

FAREWELLS are being said this week to Mrs. Dick Miller Sr., who will leave Klamath Falls soon to make her home in Auburn, California. She is pictured at right with a group of friends who were among many attending a no host luncheon on Tuesday at Reames Country Club. From the left are, Mrs. A. V. McVey, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. K. A. Moore, Mrs. Victor O'Neill and standing, Mrs. Ivan Thompson. —Photo by Kettler

Couple Observes Wedding Date
A supper party planned by a small group of close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Williams was a surprise celebration of the silver wedding anniversary of the couple on February 24. A lovely silver tray holding a decorated wedding cake was a gift from the group. Bernice (Patty) Hartenbower and Bryant Williams were married in Portland on February 24, 1935. They have resided in Klamath Falls and at their present home in the Henley district since that time. The Williamses have two daughters, Susilee, a student at Willamette University, and Sara, who attends Henley High School.

Duplicate Play Winners Told

Five and a half tables were in play at the Tuesday morning duplicate club, according to Mrs. Ted Hyde, director. Winners for the North-South position were Mrs. Leona Robertson and Mrs. Lester Offield. Second place was held by Mrs. Lloyd Gobie and Mrs. William Grove.

East-West scoring resulted in a tie between Mrs. Howard Holliday and Mrs. Fred Hartin and Mrs. Chester Stonecypher and Mrs. Byron Johnson.

The next play will be March 15 starting at 10:15 a.m. Mrs. Hyde extends an invitation to all newcomers to Klamath Falls to join this duplicate group. Players are reminded to bring a sack lunch.

Surprise Party Marks Birthday

A surprise birthday party honored Caroline Kelly on February 23 at her home on Honsedale Road. Hostess Ann Kelly was assisted by Alice Dixon and Dorothy Banta.

Lovely red camellias were arranged by Crystal Cheyne for the table where dessert was served to the guests.

Winners at games played during the afternoon were Crystal Cheyne, Carolyn Kelly, Mae LaPrarie and Lucille Mixer.

Guests included Myrtle Fleming, Ina Blackman, Ellen Johnson, Ethel Rylander, Ruby White, Crystal Cheyne, Mabel Dixon, Mary Dixon, Mae LaPrarie, Lucille Mixer, Ethel Balin, Viola Kelly, Helen Held and Pat Hedlund. Invited but unable to attend were Peggy Harnsberger, Inga Nancarrow, Frieda Huck, Frieda Bryant, Lida Snyder and Alice Nyhart.

ETNA WOMANS CLUB

ETNA—The home of Mrs. Arthur Tucker was the setting for the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Etna Womens Club. Mrs. Thora Sellstrom, acting Siskiyou County librarian, exhibited new books and magazines the library has included in its subscriptions. Luncheon was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be March 9 at the Congregational Church with Claude Canady the speaker.

Yacht Club News

White life preservers with blue and silver script stating "S.S. Yacht Club—Annual Crab Feed—February 26" carried out the color scheme for this family event which was enjoyed by a near capacity crowd. Mrs. Tim O'Harris table decorations were silver and white fish in bowls of midnight blue water placed on white tables displaying the blue anchor of the

Anchor Club. Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Evans and Mr. and Mrs. George Yahraus were co-chairmen of the affair. The year's cruise of the Yacht Club promises to be a happy one with Commodore W. L. Whytal at the helm. At a board of director's meeting, February 23, the social program for the year was set. Besides those dates, there will be many boating events under the direction of E. A. Guarnera, outdoors chairman.

The ladies of the Anchor Club will meet March 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the club to discuss purchase of a stereophonic hi-fi system for the club.

March 28 is the date set for a huge decennial celebration at the club honoring all past commodores and Lewis Kandra in particular.
