Malin Sees No Cinch In District Battle

The Malin Mustangs and the St. Mary's Crusaders take the floor at Southern Oregon College tonight at 7:30 in the first game of a scheduled best two of three for the District 5B basketball championship and the right to continue to the State B tourney, March 10-12.

Neither club is expecting the series to go only two games. Both clubs are in excellent physical condition after two weeks of rugged practice sessions. The district playoffs should prove interesting from a spectator standpoint since the much taller and fast-breaking Mustangs meet a shorter, ball-controlling St. Mary's outfit.

The other reason is that the Crusaders have played stiffer competition than the Mustangs. St. Mary's gained victories over four A-2 clubs. They knocked off Eagle Point and Riddle twice and Phoenix and Illinois Valley once each. Malin has played Henley three times this year and registered two wins out of three games against the A-2 club.

Graham will start his regulars Randy Miller, Larry Rick, Jim Long, Dave DeMerritt and Rick Lillian tonight. They will be matched with the Crusaders' Alger Hout and Ron Dalley.

COS Cagers End 1st Year

College of the Siskiyous Eagles finished their first basketball season with a 1-11 record. Coach John Mazzei said his wards had gained valuable experience during the contests.

High scorer during the season was center Pete China with 163 points for a 13.5 average. Team captain Mike Lowry was second high with 149, averaging 12.6 per game. Jim Cunningham, injured early in the season, averaged 20.5 points per game in four appearances. Alvin Perez joined the team late in the season.

Season totals were as follows: Pete China, 163, Mike Lowry, 149, Larry Lilla, 103, Robert Jordan, 102, Jim Cunningham, 82, Doug Gordon, 43, Richard Ridgeway, 21, Alvin Perez, 4, and Jim Heinke, 2.

EUGENE (AP) — The University of Washington is favored to win the Northern Division Swimming championships beginning today at the University of Oregon's $3-million dollar Leighton pool.

Track, Ball Season Here

Oregon Tech athletes checked out of Oregon Tech, however, was the fact that basketball was all through for another year. And the prep was the final report issued by Palmberg.

Statistics showed that the Owls, in finishing third behind Portland State and Southern Oregon College with a 27 win-loss record, amassed a conference total of 1,017 points while allowing their opponents 943.

Coach Wally Palmberg, who had just released the final Oregon Collegiate Conference season statistics for his now disbanded Owl basketball team, expressed an understandable doubt as to when he might be able to initiate track activity. Palmberg will head the track program this season.

Meanwhile, coach Jim Cordial, having just completed arrangements to get onto the diamond at Gem Stadium for some outside work, gathered his baseball applicants and headed for the swimming pool for some more inside drills.

One thing absolutely certain yesterday at Oregon Tech, however, was the fact that basketball was all through for another year. And the prep was the final report issued by Palmberg.

Statistics showed that the Owls, in finishing third behind Portland State and Southern Oregon College with a 27 win-loss record, amassed a conference total of 1,017 points while allowing their opponents 943.

Canadian Duo Wins 4th Crown

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — Togetherness — a one-word description of their skating brilliance — brought a fourth world pairs figure skating championship Wednesday night to Canada's Barbara Wagner and Robert Paul.

Fresh from victory in the Winter Olympics, the shy young duo from Toronto defeated 11 other couples to retain their world crown.

Their triumph was nearly overshadowed by the smashing performance of another Canadian pair, Maria and Otto Jelinek. The Jelineks had finished fourth in the Olympics, but Wednesday night the judges applauded their five-minute stint with marks nearly as high as those given the champions.

Following the Jelineks in third place was West Germany's top duo, Marika Kilius and Hans-Jurgen Baumler, who had taken second in the Olympics.

Start of competition in men's singles is on today's program in the 5-day 1960 world championships, which end Saturday. Seventeen entrants will skate three compulsory figures. A second round of three is scheduled Friday.

Donald Jackson of Canada and Alain Giletti of France have been installed as co-favorites.

On the program tonight is the final competition in women's singles. Carol Heiss of New York City, Olympic and defending world champion, has built up a wide lead in skating compulsory figures.

When these were completed Wednesday by the field of 24 women, Miss Heiss had 939.9 points and Skjouke Dijkstra of The Netherlands was second with 904.8. Barbara Ann Roles of Los Angeles was third.

KC Manager Serves Notice

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The Kansas City Athletics' new manager says there will be no place on the club for players who don't have a strong aversion to losing.

"When we win a ball game I want our players to live it up and have all the fun they can in the clubhouse," Bob Elliott said Wednesday.

"But after we lose a game I don't want to hear any singing, shouting or even any loud bubble-gum popping. I want the players to come in, get their showers and be on their way."

The A's finished 1959 in second division.
