Salt and pepper shakers, mosaics, creamers and sugar bowls, no two alike, are among patterns she has collected from foreign countries and local sources. —Photo by Ray Kite

CHEMULD GARDEN CLUB
CHEMULD — Chemuld Garden Club entertained husbands at a dinner held at the Beaver Marsh Cafe in Beaver Marsh south of Chemult Wednesday evening. After the dinner Mrs. Lois Cassidy of Gilchrist showed slides of a trip through central Europe last summer.
Poster winners were announced and Bonnie Taylor won first place, Jerry Moebius, second, and Ernie Taylor third. All were in the required litterbug theme. The winner was shown at Gilchrist, also.
Husbands of the past presidents were presented with a gift from the "Wives Committee" for their patience and understanding in giving their wives to community effort for over four years with no probable relief in sight. This useful gift consisted of a can opener and a can of beans to use in emergencies. Those presented were William Taylor, Verne Brader and Grant Damon. Each wife has been a past president and is still very active in garden club work. Each is now on the state executive board. Mrs. Brader is state president, Mrs. Taylor the press chairman, and Mrs. Damon, the bird chairman.
Mrs. William Mott, vice president, presented the past presidents with gavels to go with the pins that had been presented when they were first past presidents.

FAREWELL PARTY
PAISLEY—Mrs. Paul J. Brattain, Mrs. Paul E. Brattain and Mrs. Marge Wolverton were co-hostesses for a farewell party recently for Mrs. Richard Bradbury, at the home of Mrs. Paul J. Brattain, Paisley. Mrs. Roy Carlon presided at the tea table. Approximately 40 guests attended including Mrs. Roy Carlon and Mrs. James Foster of Summer Lake. Mrs. Bradbury received a money tree as a farewell gift. The Bradburys have moved to Lakeview.
