BETA SIGMA PHI

BETA PHI CHAPTER
The Beta Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met February 16 at the home of Marge Seutter. Pauline Ballantyne had for her program guest speakers, Margaret Davies and Rowena McDonald, from the Ewauna Toastmistress Club. They gave an interesting and stimulating debate on the subject "Have men contributed more toward world progress than women."

During the business meeting, Pat Lukes was elected to represent Beta Phi Chapter for girl of the year for the state convention. She will compete with the girls from each chapter in Klamath Falls. One girl will be chosen to represent the five local chapters at the state convention in May.

A guest for the evening was Joanne Howard from OTI. Refreshments were served by co-hostesses Ora Mitchell and JoAnn Gestvang.

A meeting of Beta Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was held March 1 at the home of Betty Dirschl. After a short business meeting conducted by Lillian Hayden, Rita Bacha presented her program, "The Art of Thinking," with members, Pat Lukes, Pauline Connor, Lois Egger, Shirley Bissell and Letty Hicks participating. Refreshments were served by co-hostesses Shirley Blair and Letty Hicks.

Nile Club Meeting Features Style Show

Members of the Klamath Falls Zuleima Nile Club saw the latest in spring fashions presented by Whytal's at their regular meeting March 2 in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel. In charge of the meeting was Jean Coddington, president.

Enjoyed by all was the style show with commentary by Mrs. Larry Whytal. The exciting spring fashions were shown by Marlys O'Neill, Marge Dugan, Katherine Stonecypher, Pat Lindley, Pat Coulson, Nancy Hugelman, Patty Anderson, Joan Wizer, Karen Lindley, Peggy Chilente and Isabelle Dillinger. During a brief intermission of the style show, Suzanne Whytal entertained members with a piano selection.

Irene Byrnes was chairman of the day. Her committee used the St. Patrick Day motif for decorating and the flower arrangements on the tables were the essence of spring.

Wilma Wiley and Mrs. Ray Biggers were given the March birthday prizes. Special prizes were won by Bess Frazier, Mildred Steele, Florence West and Madge McLaren.

New members introduced and presented with corsages were Lucille Crawley, Mickie Walker and Joan Trotman. They were initiated at the ceremonial held in Eugene February 27.

President Jean Coddington introduced her committees for the coming year. They are: sewing, Gladys Tennant; Temple hostesses, Blanche Schulze and Kathleen Ward; birthday bank, Joyce Ward; sickness and distress, Grace Huls; Christmas box, Margaret Bane; Thanksgiving box, Betty Stockebrand; chaplain, Mary Bothwell; music, Helen O'Neill, publicity, Johnnie Ritter.

The next Nile Club meeting on April 6 is tentatively planned as a dinner meeting.

Rotaryans Hear Students Speak

MONTAGUE — Two senior girls from Yreka High School were presented as guest speakers at the dinner meeting of the Montague Rotaryans held at the Shamrock Cafe on February 23. Hostesses Mrs. T. H. Dickinson, Mrs. Brice Robret and Mrs. Wilson Grazier were in charge of arrangements. Brit Ebert of Norway, who is currently attending Yreka High School under the American Field Service program, and Julie Townley of Montague, who traveled to Denmark last summer as an exchange student of the AFS, showed colored slides of Norway and Denmark. Mrs. Dickinson, AFS representative for this area, introduced the young speakers, after she had given a brief resume of origin and growth of the American Field Service program. Present, in addition to those mentioned, were Mrs. Del Reynolds, Mrs. Morris Prather, Mrs. George Fiock, Mrs. Frank Kouts, Mrs. Donald Gordon, Mrs. E. M. Martin, Mrs. S. A. Messner, Mrs. Louis Hessig, Mrs. Charles Phillips, Mrs. T. W. Williams, Mrs. Walter A. Simon, Mrs. Earl Fiock and Mrs. James McAdams.

LEATHER CLEANER

Leather upholstery will look like new if, after wiping with a damp cloth, you rub the leather with a cloth that has been dipped into the beaten white of an egg. When dry, rub the leather with clean cloths.

TIERS AND TIERS of embroidered imported silk organza fashioned the bridal gown whose full skirt ended in a graceful sweep train. Nile Club members saw it when modeled by the bride of Whytal's show, Karen Lindley. The bridal bouquet by Nyback's Flower Fair combined French heather and delicate pink roses. The lavender color was used again in the attractive dress of the bridesmaid. — Photo by Guderian
