HOME EXTENSION

CONGER-FAIRVIEW UNIT
Conger - Fairview Home Extension Unit held its meeting at Joan's Kitchen February 5. Mrs. Neva Hayes and Ann Federhart reported on program planning. Mrs. Freda Huggins, Mrs. Thelma Gwyn, and Mrs. Neva Hayes were selected for the nominating committee.

Mrs. Dorothy Seuber was guest speaker on first aid, and a class was organized. Meetings are held Monday mornings at 9 o'clock. The first two meetings were held at the home of Mrs. Freda Huggins and the third at the home of Mrs. Ruth Hull. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Mary Horstman, 2010 Mitchell Street.

Meetings on pattern fitting are held on Friday of each week at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Laura Leaders are Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Beulah Kloiber.

The next unit meeting will be March 4 at Joan's Kitchen at 10 a.m. The lesson will be on soaps and detergents. Leaders are Mrs. Irene Thompson and Mrs. Millie Ballantyne. Bring soaps and detergents and a sack lunch.

OVER THE GARDEN GATE

NORTHSIDE GARDEN CLUB
Mrs. Robert This and Mrs. Bernard Volk were co-hostesses to the February 24 meeting of the Northside Garden Club at the Mathis home, 1101 Banks Street. Mrs. Gary Price, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Plans were discussed for a district show on April 26. Northside Club will be hostess for this affair to be held at the Klamath Lutheran Church, 1175 Crescent Avenue. Luncheon will be served by the ladies of the church.

Mrs. Earl Redman, Mrs. Merle Jackson and Mrs. Harry Lester were elected to serve on the nominating committee for the coming year.

Guest speaker for the afternoon was Alan Baker of Baker Landscape Nurseries, who spoke on pruning, spraying and common plant pests.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Folk Haddock, 2810 Montelius Street.

A NOTE OF COLOR

It's time to introduce a note of color into all that winter black. What about a chiffon scarf in moss green, amethyst or blue? Or a pair of gloves in gold, turquoise or green?

PTA NEWS

PELICAN SCHOOL

Pelican PTA 22 years ago presented the special program by Katherine Chidester, former president, at the Founders Day PTA program February 17.

Other former presidents present were Mrs. Bernadette Mathis, Mrs. Mickey Ziegler, Mrs. Mollie South, Mrs. Gina Griseclouse, Mrs. Pauline Miles, Mrs. Goldie McClurg and Mrs. Donna Brown. Also honored were former officers, Louise Helm and Golda Finnel.

Mrs. Chidester's report of 1337-38 projects mentioned the purchasing of rhythm hand instruments, boys' carpenters' tools and miscellaneous school equipment.

The money raising activities included a carnival, dinners, card parties. A 1938 summer recreation program and the annual summer picnic were other features of that year.

Nominating committee for 1960 officers was elected and consisted of Mrs. Luella Choot, Mrs. Lela Thurman and Mrs. Ann Walters.

Discussed was the effect on children regarding the moral quality of certain films shown locally and the questionable brutality seen on some television programs.

Hospitality award went to Mrs. Lillian Tockey. Room count prizes were won by Janet Galligan's fourth and Mrs. Donna Journeay's first grade rooms.

ROOSEVELT SCHOOL

Past presidents were honored Tuesday, February 16, at Roosevelt School PTA. Those honored were Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, Mrs. Ted Lindley, Mrs. Claudia Moore, Mrs. Winston Purvine, Mrs. Arthur Farr and Mrs. Fred Ehlers. The story of the PTA oak tree emblem was given by Mrs. George May.

The next regular PTA meeting date was set up to the evening of March 9.

The program was presented by Mrs. George May. Her topic was "Dreaming Then Doing." Room count results showed Mrs. Howie's room won upstairs and Mrs. Charles McLin downstairs. Parents were asked to send any extra Betty Crocker coupons to school to add to the PTA silverware project. A panel discussion will be held at the April 19 evening meeting. All parents are urged to be thinking of any questions concerning school problems to present at that time.

Refreshments were served by Chas. J. Cizek TAILOR. Suits & Stocks Made to Order. Perfect Fit Guaranteed. 119 SOUTH 7th.
