NFL Bosses Open Meet In Tension

LOS ANGELES (AP) — National Football League clubowners open a three-day business session today in an atmosphere of tension.

The new American Football League is seeking, through federal antitrust action, to keep the new Dallas Rangers, an NFL franchise, from operating in the Texas city.

An NFL official who declined use of his name said that if the Rangers are blocked by an injunction, pending a court test, they may become a traveling team next fall and play their 12 opponents on the road.

There were rumors Thursday that Walter Wolfner, owner of the Chicago Cardinals, might move his club to St. Louis, but Wolfner promptly denied them.

Bob Oates, pro football writer for the Los Angeles Examiner, expressed the belief that "Wolfner may not survive the Los Angeles meeting as a Chicago operator. The television issue is dominant in the NFL's effort to persuade the Cardinals to move from Chicago to St. Louis."

On today's agenda is the discussion of a new nationwide package television plan proposed by the new commissioner, Pete Rozelle. Some of the owners have pointed out that it would be more remunerative if Chicago Bear road games could be televised in Chicago and the state of Missouri could be opened up to telecasts by a pro team in St. Louis.

Also on the agenda is the development of a formula under which 36 NFL veteran players are to be transferred to the Dallas franchise.

Marksmen Set Sunday Shoot

With their first 1960 shoot in the Journal Telegraphic meet behind them the members of the Klamath Gun Club return to the Wocus Range Sunday in competition for the J.C. Renie handicap trophy.

Marion Grant and a new member, Paul Zahniser, led a field of high scorers last Sunday. Grant broke 50 straight in the 16-yard event while Zahniser cracked 47-50 in the handicap. Five perfect scores were entered in the telegraphic competition.

Following the Sunday competition on their home range, John Lichtenstern and George Cunha made a quick trip to Medford to enter the special "backer-upper" event. They lost out eventually in a shoot-off for first place honors to a pair of top Medford gunners and had to settle for second place money.

Pirate Staff Looks Better

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP) — It looks as if the question marks on the Pittsburgh Pirate pitching staff may shake off their aches and pains this year.

Take it from one satisfied hurler, Bob Friend — who had a fine 22-14 record in 1958 but was 8-19 last year.

"Boy, my arm felt good," he remarked Thursday after tossing four innings of an intrasquad game. "I didn't expect it to be so loose and free this early."

And Manager Danny Murtaugh has high hopes for rookie Joe Gibbon, who has "looked mighty good."

"When the guys come back to the bench after batting, they say he has something," Murtaugh added.

Gibbon posted a 16-9 record at Columbus last season.

Cepeda Arrives In Giant Camp

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Orlando Cepeda, lone holdout of the San Francisco Giants, arrived at the club's training camp Thursday night and announced he would sign his contract today. Cepeda, who had said earlier that he had come to terms, reportedly will get $27,500. He flew here from his home in Puerto Rico.

GETS UPI AWARD

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — California's Pete Newell, coach of the defending NCAA basketball champions, will receive the United Press International "Coach of the Year" award in New York Sunday. Newell will receive the award at the annual dinner of New York Basketball Writers, who will present him with the same honor.

Early Wynn of the Chicago White Sox leads the American League's active pitchers in shutouts with 42.

AND THEN THERE WERE FIVE — By the time the Siskiyou County League basketball schedule was finished this season, McCloud High School, the smallest member of the powerful league, felt themselves fortunate if they could put five men on the floor at the same time for games. Sickness and injuries plagued the club throughout a luckless season. The squad drew a complete blank in conference competition. Pictured with coach Vince Sempronio, far right, are the five remaining ball players. They are, from left to right, Gary Pederson, Dennis Zan, Keith Cossairt, Bill Malosh, and Dennis Gill. Not shown are Larry Miller, Don Grady and Jim Scalise.

Fearless Picks Chi, Milwaukee

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — After a rigorous bit of spring training consisting of two hot toddies, a steam bath and an interview with an Austrian skier, Fearless Fraley can tell you unequivocably today that it will be Chicago and Milwaukee in the major league races this season.

My harried compatriots, daring the dangers of sunburn, falling palm pronds and over-acidity from too much citrus among other juices, are doing it the hard way in the Southland. All they will learn from 16 optimistic managers is that each expects to win.

This is known as being so close to the palms that you can't see the coconuts.

Avoiding these pitfalls, old Fearless can tell you without further to-do that the White Sox and the Braves will meet in the World Series and, under extreme pressure, will also reveal that one of them will win in six games. This exclusive information is being withheld pending conclusion of the season formalities of clinching the flags.

Have Added Power

If the White Sox lose, it says here, it would be a bigger scandal than either (A) 1919 or (B) 1959. They won 35 games by one run last season and, having added power, should win 35 by two runs.

Behind them, the also-rans should be: 2, New York Yankees; 3, Cleveland Indians; 4, Detroit Tigers; 5, Baltimore Orioles; 6, Kansas City A's; 7, Boston Red Sox, and 8, Washington Senators.

The Yankees were on the anemic side last season and, while Mickey Mantle should have a better year even without spring training, the deficit still appears too great. These are not the old powerhouse Yankees as evidenced by the fact that most of the infielders wait in the on-deck circle swinging only one bat.

Cleveland's pitching is fair enough to threaten but doesn't seem sturdy enough for a dash down to the wire while Detroit, with good front line pitching, still doesn't have enough power even with such as Al Kaline and Harvey Kuenn on hand.

Laughs & Receipts

From there down it's for laughs and gate receipts. The old Yankees' home at Kansas City by playing from memory could give Baltimore's deep hurling staff a battle for fourth. Cookie Lavagetto says his Washington team might surprise—meaning if it finishes or finishes ahead of embattled Boston.

In the National League, from here the finish behind Milwaukee looks like: 2, San Francisco Giants; 3, Los Angeles Dodgers; 4, Cincinnati Reds; 5, Chicago Cubs; 6, Pittsburgh Pirates; 7, St. Louis Cardinals, and 8, Philadelphia Phillies.

Chuck Dressen will get that loaded Milwaukee staff in sensible rotation and, with more drive and hit-and-run, should win a scramble against the power-packed Giants and pitching-rich Dodgers. The Giant hopes depend on Billy O'Dell's arm and Billy Loes' head. If Frank Howard comes through at first for the Dodgers, they'll be rough.

Cincinnati has the same old story of good hit, no pitch, and you can't win 'em all 11 to 10. The Cubs have the power but a weak infield and unpredictable young pitching. Pittsburgh is light on fire power; the Cardinal pitching is too thin, and the best you can say for the Phillies is that they have a host of new faces which soon will look haggard as the old ones.

And, now that this is settled, anyone for dog sled racing?

OCC Conference All-Star Pulls Down Scoring Championship Despite Absence

Oregon Collegiate Conference Final Standings

PORTLAND — Sophomore Ron Jones of Oregon College of Education captured the Oregon Collegiate Conference scoring race even though he missed his team's final three conference games.

The Coos Bay forward tossed in 287 points for a 22.0 point average in 13 conference games. Jones ranked high in other departments, too. He was fourth in field goal accuracy, hitting .452 per cent of his attempts; 14th in free throw shooting, scoring on .700 per cent of his attempts, and was 10th in picking off rebounds.

Only two others in the OCC finished the 16-game race with more than 200 points. Gordy Carrigan of Southern Oregon tallied 265 and Frank Chase of Eastern Oregon closed out the season with 240. Carrigan's second place finish this year was a jump from fourth last year while Chase climbed up from 12th in 1959 to third this year.

Southern Oregon cagers dominated the field goal and free throw accuracy departments. Tom Bernet hit .514 per cent of his shots but among the regulars, teammate Dick Smith won the field goal shooting title. Smith hit 52 of 113 attempts for a .460 percentage. Bernet was .824 from the free throw line and Bruce Guill of OTI hit .800 per cent but also had to give way to a regular, Freshman Brad Flanary of SOC, who hit 41 of 53 attempts for a .744 percentage.

Al Harter, OCE's 6-9 pivot, picked off the rebound title. He edged Paul Layher of OTI by "half" a rebound, if such is possible. Harter cleared 191 for an 11.9 per game average. Layher snared 183, just .5 per game under the former North Salem high cager.

The conference's "hatchet man" was John Payne of SOC. Payne was caught 59 times by officials but he didn't win the honor by default. Don Bridges of PSC and OCE's Harter challenged with 58 apiece.

Oregon College captured the team offensive crown. The Wolves scored 1064 points, averaged 66.5 points a game, and hit .404 per cent of their shots from the field. OCE also recorded the most fouls —356—against its players.

Portland State won the team defensive title for the second straight year. The Viks allowed only 50.1 points a game. PSC's free throw shooting was the best, hitting .631 per cent of its shots.

Southern Oregon took the team rebound championship. The Raiders cleared 715 for a 44.6 per game average.

Oregon Tech closed the season in second place offensively and defensively. The Owls edged Eastern Oregon by a single point in the offensive race and allowed opponents four fewer points than Southern Oregon in the defensive battle for runnerup spot in the statistical race.

Detroit Sees A Probable

BOSTON (AP) — Assuming Detroit grabs the final Stanley Cup playoff berth, only inches away, the Red Wings should credit assists to New York defensemen Harry Howell and Lou Fontinato.

Howell scored the tying goal and Fontinato made the final frustrating play Thursday in a 3-3 National Hockey League deadlock with the Boston Bruins.

Before the game Bruin Coach Milt Schmidt said his club would have to win its six remaining games to keep its playoff hopes alive. As a result of the tie, fifth-place Boston is eight points behind the Wings with five games to play.

Detroit can wrap up the playoff spot here Saturday in a televised tussle with the slumping Bostonians who have managed to win only one of their last eight starts.

Howell's 40-foot screened shot at 10:46 of the finale was the blow which staggered Boston. The Bruins pressed for a leading goal, pulled goalie Don Simmons in the waning moments and set up defenseman - forward Doug Mohns noted for one of the fastest slap shots in the game.

Fontinato got his forehead in the way of the wicked blast and the puck caromed off his brow high into the Boston Garden stands as the final buzzer sounded.

Young Linksmen Lead Pensacola

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — The young golfers took over in the first round of the $15,000 Pensacola Open.

Led by 22-year-old Allen Geiberger of Studio City, Calif., they set a hot pace over the 6,500-yard Pens Ela Country Club course Thursday.

Geiberger fired an 8-under-par 31-33—64 to pace 52 golfers who broke par.

Three 24-year-olds were in a tie for second with 67. They were Dave Ragan, Orlando, Fla.; Don Bisplinghoff, Longwood, Fla.; and Bruce Crampton, Sydney, Australia.

Columbian Squires To Host 10th Annual Cage Tourney

The 10th annual State Squires Basketball Tournament will begin at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, March 12, in the Sacred Heart gym.

The Klamath Squires will host the two day tournament which sees a list of six teams entered.

Clubs representing Medford, Milwaukie, Portland, Gresham and Woodburn will participate.

The defending champion for the 1960 event is the Woodburn quintet. The host Klamath Falls team was the number two finisher last year.

Action starts Saturday with a contest between Medford and Milwaukie. Play will continue through 4 p.m. Saturday afternoon then recess until 6:30 that night.

Sunday play will resume with a consolation match starting at 1:30 p.m. followed by the championship tussle at 3 p.m.

Guards Mike Slowey and Shan Britton, forwards John Barry and Jerry DeNault, and center Jim Ryan make up the starting five for the KF entry. Standing by in relief roles will be Johnny Jackson, Bob Maloney, Wayne Bricco, Elmo LeBeau and Hubert LeBeau.

The general public is invited according to tournament chairman and Chief Squire Bob Maloney. An admission fee of 25 cents per day will be charged at the door.

Bob Scanlon, Vet Signed

OAKLAND (UPI) — Veteran Johnny Gonsalves of Oakland and Irish Bobby Scanlon of San Francisco have been signed for a 10-round lightweight rematch at the Auditorium on April 5.

Gonsalves, a fancy boxer with a light touch, edged Scanlon in their first match last April 9, and surprised his fans by knocking down the Irishman.

Gonsalves retired after a recent loss to Paolo Rosi, but announced later he was always available for "money shots." His first match with Scanlon drew 4,200 fans and grossed $12,997.

Scanlon has a record of 33-4-1, and lost his last bout to current Mexican champion, Alfredo Urbina. Gonsalves has a record of 54-17-8.

Five Quintets Top Bowlers

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Five Ohio quintets top the open team division as the American Bowling Congress' 57th annual championships round out their first week tonight, but their scores — like those of the leaders in singles, doubles and all-events — are unlikely to stand up long.

Four Wins Restaurant of Canton leads the open teams with 2939, and only twice since 1916 has a score under 3,000 won the big prize.

The $409,311 competition continues through 73 more consecutive days.

There was only one change in the singles Thursday, and that was at the top where Norbert McLaughlin, 31, a Rochester, N.Y., bowling alley manager, tied Sis Mantovani of Lawrence, Long Island, for first place. McLaughlin put together games of 205, 235 and 234 for 674.

Amerigo Wins In Santa Anita

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP) — The trotters and pacers moved into Santa Anita Park today and the runners, headed by Amerigo, departed.

Amerigo, given a rousing ride by jockey Willie Hartack, climaxed the Santa Anita thoroughbred meeting Thursday with a nose victory in the $119,900 San Juan Capistrano Handicap.

Second was King o'Turf, with Aorangi third and Porter fourth in the cavalry-like charge of 17 over the grass course at about a mile and one-quarter.

Santa Anita's 55-day winter meeting ended with attendance totaling 1,455,975 compared with 1,561,494 for the 55 days last season. The parimutuel handle was $116,959,107, contrasted with $120,996,932 for last year.
