethel Rylander. Grace Faircro and Caroline Kelly are alternates.

Contest essay deadlines and chairmen to whom they must be mailed are: horticulture, April 10, Mrs. I. W. White, 2717 Midland Road; scrapbook, April 14, Mrs. Ralph Laird, Alturas, California; bird book, May 1, state chairman; report of club activities, March 1, state chairman.

GREEN SPRINGS CLUB

The Green Springs Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Jennie Fiegi in Stewart-Lenox Addition on Thursday, February 4. Mrs. Callie Hammond and Mrs. Mary Polsak were co-hostesses.

The tentative club calendar for the balance of the year was announced during the business meeting.

Members were asked to plan for a house plant exchange for the April meeting.

Mrs. William Georson of Klamath Falls gave an interesting talk about the care of house plants.

School Teacher Receives Honor

DUNSMUIR — "Service to children above and beyond the call of duty" was ascribed to Glen Minuth, teacher at the Dunsmuir Elementary School, as he was awarded an honorary life membership in PTA by Roger Ellis, school principal, Glen Minuth is a father, teacher, recreation director and Sunday School superintendent. He serves as bus driver when needed, and in the summer combines his pool director's job with occasional Little League game broadcasts.

Mrs. George Adams presented the Founders Day program. She was assisted by Susan Adams as the student; Mrs. Edna Parke, representing her sister, Mrs. Martha Stauffer, oldest living past president of the school PTA; Mrs. Nellie Masson, a veteran teacher, representing the state association; Mrs. Earl Sweetwyne, local president.

The nominating committee reported the following nominations: Mrs. Jack Miller, president; Mrs. Ronald Christensen, vice president; Mrs. J. D. O'Kane, secretary; Mrs. Eddie Reed, treasurer; Mrs. Kenneth Griffith, financial secretary. Election will be at the March meeting.

Mrs. Harold Baughman, Mrs. John Seed and Mrs. Glen Minuth were named to the auditing committee.

Special honors were paid to past presidents, Mrs. Glen Minuth, Mrs. Earl Shoupe, Mrs. John Mather, and life members, Mrs. Nellie Masson, Mrs. Roscoe Kimble, Mrs. Seed, Al Marske, Roger Ellis and Glen Minuth.

It was announced there will be a fashion show and tea in the spring as a money raising project.

Troop 26 gave the flag ceremony and the Rev. O. A. Terrell, the benediction.

BABY SHOWER

NEW PINE CREEK — At the home economics meeting held Thursday afternoon in the grange hall, a pink and blue shower was given for Mrs. Sally Rainville. There were 25 members and guests present. Serving on the committee were Mrs. Sara Johnston, Mrs. Florence Butler, Mrs. Elsie Cundiff, Mrs. Ethel Cundiff, Mrs. Maude Butler and Mrs. Birdie Cuzon. At the next meeting of the club Mrs. Amy Cloud and Mrs. Gladys Cooper will entertain.

PTA NEWS

RIVERSIDE

Members of the Riverside School PTA were entertained at their February meeting by two musical groups from Klamath Falls schools. Mrs. Nancy Nicholson, program chairman, introduced Lamar Jensen who presented a clarinet quartet from Klamath Union High School. A girls' ensemble led by Don Herbeck was accompanied by Jan Gippo.

Sam Ritcheny, scout district commissioner, presented charters of two scout units to Mrs. Peggie Eccles, Riverside PTA president; who accepted them in behalf of Riverside School. Boy Scouting came to Riverside seven years ago as a PTA sponsored group.

Riverside won the PTA magazine sales for Klamath County. Magazine chairman was Mrs. Betty Young. Nominating committee for next year's officers are Mrs. Dorothy McReynolds, Mrs. Betty Young and Mrs. Daisy Carlson. Members were reminded next month's meeting will be March 6 because spring vacation is March 12-20.

The Golden Jubilee reception will be held April 2 from 7 to 9:30 p.m. All former students or teachers of Riverside are urged to attend.

Room prizes went to Mrs. Edna Young's first grade and Miss Smith's fourth grade. Mrs. Martha Stearns, past president of Riverside, 1956-57, introduced Mrs. Melvina Nitschelm, past president 1942-43; Mrs. Helene Horby, past president 1945-46; and Mrs. Clara Moore, past president 1948-49.

First grade room mothers, Mrs. Betty Kellstrom, Mrs. Helen McCracken and Mrs. Betty Stride poured for the silver tea. Leading the flag salute were Gary and Randy Molatore and Vince Wachter, Troop 73 Boy Scouts.

FAIRHAVEN SCHOOL

The Parents and Patrons Club of Fairhaven School voted unanimously at their recent business meeting to contribute toward final payment on a large purchase of film strips. This is the second time films were chosen as a special school project. Teachers and parents are convinced the films are a very definite aid in classroom studies. The school will finish payment on 300 films.

Mrs. Bernard Fiegi, president, conducted an open discussion as to the advisability of having the four executive officers move up from chair to chair, permitting election of only one new officer each year. No action was taken. Del Wright, organizer and extension chairman from the Boy Scout office, presented the Cub Scout charter to the club as sponsors of Pack 18.

Slides taken by Mrs. Isabelle Brixner, Klamath County school supervisor, on her recent trip to New Zealand, were shown. Refreshments were served by third grade room mothers.

HOME EXTENSION

BUENA VISTA UNIT

Buena Vista Extension Unit met in the lecture room at the fair-ground exhibit building February 15 with 20 members present for the workshop on pattern fitting.

Tailoring was chosen as the workshop project for the coming year. Other programs selected include interior decorating, herb cookery, making mixes and cheese and egg cookery.

At the next regular meeting on March 2, Mrs. Dorothy Davison and Mrs. Grace Lester will be leaders for the laundering of synthetics project.

ALTAMONT UNIT

The Altamont Extension Unit tied two quilts at its February meeting. Under the guidance of Mrs. Edith Ward, Mrs. Frances Wandall and Mrs. Mary Wrenworth, the quilt committee, the unit has pieced and tied five quilts since the first of the year.

Mrs. Ruth Dyer, home demonstration agent, Mrs. Velma Bingham and Mrs. Margie Lamb were luncheon guests. Luncheon hostesses, Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, Mrs. Clarice Bilger, Mrs. H. F. Doege and Mrs. L. L. Barger, designed individual paper place mats with Valentine motifs and sentiments on them.

Mrs. Elsie Barger gave an excellent talk on Alaska. Mrs. Penny Jackson related the story of how the flag of Alaska originated through a contest among school children there.

Mrs. Walter Uppendahl reported on the program planning meeting she and Mrs. Wesley Harsey attended. Mrs. Jackson demonstrated the use of the hectograph by running off a textile painting design and giving the pattern to those who wanted one.

STUDY GROUP CONCLUDES

ETNA — The current Woman's Society of Christian Service African study group of the Etna Methodist Church will be concluded Sunday evening, February 28, with a potluck dinner. Thurnace York, fourth grade teacher at the Etna Elementary School, who was a missionary in Africa, will be guest speaker. The study group has been divided according to age and each group has learned games and songs and past and present history of Africa. Adult leaders are Mrs. Charles Maplesden, Mrs. Harrie Whipple, Mrs. Stanley Moore, Mrs. Glen Barnes and the Rev. Don Sager.

LITTLE SHASTA CLUB

MONTAGUE—Valentine decorations were used by Mrs. Effie Butler of Yreka when she entertained the members of the Little Shasta Bridge Club on Wednesday afternoon, February 10. Mrs. Bric Long of Little Shasta held the high score for the afternoon play, with Mrs. Allie Moore taking second high prize, and Mrs. Larry Walters receiving the low prize. Others present, in addition to those mentioned, were Mrs. Don Allen, Mrs. David Ellison, Mrs. George Flock, Mrs. Gladys Hart, Mrs. Ralph Leavers, Mrs. Syd Terwilliger, Mrs. Morris Prather, and Mrs. Ernest Williams, all of Montague. Yreka members present included Mrs. Ora McGregor, Mrs. Jennie Mathews and Miss Jessie Conrod.

The March meeting project will be laundering of synthetics.

Cabaret Supper Planned By Club

YREKA—As a fund raising project, the Yreka Sorptimist Club has completed plans for a cabaret supper to be presented in the armory at the Siskiyou County Fairgrounds on Saturday evening, February 27, from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m.

According to Betty Flannery, chairman, excellent entertainment will be presented during the supper, with strolling musicians to circle among the tables playing favorite melodies and request selections. Also during the evening, organ music will be played. Two 30-minute floor shows of top talent will be presented and half hour intervals of dancing will also be enjoyed. It has been announced that reservations must be made in advance. Tickets may be purchased from any member or at Barklow's Dress Shop. Tables will be set up by reservation, to accommodate from four to 12 persons. Funds derived from this function will be used to further the club's work in educational and civic projects and service programs.

PARTY PLANS DISCUSSED

McCLOUD — Plans for a past president's party were discussed at the February 15 meeting of the ladies auxiliary of the McCloud Fireman's Association. Appointed to the committee for the March affair were Pia Memeo, Phyllis Reginato, Carol Lester, June Nelson and Josephine Bambino. Hostesses for the February meeting were Ethyl Lung, Josephine Garcia and Ann Glynn.

CHANEL INFLUENCE

The Chanel influence continues in resort wear. The straight jacket which she made famous is shown in many fabrics and colors for wear both with dresses and with skirts.
