WALL STREET

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed lower today with electronics and other specially situated issues making gains. Trading was moderately active.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3,000,000 shares compared with 3,380,000 Friday.

Losses of fractions to a point or more outbalanced gains in the same range among key stocks.

The "glamour" issues showed a different picture as speculative demand brought gains of more than 3 to Polaroid and Zenith while Motorola spurted more than 5.

Texas Instruments was about 4 points higher. General Time rose about 5.

Losses of more than a point were taken by Phelps Dodge, Anaconda, Republic Steel, International Paper, Jones & Laughlin, Texaco and Air Reduction. About a point lower were Ford, Allied Chemical, U.S. Steel, General Electric, Illinois Central and Baltimore & Ohio.

Siskiyou Ranch Changes Owners

An announcement was made today of the sale of the Willow Creek Ranch in northern Siskiyou County, belonging to the Hammond Livestock Inc., of Grenada, California, to Mrs. Suzanne Hawkins of Los Angeles.

The Willow Creek Ranch, one of the pioneer ranches of this area, is located 16 miles southeast of Dorris.

The ranch consists of irrigated meadows, deeded rangeland and leased rangeland, with a total acreage in excess of 4,300 acres. It is well balanced between meadows and range and is considered a top efficient cattle ranch.

W. E. Hammond, who with his son, Pat Hammond, operates a cattle spread at Grenada, lived most of his lifetime at Merrill where his father, the late E. M. (Gene) Hammond, was a pioneer settler.

Arley Moore of Beverly Hills, and Scott W. McKendree, Klamath Falls, handled the transaction. No consideration was given.

Nelson Rites Set Tuesday

Funeral services for David William Nelson, 69, who died here February 26, at Hillside Hospital, will be held from the chapel of Ward's Klamath Funeral Home, Tuesday, March 1, at 1:30 p.m. The Rev. Laing W. Siobet, pastor of Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church, will officiate. Concluding services and interment will be in Lost River Cemetery, Bonanza.

Mr. Nelson, a native of Minneapolis, Minnesota, came to Siskiyou County in 1929 and built one of the first houses on the Tulelake townsite in 1932.

Later he came to Klamath Falls and was employed in the Klamath County School system for 18 years as a carpenter and school custodian.

He served at Altamont Junior High School for 14 years and during part of the time he lived here operated his own cabinet shop at 4300 Anderson Avenue. He had been retired due to ill health for the last three years.

Survivors include the widow, Vivian, this city; daughters, Mrs. E. B. Runnels and Mrs. Walter White, Klamath Falls, Mrs. Joe Askins, Hartsville, South Carolina, and Mrs. Bill Hirschy, Medford; sons, Kenneth, Donald and Richard Nelson, all of this city; sisters, Mrs. B. Anderson and Mrs. A. Bensen, Minneapolis; also 15 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

RAMONA SOTO

Tourney Draws Third Candidate

CHILOQUIN — The third aspirant to the title of the National Invitational All-Indian Basketball Tournament is Ramona Soto, 16-year-old KUHS sophomore.

Ramona's active social and school life includes membership in the Spanish Club, Delta Chi, Script and Mike Guild, Girls' Recreation Association, and Girls' League. She performs the duties of warden for Theta Rho, is musician for Rainbow Girls and secretary of the Horizon Club. She recently received an excellent rating in a high school speech contest at Southern Oregon College.

This busy student says she still has plenty of time for dancing and music and her favorite sport, basketball.

Ramona is one-half Klamath Indian, a sister of Alan Nathan Davis, who has been a member of the Klamath Reservation Executive Committee for the past five years.

Her authentic white buckskin costume for the festivities was made for her by Mrs. Philip Bill, a Umatilla Indian friend.

Ramona is the daughter of Mrs. Florinda Soto, 5629 Independence Avenue, and Joe Soto.

Crash Injures Four Youths

Four teen-aged boys were treated at Klamath Valley Hospital and released Saturday night after their car skidded out of control and plunged into "A" Canal off Alameda Avenue.

State police said the car, driven by Leroy Harry Pemberton, 18, 327 North Ninth Street, failed to make a curve at Alameda and Laerlein. It swerved out of control for 345 feet before leaving the highway and hitting a guard post; then skidded another 83 feet before dropping into the canal.

Passengers with Pemberton were identified as Preson Neil Shelton, 18, 1442 Wiard Street; Duane Miller Harvey, 17, 4406 Worden Street; James B. Durrell, 18, 727 North Ninth Street and Gerry Orville Herman, 17, 1853 Earle Street.

Police said Herman, Shelton and Pemberton were thrown from the car. They and Durell were given X-rays at the hospital before being released the night of the accident. The accident occurred about 8:20 p.m.

Hood Jailed For Assault

Hawley Harvey Hood, 21, Chiloquin, was arrested over the weekend on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon upon Eugene Belgard more than a week ago.

Hood was named in one of two secret indictments returned by the county grand jury last week.

Officers said Belgard, 28, of Florence, Oregon, had spent the night of February 20 at Hood's home in the wake of a drinking party.

Chiloquin Police Chief Lew Jones said a fight developed in which a dresser drawer was broken. Hood, according to Jones, ordered Belgard to repair the drawer. If the repairs weren't satisfactory, Jones said, Hood had threatened to beat Belgard.

Belgard attempted to fix the drawer, but Hood struck Belgard, Jones said. Belgard fled from the house on foot and ran uptown, but Hood followed in a car, attacked Belgard again, and struck him with a club and cut him with a knife, Jones said.

The beating occurred about 8 a.m. February 21. Hood was scheduled for arraignment in district court Monday.

Plea For Time

Gertrude Mobley, 44, asked for additional time in district court Monday on a charge of burglarizing a Southern Pacific employe's home at Mowich siding north of Chemult.

The defendant, also known as Gertrude Moore, was accused of breaking the lock on a door of the Juan Moreales Rodriguiz home February 18 and taking two watches, one of them built into a cigarette lighter.

District Judge D. E. Van Vactor ordered Mrs. Mobley back in court at 9:30 a.m. Thursday to advise whether she wished a preliminary hearing. She was returned to jail in lieu of $2,500 bail.

Police Report Weekend Busy With Minor Crimes

City police had their hands full over the weekend investigating a diverse assortment of routine incidents.

They arrested Raymond Oroville Gregory, 23, 2251 Shasta Way, and Donald Ernest Brallier, 22, of Klamath Falls, on South Sixth Street Friday night for questioning concerning vandalism, malicious mischief and theft.

In municipal court Monday each was sentenced to pay $25 or spend five days in jail for drunkenness. Charges of petty larceny will be continued in district court.

Officers said they found two hubcaps in the youths' car. They stopped the pair on South Sixth Street a few blocks away from Skateland roller rink shortly after a witness reported vandalism to a car owned by Rodney Comer, 1764 Eldorado Avenue.

Three tires on Comer's car were slashed. Two radio antennas were bent and a side mirror broken off. The hubcaps were identified as belonging to Comer.

The pair would not admit the theft charge, police said. They were jailed.

Police investigated several other thefts. Hap David, 2363 South Sixth Street, said someone stole a $90 cash register from that address early in February. He said he has been too busy to call police until this weekend.

Jay Sessler, who lives at Oregon Technical Institute, told officers his $45 suitcoat was stolen while he was in a local establishment Sunday.

Dan Say, Chiloquin, reported the loss of a floor mat and a suitcoat from his car while it was parked in the Tower Theater lot on South Sixth Street Saturday evening. He valued the goods at $50.

Joel Roark of Route 3 said he lost two flipper hubcaps from his car as it was parked Sunday evening in the same lot.

Officers also arrested Milton Ray Sessler, 18, of Route 1 and charged him with disorderly conduct. He is suspected of throwing a rock through the windshield of an oncoming car driven Friday night in the vicinity of Oregon and Nevada avenues by Ray Adams, 204 North Eldorado Avenue.

Sessler turned himself in at the station. He posted $100 bail and his case was to be continued in district court.

Vandals were blamed for breaking out three windows of a toll house belonging to M. R. Haugen, 1911 Johnson Street, Saturday. The windows measured 24 inches by 24 inches. They apprently were broken with rocks.

In other action, officers learned from Tim O'Hair, 2347 Union Avenue, that several men beat him soundly on his return from taking a relative home on Oregon Avenue Friday night.

O'Hair said as he was getting in his car the men came by and made a remark. O'Hair said he replied and challenged one man to a fight, but that he was jumped by four.

The group took his car for a short ride, then, he said, but brought it back and left. O'Hair suffered a lacerated eye and bruises.

One youth told officers he and two companions had to seek cover while on the Link River shore over the weekend from .22 rifle shots sent at them by some other youths who were on a hill above them too far away for identification.

Police also answered a call to the Norman Clark home at 616½ Adams Street Saturday. Clark was injured in a household accident. He suffered a forehead laceration. He was taken to Klamath Valley Hospital by Peace Ambulance for treatment.

City juvenile officers took a 17-year-old Stewart, Nevada, youth into temporary custody Saturday as a runaway and for questioning concerning some out-of-state burglaries. He was apprehended at the Southern Pacific railway yards. Investigation is continuing.

Police investigated a rash of minor auto accidents over the weekend, too. No injuries resulted.

They said a car driven by Carl O. Murphy, 1024 Main Street, struck one driven by Donnell D. Mitchell, 2678 Eberlein Avenue, Saturday morning at the mouth of an alley behind 1024 Main Street.

No citations were issued. Damage was slight.

George Horseman, 1021 Mitchell Street, told police he was forced to hit a parked pickup owned by Earl D. Seibert, 2348 Orchard Avenue, at that address early Saturday afternoon.

Horseman said an oncoming car obliged him to swerve. Damage to the pickup was medium. No citations were issued.

William H. Dark, Merrill, in one car and Jack Hyett, 3112 Cannon Avenue, in another collided at the corner of East Main and Main streets Saturday afternoon.

Dark was charged with failure to yield right of way. Both cars received minor damage. Police said Dark pulled out while Hyett was making a left turn from Main to East Main.

Kathleen B. Evans, 224 Pacific Terrace, and Tommy Allen Cook, 1218 Pine Street, also banged their cars together in very heavy traffic Saturday night on Main Street at Seventh Street.

Glen was charged with following too closely. He hit the rear of the Evans car because he couldn't stop in time, police said. Both cars were damaged a little.

And Hiram L. Hunt, 1216 Pine Street, reported that his car was damaged slightly on one side by a hit-run driver as the car was parked around midnight Saturday at his home.

Three Injured In Car Crash

Three persons were injured in a two-car accident 15 miles east of Klamath Falls between Dairy and Swan Lake Junction on Highway 66 late Monday morning.

Details were sketchy. State police were investigating.

Injured were Rosetta Crane, 24; Amelia Frost, and her 6-year-old son, Curtis. They were taken to Klamath Valley Hospital by Peace Ambulance.

Mrs. Crane suffered facial lacerations and a possible fractured jaw. Mrs. Frost has possible chest injuries and some facial lacerations.

The boy appeared to be only shaken up, the hospital reported.

The accident apparently involved another car with two passengers, neither of whom was identified or injured.

The injured trio are all of Beatty.

Trial Opens In Beat Case

Trial opened in circuit court Monday for Louis Gibbons, one of two young men accused of beating a drinking companion with a stove poker and a wine bottle because the victim had no money.

Gibbons, 27, Chiloquin, was represented by Attorney Glenn D. Ramirez. His co-defendant, Charles Hood Jr., 25, Chiloquin, is to go on trial upon completion of Gibbons' case.

Both men were accused of beating Cy Bierle in a home near Chiloquin November 11 after having asked Bierle for money. Bierle said he had none.

The state's case was presented by District Attorney Beddoe.

Jurors selected Monday morning were Thomas W. Haley of Malin, Gertrude Powell of Keno, and Lenore Owens, Edna L. Hansen, Janie B. Golden, Paul R. Kincaid, Cyril V. Cook, [illegible] Ackerman, Norman Wilson, James W. Weaver, W. A. Williams, and Herbert J. Riggs, all of Klamath Falls.

The trial is being heard by Judge David R. Vandenberg.

Lake Of Woods Logging Begins

Preventive timber harvesting began this month around the shores of Lake of the Woods.

The forest service is getting rid of old and punky trees which could conceivably fall on buildings.

That happened during a couple of wind storms last fall. Two homes and a warehouse belonging to the service were crushed by fallen trees.

"Some natural beauty will have to be sacrificed to protect the taxpayers' investment in improvements there," said Klamath District Ranger Darroll Frewing.

He added that logging is being done by C. R. Hassell of Ashland atop about four feet of snow, thus soil will not be plowed up much. He also said all stumps will be cut to within four inches of the ground to make them inconspicuous.

Non-merchantable logs will be hauled off and burned, as will slash, by district crews.

"The area should be in excellent condition both from an aesthetic and a safety standpoint this spring," Frewing said.

Tulelake Youth Wins Bank Award

ALTURAS — William Bruno, grandson of Philip Woodward and former resident of Alturas, is the fine arts winner of the Bank of America achievement award at Tulelake. He is the son of Mrs. Richard Paulson of Tulelake.

Other Tulelake High School students receiving awards were Glenda McCoy, mathematics and science; Barbara Olexer, liberal arts, and David Schaffner, vocational arts.

DUANE EDDY and the Rebels, a nationally-famous rock 'n' roll band, will perform for a dance from 8:30 until 12:30 tonight in the Klamath Auditorium. They were rated the nation's tops last week by Dick Clark's American Bandstand Show.

Shot Wounds Dorris Woman

A Dorris woman was admitted to the Klamath Valley Hospital early this morning suffering from a .22 caliber gunshot wound in the right temple.

Felix Peace of Peace Ambulance Service said he received a call about 2:30 a.m. from an "excited man" in Dorris, who said his wife had shot herself.

Peace said the injured woman was unaccompanied to Klamath Falls and that it was necessary to handcuff and strap her down in the ambulance.

At the hospital the woman gave her name as Georgia Bennett, but was later identified by the Yreka sheriff's office as Georgiana Stagg, 34-year-old wife of a Dorris resident, Richard Stagg. Officers said the couple was married in November, 1959.

Details of the shooting are not known. The Yreka sheriff's office and Deputy Bill Miller of Tulelake are investigating.

At press time the sheriff's office said Miller was on his way to Klamath Falls to try to question the victim.

Hospital attendants reported the woman's condition is still serious.

Fire Damages Home, Garage

The J. W. George residence near the Stewart-Lenox addition on Balsam Drive was badly damaged in a fire that destroyed a garage at 10:09 a.m. Sunday.

An automatic washer, a deep freeze and a pump plant were among contents destroyed. Heat and flame scorched a side of the George home.

No damage estimates have yet been prepared. The buildings were insured, but the contents were not.

Stewart-Lenox firemen suspect an overheated stove in the garage touched off the fire.

The department was assisted by the county and Oregon Technical Institute fire departments.

TULELAKE—Lewis R. Baker, chairman of the 1960 Red Cross membership drive for Tulelake, urges all volunteer workers to be present tonight for the kickoff meeting in the home economics building at the Tulelake-Butte Valley Fairgrounds.

The meeting will be brief and supplies for the drive will be distributed. A short social hour with refreshments will follow.

Goal for this year's drive is $1,800. Part of the cash taken in will be spent for the annual Red Cross swim program next summer. In past years more than 400 children have had instruction at the Malin pool, financed with Red Cross funds.
