Susan Welch Is Bride In Valentine Day Rites

WEED—The altar of the Community Presbyterian Church was banked with baskets of white carnations, snapdragons and American Beauty red roses for the wedding of Susan Ann Welch and Dwight L. Hammond Jr. Sunday, February 14. The Rev. Harold Foster officiated for the double ring ceremonies read at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The organ prelude and wedding selections were played by Mrs. William Davis, who also accompanied the choral prelude, "O Perfect Love," sung by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Behnke, Yreka, aunt and uncle of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Welch of Weed and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight L. Hammond Sr. of Edgewood.

As the bride approached the altar, escorted down the white carpeted aisle by her father, the wedding congregation sang, "For the Beauty of the Earth," as the processional hymn.

The bride chose a full length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle with fitted bodice, scooped neckline, scalloped and detailed with sequins. The long lace sleeves were tapered at the wrists. The bouffant skirt was fashioned with a lace peplum forming from a deep point in front to a full back with applique inserts of lace on full. She carried a white Bible with an orchid and ribbon streamers for her bouquet.

Sally Welch was maid of honor for her sister and Elizabeth Hammond of Crescent City, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They wore identical full skirted frocks of pink and red floral sheer nylon over pink. They carried nosegays of white carnations.

Janet Miller of Mount Shasta and Arlene Benky of Yreka, cousins of the bride, were candlelighters.

Best man was Nathan Hammond, brother of the bridegroom. Seating the wedding guests were Dale and Don Welch, brothers of the bride, and Dean Hammond, brother of the bridegroom.

The wedding congregation of over 300 friends and relatives repeated in unison The Lord's Prayer, prior to the pronouncement and blessing and sang the recessional hymn "Joyful Joyful, We Adore Thee."

Mrs. Welch wore a hand knit dress of American Beauty red for her daughter's wedding and a corsage of white carnations and American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Hammond, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue lace dress with a corsage of pink carnations and American Beauty roses.

The bridal party greeted the many guests at the reception, held immediately following the ceremony in the social hall of the church.

American Beauty roses interspersed with lacy green surrounded the four tier wedding cake centering the bride's table. The newlyweds cut the first serving with an engraved silver cake knife, presented as a gift from Mrs. Glea Anderson, Mrs. John Booth, an aunt, and Mrs. Ronald Wilson, Yreka, a cousin of the bride, served the cake.

Lanelle and Douglas Booth, cousins of the bride, passed the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Warren Behnke and Mrs. Holly Miller, Mount Shasta, aunt of the bride, served the wedding punch and Mrs. Rolland Riley, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Don Vaughan, Woodland, cousin of the bride, served the coffee.

Mrs. Alva Welch and Mrs. Russell Vaughan, grandmothers of the bride, were honored guests.

Following their honeymoon to Mexico and southern California, the young couple is now at home in Gazelle, and will soon move to their new ranch home. He is engaged in cattle ranching with his father and brothers in Siskiyou County and the new Mrs. Hammond is secretary for Howard Jones, Dunsmuir attorney.

LEG FLATTERY

Seamless hosiery in golden or neutral-nude tones rounds out slender legs.

A DINNER DANCE, an annual affair of the International Footprint Association, was held Saturday evening at the Yacht Club. Cutout footprints were placed along the tables where a patriotic red, white and blue theme was used for flowers and candles. Music for dancing was by the Fred Dallas Trio. The local chapter, first in Oregon, received its charter in 1938. Members are law enforcement officers

Couple Observes Silver Wedding

WEED—Mr. and Mrs. John A. Booth of Weed were honored on their silver wedding anniversary at their ranch home February 20 with a dinner prepared by their daughter, Barbara, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jerry Booth.

After being away for the day, the couple returned home to find the rooms attractively decorated in a silver theme. A large flower arrangement of red roses with a silver 25 in the center, along with the couple's wedding picture, held a prominent place in the living room. The table was centered with a cake decorated in silver and white encircled by silvered candles. Mrs. Booth wore a red rosebud corsage backed with silver leaves and her husband a matching boutonniere.

Those honoring the couple included Mr. and Mrs. John A. Booth, Barbara Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Booth and son Stephen, all of Weed; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Booth of Modesto; Mrs. Nellie O. Wachter, mother of Mrs. Booth from Crannell, California; G. D.

FASHION TIP

When buying a hat, remember that you must see yourself in a full-length mirror. Your whole silhouette is an important factor in how it will look. Many a poor choice has been made by women who looked only in a hand mirror when selecting a new chapeau.

SHASTA LILY LODGE

McCLOUD—District deputy president, Mary Callender of Mount Shasta, paid an official visit to Shasta Lily Rebekah Lodge No. 345 February 25. The officers and members were given instructions. Ten Rebekahs presented a floor drill. Illama Hitchcock, vice grand, escorted Mrs. Callender to the center where she was greeted by Noble Grand Addie Mason. Dogwood blossoms and a gift were dropped into her parasol. The dogwood is Helen MacFarlane's flower for the year. She is president of the Rebekah Assembly.

Daisy Downs, acting conductor, escorted Thelma Welch to the station where she was presented a corsage of dogwood blossoms and a rhinestone pin in thanks for designing the pattern for the formals worn by her escort team in their work during the installations of District 49.

Refreshments were served at the end of the meeting.

Merrill Club Meets March 3

MERRILL — Merrill Recreation Hall was the scene of an afternoon business meeting of the Merrill Library Club on Thursday, March 3, with Mrs. William Post, president, conducting the meeting.

Mrs. George Mattson, Merrill librarian, reported that the circulation for the month of February was 236 books and magazines.

Mrs. Clifford Blymyer was awarded the special prize brought by Mrs. Garwood Walp. An arrangement of daffodils and pussy willow in a teapot made by Mrs. Dan Geaney was presented to Mrs. Don Harris.

Following the meeting, Mrs. Johnny O'Neil, social chairman, conducted games. Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Stoll, Mrs. Robert Merrilees and Mrs. Jerry Sharp.

The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, April 7. Each member is asked to make and wear a hat. Prizes will be awarded.
