AN AFTERNOON of bridge is in store for members, honorary and associate members and guests of Kingsley Officers Wives Club on March 31. In charge of the affair is Barbara Edwards, left, vice president of the club. Estelle Paulson, right, is assisting. Each member is asked to bring her own partner. The tickets will be 75 cents for the play to start at 1 p.m. Prizes will be given and refreshments served. Proceeds will aid the club's project of enlarging and redecorating the powder room of the Officers Club. —Photo by M.Sgt. Charles Bennett

A SURPRISE RECEPTION followed the regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America on February 24. Honored were Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. McEntire, shown cutting a wedding cake, who were married February 20 in Reno. Mrs. McEntire is the former Charlotte Carmichael. Serving the cake was Thelma Colvin and presiding at the coffee services were Viola Nelson and Bertha Strite. Assisting were Martha Perea and Pauline Norman. The guest book was attended by Mary Tennant.

MARYGENE COLWELL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Colwell of the Ashland Highway, was graduated from San Francisco Dental Nurses Training School on February 12. She is also a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy of this city.

Open House To Honor Couple
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marsh of Dunsuir will be honored on their golden wedding anniversary at an open house Sunday, March 20, in the Travelers Hotel in Dunsuir. Their many friends are invited to call between the hours of two and five in the afternoon.

Making arrangements for the affair are the couple's four children, Mrs. T. H. (Eloise) Crocker and Harry A. Marsh, both of Dunsuir, Mrs. Robert (Isabel) Eiler of Garelle and John A. Marsh of San Jose.
Harry Marsh is a retired Southern Pacific engineer. He and his wife were one time residents of Klamath Falls.

Clayton Hannons Welcome Son

Word arrived in Klamath Falls Friday, March 11, of the birth of a son, their first, early that morning, to Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hannon of Portland. The young man, born at 1:21 a.m. at the Portland Sanitorium, weighed seven lbs., three ozs., and has been named Robert Paul. He has an older sister, Linda, almost 4.

The baby's father is a former Herald and News sports writer and is now on the Oregonian-Oregon Journal staff.
Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Fawer and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hayden, all of Klamath Falls.

Klamath Coed Named To Board

Suzanne Goeller was one of five women chosen to serve on the Student Board of Reference, judiciary branch of Associated Women students, at Oregon State College.

The board is composed of nine women students. New members are chosen each winter term to fill vacancies of graduating board members. Selections are based on character, personality and activities.
Mrs. Clare Lozier, the former Clara Landram, of Ogden, Utah, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sisson, 533 North Sixth Street.

Library Club To Hear Review

Mrs. Charles B. Larkin will review the book, "The Dress Doctor," for Woman's Library Club Monday, March 14, at 2 p.m. in the city library auditorium.

"The Dress Doctor" is an autobiography by Edith Head, chief designer for Paramount Studios. Edith Head has won several academy awards for her designing. Some of the famous motion picture stars for whom she has designed clothes are May West and Clara Bow of earlier years and the newer stars, Lauren Bacall and Princess Grace. She writes of her experiences designing costumes as well as her suggestions on right choice of dress, what a dress does for you. She has become known to many as an analyst of style by her many appearances on Art Linkletter's daytime show, The House Party.

Also at this meeting will be the judging of the dresses for the General Federation of Women's Clubs Fashion Sewing Contest.

WABENO COUNCIL

WEED—A combined social and potluck dinner, to be held jointly with the Independent Order of Redmen members, will follow a business session of the Wabeno Council 231, Degree of Pocahontas, on March 18. The social plans were voted by the council members at the February meeting. Mrs. Alma Killingsworth, Pocahontas, presided.

Mrs. Pearl Sbarbaro received the delegate award for the evening. Mrs. Mary Grassi and Mrs. Elline Summers the dime awards, and Mrs. Ruth Patterson the mystery package.

The after meeting social hour was devoted to a layette shower given for a member, Mrs. Naomi Allen.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Patterson, Mr. Rita Renning and Mrs. Sbarbaro.

HAZ-BINS

The Haz-bins met at the home of Lola Truax, 540 Division Street, on February 22 with six members and two guests present. After a short business meeting two tables of pinocle were in play.

High score for the evening was held by Stella Persell, second by Bea Nelson and low, Betty Ketsdever. Sara Kirby received the guest prize and 300 pinocle prizes went to Sadie May Wallace and Mable Ward.

The next meeting will be at the home of Betty Ketsdever, 1028 Jefferson Street, on March 28.
