Though snow may lie deep in high mountain country, phone men are on the job caring for lines that carry your calls. Where cars can't go, they travel on snowshoes, checking wires and poles. Other telephone men constantly watch over lines and cables along highways and through cities. Winter or summer, good weather or bad, Telephone Patrolmen go wherever your calls go. This is part of the care we give your calls. It's one more way we work to make sure you get the greatest value from your phone service.
