Bethel No. 61

A special visitation of officers of Crater Lake Lodge No. 211 gave honor to Bethel No. 61, International Order of Job's Daughters, at their regular meeting on Monday, February 15, at the Scottish Rite Temple. Honored Queen Patricia Anderson presided with Natalia Retchenber and Larry Whytal, guardians, in charge.

Guests welcomed by the honored queen were Janet Nickels, junior past queen of Bethel No. 28 of Glendale; Barbara Vinson, grand junior custodian; and Gus Vlahos, worshipful master of Crater Lake Lodge No. 211. Others introduced were Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian and present grand deputy of this district; past guardians of the Bethel, Kitty Hanville and Lucile Anderson; Sue Ferrell of Bethel No. 6 and Gus Vlahos.

Six candidates became new members of the Bethel, the ceremony being presided over for the first time by the 1960 officers, Pam Meader, Margaret McMillan, Carolyn Ferrell, Marilee McNabb, Sherry Keck and Sharon Randall were welcomed as the new members.

Girls installed in offices were Barbara Vinson, treasurer; Jeanne Switzer, fifth messenger; and Barbara Leech, junior custodian.

note of whom was present at the regular installation ceremony.

A successful report on the rummage sale held February 6 was made by Nancy Hugelmann, senior princess. The coin match was voted by the Bethel to be a contribution toward helping the Roseburg Bethel which has been in need of many things since the disaster last year.

Librarian Jackie Dukes read a poem from the prophet on "Friendship."

After the meeting a Valentine party was held in the dining hall, and guests were served refreshments from tables gay with Valentine hearts and dolls. Special piano music was provided by several Bethel members.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Mrs. Arthur Leistikov was hostess at a recent bridal shower honoring Linda Blakeley who became Kingsley Field Chapel on January 24. The table was attractively decorated with crystal candlesticks and an arrangement of an engagement ring in lace doilies, ribbons and wedding bells. Susan Boyd and Sharon Weber assisted the hostess with refreshments after an evening of games with prizes awarded to the winners.

A FAVORITE

The dress with matching sweater is strong in resort wear. Now's the time to pick up one or two and put them away for summer wear. That is, if you're not going on a cruise or winter vacation.

Naomi Shrine

Supreme appointive officers were honored at the February 13 meeting.

of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, held at the Masonic Temple. Ruth Rodenberger, worthy high priestess, and Elvin Phillips, watchman of shepherds, presided.

William Pierson, supreme supervisor, Helen McCornack, district chairman of material objective, and Jack Schulze, supreme assistant guard, were escorted to the East, introduced and presented gifts.

The following past worthy high priestesses and watchmen of shepherds were also escorted and introduced: Nell Retterath, George Gelterath, Blanche Marks, Irene Markham, Vera Fritsch and Blanche Schulze, all of Naomi Shrine, and Harold Jones of Emmanuel Shrine, Wenatchee, Washington.

Interesting reports on the reception held at Los Altos, California, on January 30, honoring Colonel Hicks, first wise man, and other supreme officers, were given by Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rodenberger and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote.

The supreme officers were called upon and spoke briefly explaining the duties pertaining to their offices and thanked the presiding officers for the gifts and honors bestowed.

The worthy high priestess thanked her committees and those promoting for the evening.

Following the closing of the meeting, all assembled in the banquet room where refreshments were served by a committee composed of Mary Vlahos, May Phinney, Patricia McCornack, Irene McCollum and Helen McCornack. Red streamers, white cupids and large red hearts tastefully arranged carried out the Valentine theme in both table and room decor.

The Melody Singers, a group of Klamath County PTA Mothersingers, directed by Mrs. W. Don Miller, entertained during the refreshment hour with a series of well chosen songs accompanied at the piano by Mrs. William P. Campbell.

Election of officers will be held on March 12, the next stated meeting of Naomi Shrine.

Klamath Woman Cruise Passenger

The Stella Polaris, Swedish cruise ship, sailed from New Orleans on February 17 for a 23 day tour of the Caribbean. A passenger on this cruise, which will visit the Bahamas, Panama and South America, is Mrs. Walter Beane of Klamath Falls. Less frequented ports of call to be included are the Islands of St. Kitts, Martinique, Grenada and San Blas.

Upon completion of the cruise, Mrs. Beane will fly into Los Angeles in time to meet Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beane and three of their children, who plan to spend spring vacation in the south. Included in their plans are trips to Tia Juana and Disneyland.

PIANO KEYS

Plastic keys on pianos may be cleaned by rubbing with a damp cloth. Water should never be used on ivory keys for it will yellow them. A clean flannel cloth dampened with wood or denatured alcohol may be used to clean yellowed keys.
