

A GOLDEN WEDDING anniversary was observed February 21 by Mr. and Mrs. Ercole Paganì of Weed at an open house given by their children at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Mary Young.

Two Celebrate Golden Wedding

WEED—The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ercole Paganì was celebrated Sunday, February 21, at an open house given by their son and daughters at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Mary Young.

Over 200 friends and relatives congratulated the couple between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Three white heart motifs edged with gold beauty net and linked together with gold ribbon, inscribed "Ercole"—"True Love 50 Years"—"Maria," decorated the archway to the dinette reception room. An abundance of white and gold floral arrangements, complementing the home decor and in keeping with the gold and white theme, were gifts to the honored couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Paganì have resided in Weed for the past 40 years. They were married January 22, 1910, in McCloud and moved to Weed in March, 1920, where they have made many friends. Ercole Paganì is retired from employment with Long-Bell Lumber Company.

Their three children, all present for the open house, include George Paganì, San Francisco; Mrs. James (Isabelle) McClain, Bend, Oregon; and Mrs. Mary Young of Weed. Their families present were Mrs. G. Paganì, San Francisco and son, Charles Paganì, student at University of California, at Berkeley; James McClain and children, Steven, Stanley, Maria and Monica; and Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Young.

Focal point of the white clothed reception table was a centerpiece with a miniature bride and bridegroom standing on a gold pedestal beneath a gold frame archway with inscription "50" in gold letters. It was flanked by identical gold frame archways with suspended golden wedding bells. Golden yellow rosebuds and yellow carnations encircled the arrangement.

White gardenias with gold leaves were floated in the cutglass punch bowl and coffee and tea were served from golden services.

Mrs. Bernie Young passed the guest book to the guests from Redding, McCloud, Mount Shasta, Yreka, Santa Rosa, Healdsburg, Anderson, Alturas, Dunsmuir and Weed.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Irvin White, Mrs. Russell Bradshaw, Mrs. Boyd Meline, Lani Gaynor and Mrs. R. G. Gaynor. The Paganì family, visiting relatives, and close friends enjoyed PINOCHLE CLUB BONANZA—Mrs. Howard Schmidt entertained her pinochle club at home recently. Refreshments were served. High prize for the evening went to Mrs. Don Horsley, second high to Mrs. Charles Schmidt and the traveling to Mrs. George Simmons. Others attending the party were Mrs. B. G. Dusenberry, Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. Mabel Maxwell.

JANET ELSEA of Montague, All-Star 4-H girl, will be sponsored and sent to the convention in Berkeley by the Yreka Business and Professional Womens Club.

WISTFUL COLOR

Mauve is a wistful color. It happens to look equally well on blondes or brunettes. You'll see lots of it this spring, so treat yourself to at least one mauve fashion.

Yreka BPW Honors Teacher

YREKA — Elsie DeVilla of Klamath River, charter member of the Yreka Business and Professional Women's Club, was honored at an afternoon party event on Sunday afternoon, February 28, in the club room of the Montague Auditorium.

Mrs. DeVilla, who has been a teacher and principal of a small one-room school, the Honolulu School, for more than 30 years, recently achieved the distinction of being mentioned in "Who's Who" in the field of American Education.

Plans for this event were made at last week's special meeting of the Yreka BPW, called by Mrs. Betty Dow, president. It was recommended that all members invite business and working women to the event, to acquaint them with the objectives of the BPW federation and its works.

Also, during last Tuesday evening's session, Mrs. Marguerite Hayden was voted to membership in the club. Other business considered was the sponsoring of the All-Star 4-H girl again for this year. This, the club's annual project for 12 years, won for the organization the meritorious plaque last November at the Achievement Day dinner of 4-H. The club members voted to sponsor this year's All-Star 4-H girl, Janet Elsea of Montague, by paying her expenses to the All-

Star Convention to be held at Berkeley April 10.

A report was read by Marge LaFever, one of a committee of three appointed to investigate the driver education program at Yreka High School. Mrs. Jeanette Flower, chairman of the committee, had prepared the report following her interview with Stanley Balfrey, new Yreka Union High School district superintendent.
