

Variety Seen In Mid Season Social Events

LOUELLA MURPHY, left, was chosen Valentine Queen at the annual ball given by Beta Sigma Phi at Reames Country Club on February 20. The queen, representing Xi Alpha Theta chapter, is crowned by last year's queen, Pat Lukes of Beta Phi chapter.
—Photo by Guderian

SOCIETY

By HELEN BECHEN

Herald & News
Klamath Falls,
Oregon

Sunday,
Feb. 28, 1960

ATTENDANTS to the Valentine Queen of the annual Beta Sigma Phi ball were these four princesses. Left to right are Eleanor Souders of Kappa chapter, Pauline Con- nor, Beta Phi, Kay Hansen, Xi Delta, and Shirley Orahood of Tau chapter. (Story on inside page)
—Photo by Guderian

ANNOUNCED this week by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lambert of 642 Pacific Terrace is the engagement of their daughter, Deway, to David O. Hunter, both of Richland, Washington. The bride-elect is a graduate of the University of Oregon and her fiancé of Washington State University. He is the son of Mrs. H. M. Rendle of Spokane and E. D. Hunter, Cheyenne, Wyoming. Both young people are employed by General Electric Company in connection with its work with the Atomic Energy Commission at Hanford. They will exchange wedding vows on April 2 at Central United Protestant Church in Richland.
—Photo by Tutwiler Studio, Pasco

MRS. BILL DALTON JR., right, is pictured with Mrs. Bob Victorin at the annual Malin crab feed. Bill Dalton was introduced at the dinner as the new president of the Malin Chamber of Commerce. Bob Victorin will serve as vice president of the group.
—Photo by Guderian

MR. AND MRS. ALMON L. GEISS of Klamath Falls this week announced the engagement of their daughter, JoAnn Ruth, to Jim Whitmire, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Whitmire of Salem. The bride-elect is a sophomore student at Oregon College of Education in Monmouth. Her fiancé is an economics and pre-law senior student at Willamette College. They plan to continue their studies following their late summer wedding.
—Photo by Moderne, Springfield

SPRING FLOWERS, acacia, daffodils and carnations, combined with musical clef characters, were a lovely centerpiece for the tea table at the George Kovich home, 1540 Pacific Terrace, on Saturday when the Community Concert Association entertained in honor of workers in the current membership drive. Emilie Haldeman presided at the tea service. Others pictured, left to right, are Mrs. Betty Kovich, chairman of the drive, Mrs. Nancy Fullaway and Mrs. Letha Landis, drive co-chairmen.

—Photo by Guderian

A MEMBERSHIP DRIVE by the Community Concert Association, currently underway, began officially with a tea on February 20 at the George Kovich home. The many volunteer workers received instructions and information during the tea hours, two until four. Eva Dickson, seated, secretary of the association, hands worker kits to, left to right, Barbara Rowe, Barbara Poulshock and True Hoyle.

—Photo by Guderian