

Girl Scout Week Marks 48th Birthday Anniversary

OFFICERS of the Junior Girl Planning Board preside over representative assembly of all Girl Scouts in Klamath County, Tulelake and Newell, California. Left to right, Sandra Gibbs, first vice president; Carolyn Ferrell, president;

Marilyn Patterson, secretary; Linda Jones, program chairman, Georgene Lotz, second vice president.

—Photo by Kettler

SOCIETY

By
HELEN BECHEN

Herald & News
Klamath Falls,
Oregon

Sunday,
Mar. 6, 1960

GIRL SCOUT SUNDAY ushers in Girl Scout Week. All Brownies, Intermediates and Seniors attend the church of their choice to reaffirm their promise of "Duty to God." Sally Elliott, right, prepares to enter St. Paul's Episcopal Church with Virginia Barker, left, and Sandra Ruonich.

—Photo by Guderian

FIELD TRIPS to interesting places are a part of every Girl Scout and Brownie program. Members of Brownie Troop No. 6 on a recent trip to the Doll Hospital watch as Mrs.

C. D. Groves displays her collection of dolls. Pictured left to right are Sandra Whitt, Patti Davis, Trudy Foster, Mrs. Groves and Connie Carter.

—Photo by Kettler

TROOP NO. 50, Riverside School, celebrated its fourth birthday recently with a Mother-Daughter tea. Presiding at the tea table are Mrs. Eric Majors, left, and Mrs. F. M. Carter, right. Others from the left are Mrs. M. L. Gritton, Maribob Bradshaw, Cynthia McCoy, Melody Gritton, Muriel Majors, Kristine Whitmore and Beverly Colson.

—Photo by Guderian

Quota Club Selects 1960 Woman Of Achievement

GUEST SPEAKER at Quota Club annual Women of Achievement banquet was Dr. Leonard Mayfield, superintendent of Medford schools. He is wearing a shopka brought back from his recent trip to Russia which was the topic of his talk, "A Visit Behind The Iron Curtain." Mrs. Mayfield, left, accompanied her husband to Klamath Falls for the evening meeting. Dottie Poole, center, is the club president.

—Photo by Kettler

"A STAR IS BORN," theme of the annual Quota Club banquet, cleverly carried out in program and decoration, was climaxed with the announcement of the selection of Mrs. David (Patsy) Fredrickson of Gilchrist as 1960 Woman of Achievement. The certificate of honor is presented to her by Cardula Eals, right, chairman of the selection committee. (Story on inside page).

—Photo by Kettler

QUOTA CLUB members gathered in the Pelican party room on Friday evening, February 26, for the annual Women of Achievement banquet. This foursome, standing in front of Russian posters which illustrated Dr. Mayfield's talk, glance at a Russian newspaper. They are, from left to right, Clara Moore, former woman of achievement and honorary Quota member, Vera Chase, Virginia Wayburn and Margaret Sheridan.

—Photo by Kettler