New Cheeses Now Imported

NEW YORK (UPI) — Three of England's most famous cheeses and one Welsh variety are going into general distribution in the United States for the first time.

Stilton, cheshire, double Gloucester and Welsh Caerphilly will be available in supermarket dairy departments in pre-packaged wedges.

The Milk Marketing Board of England and Wales offers these buying and serving tips:

—Buy only as much at one time as you expect to use within a few days.

—Serve cheshire and double Gloucester after meals or at snack-time. Cheshire, believed to be the oldest English cheese, is crumbly, slightly salty and toasts well. Double Gloucester has a mild, rich flavor especially compatible with lettuce or sliced cucumbers.

—Stilton, blue-veined white cheese made from cow's milk, has a mellow, rich flavor suitable for after meals or as a luncheon entree with crusty french bread, hard rolls or crackers.

Caerphilly, semi-soft cow's milk cheese with granular texture and tangy flavor, is recommended as sandwich or snack food, alone or with radishes. It also toasts well.

All firm cheeses should be allowed to reach room temperature before serving to release the full flavor and aroma. But keep them tightly wrapped to avoid drying out.

CIRCUMSTANCES

ONEIDA, N.Y. (UPI) — Judge Verne L. Whalen suspended a $10 speeding fine against 22-year-old David Timmerman of Canastota after the defendant told the judge he was en route to the hospital to see his wife and new baby.

"I can't condone speeding," the judge said, "but I can't think of a better reason for hurrying."

UNSAFE

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. (UPI)—Magistrate Harley Ballett ruled William Sharpe's "unsafe vehicle" off the road and fined the motorist $14.50. Officers who arrested Sharpe, 20, said the auto he was driving was "held together with baling wire, there were blocks of wood supporting the fan belt and the grill and hood were put together from two different makes of cars."
