Leave It To Reds To Set Precedents

By OSCAR FRALEY

SQUAW VALLEY (UPI)—Knock them if you will. A lot of incidents happen, and have happened through the years, to make you wonder whether the Olympic Games actually promote the friendship and good will they are supposed to inspire.

When Baron de Coubertin started these international games, the promotion of international harmony and friendship was his most thought. Several times it has almost led to a new war.

But it took a Russian to prove the little bit worthwhile and if they had a medal for the most sporting gesture of these winter games it ought to go to this fellow.

His name is Nikolai Sologubov and he is the captain of the Russian hockey team.

Almost a Title
The U.S. hockey team was in position Sunday to blow the title. The Yankee kids had beaten favored Canada and the powerful Russian team in two big heart-stoppers. They were rough on holds-harsh games filled with tackling, savage blocking and attacks used like sabers.

The Yanks won both of them and then needed to get past only Czechoslovakia to wrap up the title.

But those two games previously had taken a deadly toll. The kids were knocked out psychologically and physically. And the Czechs were skating rings around them for two periods to take a 4-3 lead. That's where Sologubov came in. He speaks no English but he went up to Jack Riley, the one-time Navy dive bomber pilot who coaches the U.S. team, and began to pantomime a man strangling for air. Then he made motions as if putting on an oxygen mask and gradually having his breathing return to normal.

Riley got the idea. The Yanks Recuperate
He knew there was a bottle in the building and sent his trainer, Ben Bertini, scrambling for it. Bertini and gave the boys each a big whiff.

So what happened?
The Yanks suddenly began to play like they had against the Russians and Canadians. They scored six goals in the last three quarters of that final period to win going away, 9 to 4.

"Maybe it was mostly psychological but it had to be more than that," he guesses. "That oxygen cleared our boys' heads and we ran off the ice. But I didn't think of it. Sologubov did."

Why? And how come he told Riley?

"Well for goodness sakes," Riley said in amazement, "we've played against each other so much that we're good friends. He was just helping a friend. That's all."

L&C Skier Nabs Two Wins In Inter-College Carnival

TIMBERLINE LODGE, Ore. (AP)—Victories in both the downhill and slalom at the two-day Portland State College Inter-Collegiate Winter Carnival went to Tim Kimberly of Lewis and Clark College, Portland.

Kimberly raced down the nearly by Mt. Hood slope in 1:14.2 in the slalom and 2:09.2 in the downhill. Sunday in crisp, cool weather as the sun shone brilliantly above.

AAU Playoffs Set In Seattle

SEATTLE (AP)—A series of playoffs will get under way here this week to determine the Pacific Northwest's second entry in the national AAU basketball tournament at Denver this year.

The Seattle Bakers as members of the National Industrial Basketball League automatically get a berth in the tourney.

Four teams play here Wednesday and Thursday to determine a Western Washington entrant, which then meets the Oregon champion in Spokane March 11. The winner of that game will play the Inland Empire champion March 12 for the right to appear at Denver.

Cub Boss Foresees 1st Division Berth

By CHARLIE GRIMM

Manager, Chicago Cubs
ROBERTSVILLE, Mo. (AP)—I definitely believe that the Chicago Cubs will crash the first division, and if everything should break right for us, we could take it all. Yes, we can win the pennant, if the ball bounces right.

Don't forget that last year the Cubs better than broke even with the top three contenders — Los Angeles, San Francisco and Milwaukee.

If we could flatten the also-rans a little often and then do as well against the other contenders, why couldn't we be up there?

I am very satisfied with the deals made this winter. We had a very poor defensive outfield in 1959. In getting Richie Ashburn and Frank Thomas we have helped in both the offensive and defensive departments. Ashburn is a good leadoff man who gets on base often and Thomas, a power hitter, will team up well with Ernie Banks in the long ball department.

With Ashburn and Tony Taylor leading off the batting order for us, we'll have a couple of pesky, get-on-base speed boys up there and we'll have some power behind them.

And physically. And the Czechs were skating rings around them for two periods to take a 4-3 lead. That's where Sologubov came in. He speaks no English but he went up to Jack Riley, the one-time Navy dive bomber pilot who coaches the U.S. team, and began to pantomime a man strangling for air. Then he made motions as if putting on an oxygen mask and gradually having his breathing return to normal.

Hurdle Ace Goes Wrong, Losing Out

NEW YORK (UPI)—Put down the names of Jones and Sharpe and Bill Sharpe as two of Uncle Sam's hottest prospects for this year's Summer Olympic Games, but a big question mark next to the name of Lee Calhoun.

Jones, the Eastern Michigan ace who ranks as America's best hurdler at the present time, thinks something has gone wrong with Calhoun, the 1955 Olympic hurdles king from Gary, Ind.

"He seems to have lost his rhythm," explained Jones after beating Calhoun for the sixth straight time Saturday night and equalling the meet record of 7.1 seconds for the 60-yard hurdles in the Knights of Columbus meet.

Sharpe, of Philadelphia's Shannahan Catholic Club, projected himself into the Olympic picture by winning the 60, 100 and 200 yard hurdles in the K of C meet with a meet record of 51.60, 44.4 seconds.

The K of C produced a total of five meet records.

In addition to Jones and Sharpe, other record authors were Pete McArdle of the New York AC in the three-mile run, a new event, with 14 minutes, 0.2 seconds; Ken Bantam of the New York Post in the 100 yard dash with a time of 16.4 seconds; and Stew Thompson of the NYAC in the 35-pound weight throw with a heave of 64 feet, 10 inches.

Bob Brown of Penn State was especially impressive in winning the 60-yard dash. Manhattan, Penn State and Holy Cross finished in that order in a blanket finish in a two-mile relay.
