

Hockey Grabs Winter Game Spotlight; Soviets Continue Medal Winning Trend

Russians, Germany, U.S. Lead

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—Hockey has taken over as the major lure here as the Soviets continue to roll up their overwhelming point score in the unofficial team race. The Soviets, with five gold medals, have 120 points. Germany is second with 52½ points, the U.S.A. third with 44 and Sweden fourth with 39.

In the two finals Wednesday, the Soviets collected their fifth gold medal on Eugen Grishin's world-record equalling 40.3-second performance in the 500-meter speed skating, and Austria, the stronghold of Alpine skiing, finally won its first championship.

Ernst Hinterseer, a 27-year-old Austrian farmer and a last-minute replacement for one of his nation's disappointing aces, made two trips down the tricky 67-gate KT22 mountain course in a total of 2:08.9 to beat his countryman, 20-year-old Hias Leitner, by 1.4 seconds in the men's slalom. The 1,935-foot course dropped 708 feet.

Grishin, a 26-year-old Army lieutenant, stumbled on his last turn but still managed to equal his world record and Olympic winning time of 1956. Bill Disney, 27-year-old rug cleaner from Alhambra, Calif., was second in 40.3 seconds. Grishin's teammate, Rafael Grach, won the bronze medal in 40.4.

Dick McDermott of Essexville, Mich., was seventh in 40.9 and Eddie Rudolph of Northbrook, Ill., tied for tenth in 41.2.

In the slalom, the Americans wound up this way: 9th, Tom Corcoran, Beaconsfield, Quebec, 2:14.7 and 37th, Frank Brown, McCall, Idaho, 3:01.3. Charles Ferries, Houghton, Mich., originally finished 12th in 2:18.2, but was disqualified. Jim Barrier, of Kalispell, Montana, failed to finish the second run. He had 1:13.4 for the first descent.

There was no hope at all for the Yankees in today's two championship events—the men's 40-kilometer (24.85 miles) cross-country relay race and the men's 5,000-meter speed skating.

Norway and Sweden were favored over Finland and the Soviets in the ski race.

The Soviets were expected to go on another point spree in the speed skating. They have topped four of the five speed skating titles decided so far—three of them by the Soviet girls.

David Jenkins, world champion from Colorado Springs, Colo., slightly trailed Czechoslovakia's Karl Divin, the 1958-9 European King, and Alain Giletti, France's reigning European titleholder, after the completion of the first three compulsory figures of the men's figure skating championship.

At the end of three figures, Divin, not in Jenkins' free-skating class, had 415 points; Giletti 403; Jenkins 400.2; Don Jackson of Canada 392.0; Tim Brown of Berkeley, Calif., 389.9, and Robert Brewer of Alhambra, Calif., 360.5.

The Tigers copped the Victory League championship Tuesday evening with a coasting 41-30 win over DeMolay Blues in a basketball game played on Pelican Court. In the consolation contest, the Yogis edged out Fleets, 33-31.

Keith Larson was the big gun in the Tigers' victory by notching 17 tallies to pace his teammates in scoring. Jim Parks dropped in 12 counters to be high point man for the Blues.

The Tigers romped off in the first canto at a 14-7 margin and stretched it into a 25-14 advantage at the intermission. Both teams played evenly in the second half, collecting 16 points apiece.

In the consolation game Gary Head and Dave Saks teamed up and tallied eight points apiece to share high point honors for the Yogis.

Fleets nearly won the game in the fourth period when they pulled from a 24-9 halftime deficit to 30-19 at the third. The Yogis, though, were too far in front on account of their more consistent play in the initial half.

Don Lancaster accounted for 14 points to lead Fleets in point production for the evening.

The short scores:
Yogis (32)—Saks 3, Head 8, Saks 8, Hancock 6, Jones 4, Riley 4.
Fleets (31)—Phillips 10, Brunz 1, D. Lancaster 14, J. Lancaster 8, Shearer 3.
Tigers (41)—Inley 8, Pines 8, Larson 17, Moore 2, Easley 2, Webb 1, Tynes 3.
DeMolay Blues (30)—Parks 12, Fessler 2, Rajowski 9, Ellington 2, Adkins 5.

Henley '5' Travels, Seeks Tourney Shot

The Henley Hornet basketball team goes on the firing line in the initial clash of the A-2 tournament tomorrow night against Phoenix of the Rogue Valley League. Game time is slated for 8 o'clock on the Southern Oregon College floor.

The Pirates placed second in their league behind Glendale. In another elimination struggle tomorrow, Glendale will play Myrtle Creek. Glide will meet the winner of the Phoenix-Hornet contest next March 4 in the Southern Oregon tournament engagement at Roseburg.

The Hornets boast a .526 season mark for 19 games and also a home victory over Phoenix, 42-39, earlier this season. Coach Fred Hess said he would take 12 men with him to the Phoenix game. Starters Floyd Kendall, Bob Chapman, Bert Allbritton, Ray Jackson and Larry Lugo will be pitted against the faster and taller Phoenix quint.

Also making the trip for Henley are Dick Reiling, Chuck Blofsky, Kent Gooding, Mike Tachin, Joe DeGrande, John Gober and Don Mills.

Ray Jackson, the Hornets' leading scorer, will pace his teammates in what they hope will be a repeat victory over the Pirates. Phoenix has played a little stiff-

U.S. Lad Hides Tears, Dad, Mom Beaming

SQUAW VALLEY (UPI) — The short, square-cut man with the calloused hands smiled proudly and the tiny white-haired woman with the pleasant face had happy tears in her eyes.

It was a proud moment for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Disney who came out of Topeka, Kans., in the long ago to raise their nine children in sunny California. It took a great deal of carpentry by the gray-haired little man and a lot of washing and ironing by the woman still at his side.

But now they stood there, looking in their city clothes a bit alien from the gaily dressed winter sports crowd churning about them, brim full of emotion as their boy Bill received an Olympic medal.

Bill, the "baby" of their brood didn't look quite so happy.

A few minutes earlier, the boy

Swedish Pucksters Hold Reds

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (UPI) — Unbeaten Canada and the United States clashed today for the undisputed leadership of the Winter Olympic Games hockey tournament.

Both the U.S. and Canada advanced to the third round Wednesday night without a black mark on their record, but Russia—the defending champion and a co-favorite for the 1960 title—was held to a 2-2 tie by a determined band of Swedes.

Canada beat Czechoslovakia, 4-0, Wednesday night, its second straight shutout in championship play, and the U.S. walloped Germany, 9-1—thanks to a four-goal performance by Bill Cleary of Cambridge, Mass.

In today's play, the Canadians, a rip-roaring, rock-and-sock team, play the U.S. (3:30 p.m. pst) in a game which should go a long way in deciding the 1960 hockey gold medal.

The high point of the 18 games played thus far in the Winter Olympics ice rink spectacle, was the stunning performance of Sweden against the heavily-favored Russians.

The hero-of Swedes all over the world—had to be center Nils Nilsson who smashed home the tying goal against the Russians with only 1 minute and 27 seconds left on the clock.

Nilsson was a hero twice over because he scored Sweden's initial goal in the first period and on top of that played a sterling defensive game.

While the crowd of nearly 8,000 in Blyth Arena chanted "Go-go, Sweden," the men from the Scandinavian peninsula battled the Russians to a standstill. But the Russians averted a defeat, which virtually would have knocked them out of the tournament, on goals by Konstantin Loktev and another tally by Veniamin Aleksandrov.

Bill Cleary, a former Harvard University star, was the big gun in the easy U.S. victory over Germany, adding two assists to his four-goal performance for a total of six points. John Mayasich is a late-January addition to the U.S. team, tallied twice while Bill's brother, Bob, also scored once.

Mick Mantle Standing Pat

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Mickey Mantle is standing pat in a quiet tug of war over contract terms with the New York Yankees.

He may even be a holdout this season for the first time in his baseball career, the slugging Yankee outfielder said Wednesday.

The New York club's infielders and outfielders are due to report by next Tuesday at the Yankee spring training camp in St. Petersburg, Fla. Technically Mantle wouldn't be considered a holdout, however, until they take to the field a day later.

The Yankees mailed him a contract Jan. 20 calling for a pay cut. Mickey mailed it right back the same day.

who started skating because pop got a free pass to an ice arena thought he had won the first place gold medal in the 500-meter speed skating race. But then, as he stood helplessly by, a Russian beat his time by a shattering one-tenth of a second and Bill's medal had turned to silver.

Bill, 27 now and a rug-cleaner in Alhambra, Calif., still showed his disappointment as he left the rostrum with the medal in his hand and worked his way through the crowd to where his parents stood.

"You did real well, son," said his 67-year-old father. "Real well."

His mother reached up, kissed him and patted him on the shoulder.

"I'm not going to cry over it," she whispered. "You were just wonderful, son."

Bonnie Brother Act Prolific

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
St. Bonaventure keeps building one of college basketball's top winning streaks while establishing Tom and Sam Stith as the most prolific brother pair on the court.

With Tom Stith nailing 29 points, including two clutch fielders in the last 80 seconds, and brother Sam Stith adding 16, the Bonnies raced to their 13th straight Wednesday night — a 76-70 squeaker over tough Duquesne.

Now 16-3 and 10th-ranked nationally, the Bonnies have only to negotiate Niagara, St. Vincent (Pa.) and Canisius to carry a string of 16 into the NIT opening March 10.

At the same time, the Stith brothers from Brooklyn have just about wrapped up the title of the highest scoring brother pair in all major college history.

Tom, a 6-5 junior, has a 31.8 average while Sam, a 6-2 senior

Laker Owner, New Father NBA To Meet Loses Fight To Dick Tiger

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bob Short, owner of the Minneapolis Lakers, today called on the National Basketball Assn. board of governors to decide the future of his club.

"We may move the club to Los Angeles, but not the ownership," Short said. "Anything can happen."

A club move requires approval of six of the eight members of the board of governors.

The members of the board are: Walter Brown, Boston; Ned Irish, New York; Eddie Gottlieb, Philadelphia; Dan Biasone, Syracuse; Tom Grace, Cincinnati; Ben Kerner, St. Louis; Fred Zollner, Detroit; and Short.

Kerner is an advocate of NBA expansion and is expected to push for approval of moving the Lakers to Los Angeles.

Meanwhile, Maurice Podoloff, president of the NBA, said the tentative date for the start of the playoffs is March 12. Games will be played Saturdays, Sundays, Tuesday and Thursday depending on availability of home sites.

In both the East and West divisions the second and third place teams will meet in the best of three series with the winners playing the first place clubs in a best of seven series. The divisional winners will clash in a best of seven for the world championship, won by Boston last year.

Podoloff said the National Broadcasting Company will televise the Saturday and Sunday games throughout the playoffs.

In games Wednesday night, Boston clinched at least a tie for the Eastern title and set a league record for games won in a single season by beating Minneapolis 131-110 at College Park, Md. The triumph was Boston's 53rd, which bettered by one the mark the Celtics established last year.

At Detroit, Gene Shue collected 37 points in a 128-110 victory over Syracuse to bring his total to 1,520, smashing the single season scoring record for a guard.

Villanova and Dayton, slumping NIT teams, added victories while St. Joseph's (Pa.) and Kansas State built their credentials toward NCAA-tournament berths in the night's other important games.

Villanova broke a three-game losing string and built its record to 18-4 with a 74-52 rout of Toledo of the Mid-American conference.

Dayton (17-6) also snapped a string of three losses and severed Xavier of Ohio's six-game win streak, 91-82.

Skyline Loop Boss Named

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — Paul Brechler, 48, athletic director at State University of Iowa since 1947, is the new commissioner of the Skyline Conference.

Iowa President Virgil M. Renshaw announced Brechler's resignation Wednesday, paying the way for Brechler to move to the Skyline post. Brechler asked that the resignation become effective Aug. 15.

Dr. William E. Morgan, chairman of the Skyline Presidents' Council, said Brechler will assume his new duties Aug. 1.

Brechler will take over the post being vacated by E. L. (Dick) Romney, who is retiring in June.

Brechler's salary was not announced. He received $18,500 a year as Iowa athletic director and head of the Division of Physical Education.

Brechler was embroiled in a controversy with Iowa head football coach, Forest Evashevski, last fall.

Evashevski blamed him when he announced last fall he would resign as coach four years hence. He said working conditions in the SU athletic department were intolerable.

Evashevski never did make public his complaints but some university sources said the complaints were minor and covered such things as mosquitoes on the practice field.

"I thought I won," he said, "I went all out in the 10th round."
