MIDLAND GRANGE

The annual ham dinner sponsored by Midland Grange will be served Saturday, March 19, from 5 to 8 p.m. The menu will include ham, baked potatoes, vegetables, salad, relishes, hot rolls and homemade pies. Everyone is welcome and a special invitation has been issued to all political candidates to attend and meet the crowd. Charge for adults will be $1.25; for children, 75 cents, and pre-school children will be free.

Grangers from Klamath, Lake and Jackson counties convened at Midland Grange Hall March 3 at 1 p.m. for a regional conference.

State Master Elmer McClure opened the meeting and introduced State Lecturer Victor Croxon who enumerated duties of grange lecturers and gave instruction in the educational program. State Secretary Mildred Norman led the group in several songs for entertainment. Accompanist was Kathryn Smith. Coffee and cookies were served by Midland Home Economics Club Chairman Alice Hoover.

A no-host banquet was served 100 guests by Mrs. Hoover and Pomona Grange Home Economics Club Chairman Zetta Sullivan and their committees. During an evening session the state master introduced Earl Moore, state agricultural chairman, who spoke about farming policies.

He also introduced Mildred Norman who talked briefly about the National Grange theme for 1960, "The Grange Builds." McClure discussed grange legislative programs.

State Deputy Henry Hendrickson talked of grange expansion and the community service program.

Other state officers present were Rosa Meeker, Ceres, Minnie Andrieu, juvenile superintendent, Bonifay Yancey, treasurer, L. W. Barleen, county deputy, Francis Flowers, Pomona master, and Carl Yancey, state representative from Klamath County.

Lizard Point, the southernmost point of England, has two light houses and little else. Nearest railroad is 11 miles distant. Poole told Broadway stage comedians Olsen and Johnson that "Laughter has no religion. There should be more of it in the world."

4-H NEWS

LAKEVIEW — Warren Maxwell was elected president of the Lake County 4-H Leaders' Association at the annual meeting held March 3 at the McDonald Youth Center. Maxwell is leader of the Westside Livestock Club.

Newly elected vice president is Mrs. Mildred Garrett of the Westside Fire Fryers 4-H Club. Re-elected as secretary and treasurer were Mrs. Mary Milsap of Lakeview, former 4-H leader, and Mrs. Kate Rychard, leader of the Westside Dozen Daisy Stitches Sewing Club. Newly elected as director was Norman Wolf of Lakeview, leader of the Westside Livestock Club. Mrs. Scoville as past president will also serve as a director of the leaders' association. Miss Myra McBride, former 4-H'er and IFYE student to Japan, spoke and showed slides. She had lived with eight farm families in Japan, and took part in their agriculture and homemaking activities.

The 4-H leaders also discussed final spring fair plans and acted upon usual business. A social hour with a St. Patrick theme preceded the program with Mrs. Kate Rychard and Mrs. Mildred Garrett as hostesses.

An executive board meeting of the newly elected officers and extension agents followed on March 7 to plan the yearly program for the leaders' association.

POE VALLEY SHEPHERDS

The third meeting of the Poe Valley Shepherds was held at the home of Sandra Lewis. Sandra gave a report on the preparation of the ewe for lambing.

The club elected Gena Spielman as our junior leader. We discussed a community service but haven't decided on what to do as yet. The meeting was adjourned and Mrs. Lewis served refreshments.

PINE GROVE SHEEP CLUB

The Pine Grove Sheep Club met at the home of Dr. W. F. Dean. The minutes of the last meeting were read and roll call was made with all members present. Each member gave a report on what he plans to feed his sheep.

Dr. Dean gave us some suggestions on how to care and feed them. A film was shown. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Officer Confused But Situation Straightened

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—The two jail inmates had been conversing in sign language for several days.

Officer Wilbert Anderson began questioning one of the unidentified men by writing questions on a paper. And the man wrote his answers.

For some reason, Anderson said he wrote:

"Are you deaf?"

The man shook his head.

"Well, what is your condition?" said Anderson.

"I can talk," the man said audibly. "I thought you were deaf."

The speaking inmate said he used sign language because his companion was deaf.
