LOS ANGELES (AP) — Quarterback Don Heinrich of the New York Giants and eight other veteran National Football League players Saturday night were awarded to the new Dallas club of the NFL.

Jerry Lucas, Ohio State Top Techmen

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Ohio State's second-half punch knocked out Georgia Tech 86-69 and the Buckeyes won the NCAA Mid-East Regional Basketball championship Saturday night.

Western Kentucky also went on a scoring binge in the second half to carry off third place with a 97-67 decision over Ohio University.

Ohio State, playing before a sell-out house at Freedom Hall, unleashed a whirlwind attack that Georgia Tech could not derail.

Tech, the Southeastern Conference standard-bearer, trailed 41-35 at halftime but could find no solution for the Big Ten champion's size, speed and stamina. Jerry Lucas, showing why he was picked as an All-American, scored 25 points to place the winners who move to San Francisco for the semi-finals next week.

Joe Roberts came behind him with 19 followed by John Havlicek with 15 and Larry Siegfried with 14.

However, Roger Kaiser of Tech captured scoring honors with 27 points.

Anne Quast Top Amateur

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Anne Quast of Marysville, Wash., fired an 81 Saturday and became the leading amateur after two rounds of the 72-hole Women's Titleholders Golf Tournament.

Miss Quast's Saturday round, nine over par, gave her a 36-hole total of 157. Three other golfers, all pros, were bracketed with her at 157.

Leading the field was pro Fay Crocker of Montevideo, who had a three-over-par Saturday to run her 36-hole total to 150. Three other pros were between Miss Crocker and Miss Quast.

Far down the list, at 163, was Spokane's Shirley Englehorn, who carded an 81 Saturday. Ruth Jensen of Seattle came in with an 82 for a 36-hole total of 166. Both girls are pros.

land — in stocking the new franchise in Texas.

From the Giants, Dallas also selected Al Barry, offensive guard from the University of Southern California, and Melwood Guy, offensive guard from Duke.

From the champion Baltimore Colts, Dallas selected halfback L. G. Dupre from Baylor, defensive tackle Ray Krouse from Maryland and offensive end Dave Sherer from Southern Methodist.

The Texas team selected from the Cleveland Browns Ed Modzelewski, fullback from Maryland offensive halfback Leroy Bolden from Michigan State and Frank Clarke, offensive end from Colorado.

Names of players to be selected from the remaining nine NFL teams will be announced over the next few days.

It remains now for Dallas to come to terms with the players drawn from the NFL pool of "expandable" talent from the various clubs.

Pilot Rock Cagers Earn Fourth Spot

BAKER, Ore. (AP) — A youngster with a taped, sprained hand led Pilot Rock to a 64-40 victory over Halfway and fourth place, the consolation title, in the Oregon Class B prep basketball tournament here Saturday afternoon.

In Saturday night games, Alesa and Mill City met for third place, and Malin was paired with Powers in the championship contest.

Pilot Rock, the 1959 Class B titlist, rolled to its victory over Halfway behind the scoring of 6-Mike Roberts, who got 18 points despite a sprained hand.

Roberts topped the game's scoring. He was sidelined about 15 minutes during the game while his hand was re-taped.

Halfway was in contention only in the game's opening moments. The score was tied at 2-2, and then Richard Van Schoiack sank a free throw that sent Pilot Rock ahead to stay.

By halftime, Pilot Rock was safely ahead, 31-14.

Star's Filly Wins

MELBOURNE (AP) — Far Out, a 2-year-old filly, gave Fred Astaire, the dancer and film star, his first victory as an Australian race horse owner Saturday.

Far Out, ridden by Australia's top jockey, Neville Sellwood, and carrying 120 pounds, scored a slashing 1 1/4 length victory over a field of 26 in the first division of the Hopeful Stakes at Flemington.

TOURNAMENT BOUND — Klamath Union High School hopes for a 1960 Oregon prep state basketball championship rest on the shoulders of this squad of Pelicans. In 19 previous state tourney junkets in March KU teams have won two state crowns, one in 1943 and the other in 1958, the first year that the seniors in the above photo attended the classic. Overall the Whitebirds have won 35 and lost 27 tourney contests. This season the team enters the fray boasting an 18-4 win-loss mark for the year. In the first

Providence, Utah State NIAA Winners

NEW YORK (AP) — Pesky Providence turned third-seeded St. Louis into a fumbling giant Saturday night for a 64-53 victory and joined afternoon winner Utah State in the semifinals of the 23rd National Invitation Basketball Tournament.

Utah State treated a national television audience to a 73-72 overtime thriller over Villanova on 5-foot-10 Max Perry's two free throws with seven seconds left.

In first round games, on the four game day-night program, St. Bonaventure got 52 points from brothers Tom and Sam Smith and routed Holy Cross 84-81 for its 17th straight triumph and big, strong Dayton crushed our-shooting Temple 72-51 behind Gary Roggenbuck and Frank Case.

The two doubleheader sessions drew 31,415 to Madison Square Garden, 14,337 in the afternoon and 17,078 Saturday night.

Providence, once again the gallery's choice with its ball-hawking, driving style will play second-seeded Utah State in one of next Thursday night's semifinals.

The other semi berth will be decided Tuesday when top-seeded Bradley plays Dayton and defending champion St. John's (NY) plays St. Bonaventure.

The St. Louis Billikens, who handed Providence one of its four regular season losses, 65-61 at St. Louis were knocked out of the NIT in their first game for the second straight year by the flashy Friars from Rhode Island. This one wasn't nearly as tough as last year's, when Providence needed two overtimes for a 75-72 victory over the seeded Bills.

Utah State, the nation's No. 8 team, and playing in the NIT after finishing second to Utah in the Skyline Conference, seemed to have this nationally televised game well in hand until the Wildcats suddenly caught fire with about six minutes to play.

Hubie White's rebound of his own shot with 25 seconds left sent the teams into overtime at 67-67.

Joe Worthen, the only sub Utah State's iron men used, slipped in for an unmoiled layup with 66 seconds left for a 71-70 lead and Perry's two free throws on a deliberate foul by Tom Samuelwitz made it 73-70.

John Thomas Soars To New Jump Mark

CHICAGO (AP) — "I have no set goal, I'm going to keep on jumping and winning," says world record breaker John Thomas.

Thomas, a 19-year-old Boston University sophomore, was the main attraction in the Chicago Relays and he didn't disappoint anyone in the capacity crowd of 10,000 in the International Amphitheatre Friday night.

Mighty O Scores 43 In Victory

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) — All-America Oscar Robertson drilled in 43 points to lead top-ranked Cincinnati to an 82-71 victory over Kansas in the championship game of the NCAA Midwest Regional Basketball tourney Saturday night.

Cincinnati thus advances to the NCAA semi-final round in San Francisco next Friday night.

In the consolation game, DePaul of Chicago defeated Texas, 67-61. A capacity crowd of 12,000 saw a superb performance by Robertson as he led his Bearcat mates to their 27th victory against only one defeat this season.

The Big O had to carry the entire load for Cincinnati because the Bearcats big sophomore center Paul Hogue was hamstrung by fouls most of the way, sitting out all but six minutes of the first half and playing cautiously the second period.

The score changed hands 12 times before the Bearcats finally took command.

It appeared an upset was in the making when Kansas, ahead 42-40 at halftime, moved to a 57-51 lead midway in the second half.

After Cincinnati narrowed its deficit to 63-61, Robertson tallied 11 of the Bearcats' 12 points in a steady grind which broke Kansas morale.

The crowd let out a thunderous roar, then went silent when the announcer said the height had to be remeasured. Another roar went up when the announcement came that Thomas had cleared 7-2 1/2.

Except for Thomas' leap and Hayes Jones' record-tying victory in the 60-yard high hurdles, the meet was dull.

Fay Crocker Pads Margin

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Fay Crocker, a South American with a bubbly personality, stretched her women's titleholders lead to four strokes Saturday over a frigid, windswept golf course.

"I've got on so many clothes I can hardly swing my clubs," the Montevideo, Uruguay, professional, argued after posting her second straight 75 for a midway total of 150.

Snow forced postponement of play Friday. A bright sun cleared the Augusta Country Club course, then the temperature rose to the mid 40s. But a biting 12-15 mile an hour wind made it seem much colder.

Another 18 holes is scheduled Sunday with the final round Monday. Kathy Cornelius of Lakeland, Fla., matched Miss Crocker's 75 and jumped into second place at 154.

Next came the Smith girls — no relations. Willy, of St. Clair, Mich., fired a 76 for 155 and Marilyn of French Lic, Ind., a 77 for 156.

Par for the hill, 6,300-yard course is 36-36-72.

OSC Oarsmen Dealt Defeat

CORVALLIS (AP) — University of British Columbia crews won both varsity and junior varsity races from Oregon State College oarsmen on a 2,000-meter Willamette River course here Saturday.

The B.C. varsity crew rode an 8-minute, 28-second course record, in beating OSC by two lengths.

Girl Swimmer Cracks Mark

PORTLAND (AP) — Ann Warner, 14-year-old Santa Clara, Calif., breaststroke star, Saturday bettered the existing U.S. women's record for the 200-yard breast stroke.

The California miss was timed at 3 minutes and 18 seconds in the first qualifying round of the Far West Senior Invitational swim meet at the Multnomah Athletic Club in Portland.

Providence, once again the gallery's choice with its ball-hawking, driving style will play second-seeded Utah State in one of next Thursday night's semifinals.

The other semi berth will be decided Tuesday when top-seeded Bradley plays Dayton and defending champion St. John's (NY) plays St. Bonaventure.

Phillies Plan Klamath Falls Ball Clinic

A special baseball player clinic featuring coaches and scouts from the Philadelphia Phillies of the National League is planned for Klamath Falls during the month of May, it was announced by Glenn Elliott, Lake Oswego, northwest area scout for the organization.

The clinic will be sponsored by the Herald and News in cooperation with the various city and county high school and college baseball coaches.

Elliott, a former major leaguer, who played with the Boston Braves, is widely known on the West Coast from a long tenure as a left-handed pitcher in the Pacific Coast League. He played with Portland, Seattle, Sacramento and San Diego before retiring from the game following an auto accident that injured his arm.

The exact date for the two day clinic has as yet not been announced but it was expected to be set at a time to avoid conflict with school activities.

The Philadelphia club will send, in addition to Elliott, two more members of their organization to work with the turnout. They will be assisted by Klamath Falls coaches Bob Williams, Bill Mansfield, Jim Cordial, and others.

Beavers Sign J. Greengrass

PORTLAND (AP) — The Portland Beavers Saturday said they have signed outfielder Jim Greengrass, who last season hit 27 home runs for Portland in the Pacific Coast League.

Assistant General Manager Bill Sayles said Greengrass agreed to terms during a telephone conversation from the outfielder's home in Allentown, Pa.

Greengrass will drive west, and arrive late at Portland's spring training camp, which opens next week in Ontario, Calif.

"We're not worried about his condition," Sayles said. "He played winter ball in Puerto Rico..."

KC 8, LA 4

VERO BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The Kansas City Athletics made Bob Elliott's first major league managerial appearance a winning one by defeating the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers, 8-4, in an exhibition Saturday.

Rookie outfielder Leo Posada drove in three runs with a single and a double as a late-inning replacement to highlight the Athletics' 13-hit attack against three of the Dodgers' best pitchers — Dan Drysdale, Johnny Podres and Roger Craig.

Chuck Essegian singled home two runs and Wally Moon singled home one for the Dodgers, who were limited to six hits by Ray Herbert, Ken Johnson, Marty Kutyna and Dick Hall.

SF 11, Cleveland 8

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Cleveland blasted six home runs but they were insufficient to keep the San Francisco Giants from winning the opening contest of baseball's Cactus League Saturday, 11-8.

Cleveland's Rocky Colavito got three of the homers, but one didn't count. Giant manager Bill Rigney blew the whistle on him for batting out of turn and the circuit clot was nullified.

Rocky previously had batted out of turn twice, but Rigney bided his time until the big blow in the sixth off rookie Julio Navarro. Other Indian homers were by Vic Poer, Gene Leek and Johnny Temple.

The Giants outhit Cleveland 16-13 including a couple of homers, by Felipe Alou and Eddie Bresnold.

Phils 2, Braves 1

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Rookie Ken Walters slammed a ninth inning double to score Alvin Dark with the winning run for the Philadelphia Phillies in a 2-1 victory Saturday over the Milwaukee Braves in a Grapefruit League opener.

Dark, making his first appearance with the Phils after being traded by the Chicago Cubs, got on base to open the bottom of the ninth when Ron Piche, a rookie pitcher, hit him with the ball.

Dark moved up on a sacrifice by still another newcomer, Bobby Del Greco.

The victory went to John Buzhardt who came to the Phils in the deal for Dark. He gave up the lone Braves' run in the seventh.

Robin Roberts for the Phils and Juan Pizarro for Milwaukee pitched scoreless ball through the first three innings.

ChiSox 4, Reds 3

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — The Chicago White Sox, who won 35 of 50 one-run games last year, opened their exhibition season Saturday with another one-run victory. This time they beat the Cincinnati Reds 4-3 in 15 innings before 3,372 at Payne Park.

Joe Hicks, rookie outfielder up from Indianapolis, broke up the struggle with a bases-loaded single off Raul Sanchez in the bottom of the 13th.

The Sox got three runs in the first inning. They did it in their usual manner, two of the runs scoring as a result of bases-loaded walks and the other coming a pitch after Al Smith was hit by a batter, also with the bases loaded.

The Reds tied the score at 3-3 in the 11th. Cincinnati 000 000 000 001—4 9 0 Chi. (A) 300 000 000 000—3 8 2 Ch. (A) 300 000 000 000—3 8 2 Hook, O'Toole (14), Sanchez (18) and Dotterer, Bailey (7), Latman, Baumann (4), McBride (7), Agos (13) and Batteny. W—Arias. L—Sanchez.

Boston 8, Cubs 4

MESA, Ariz. (AP) — The Boston Red Sox opened defense of their Cactus League baseball championship Saturday by defeating the Chicago Cubs 8-4 behind the hitting of Jerry Mallett and Pumpsie Green.

Ernie Banks, the Cubs' great shortstop, hammered two hits including a two-run homer in the five innings he played.

Rookie outfielder Mallett and league sophomore Green, an infielder, drove in two runs apiece for the winners. Mallett hit a bases empty homer in the sixth inning.

Boston starter Tom Borland pitched the first three innings, allowing two runs and five hits in gaining the decision. Cub starter Glen Hobbie, a 16-game winner a year ago, was touched for three runs and four hits in three frames and was charged with the loss.

Boston 003 111 200—8 10 0 Chicago (N) 011 020 000—4 2 0 Borland, Mullett (4), Sturdyard (7) and Sullivan, Hobbie, Ellisworth (5), Anderson (7), Schroll (9) and Rice, Thacker (5). W—Borland. L—Hobbie.

Tigers 8, Nats 6

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — The Detroit Tigers, taking advantage of some wildness on the part of Washington's rookie pitchers, defeated the Senators 8-6 Saturday in the Grapefruit League opener for both clubs.

Ralph Lument and Don Lee gave the Tigers eight walks and a hit batsman in the first four innings and the Tigers made them the key to eight runs.

Al Kaline had a bases-empty home run for Detroit and Faye Throneberry hit a three-run blast for the Senators.

Hank Aguirre and Pete Burnside, a pair of left handed relievers, handcuffed the Senators the rest of the way.

Washington 050 000 001—6 3 2 Detroit 300 000 008—8 7 2 Lument, Lee (2), Katt (5), Kaser (8) and Korcek; Bunning, Aguirre (4), Burnside (7) and Roarko. W—Bunning. L—Lee.

Orioles 5, Bucs 2

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles made the most of five hits Saturday as they opened the exhibition baseball season with a 5-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Pirates also lost the services of Gino Cimoli for an indefinite period. The outfielder, acquired in a winter deal with St. Louis, injured his right hand when he crashed into the rightfield wall making a spectacular catch of Brooke Robinson's drive in the first inning. A preliminary examination showed no serious fracture but an X-ray was ordered.

The Orioles scored three unearned runs in the first on rookie Al Nagle's clutch single. Albie Pearson's double in the fifth was good for two more runs.

Joe Christopher led the Pirates' 10-hit attack with a double and three singles. Dick Stuart also hit a double and a single.

Pittsburgh 000 101 000—2 10 3 Baltimore 300 020 000—5 5 1 Daniels, Green (4), Umbricht (7) and Kravitz, Smith (6); Chance, Coleman (4), Kay (7) and Triandos. W—Chance. L—Daniels.

SL 5, Yankees 1

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Darrell Spencer led the St. Louis Cardinals to a 5-1 victory over the New York Yankees as the exhibition baseball season began Saturday.

The shortstop, who was obtained from San Francisco during the winter, slammed three singles and drove in two runs.

Vinegar Bend Mizell was the winning pitcher and allowed only one single in four innings. The Yankees were held to 8 hits
