Tule School Readies Play

TULELAKE — "Stars In Their Eyes," a three act comedy by Ruth and Nathan Hale, will be presented by the junior class of the Tulelake High School Friday, March 18, in the Tulelake High School Gymnasium. Curtain time will be 8 p.m.

A 1:30 matinee will be given the same day for those unable to attend the night show and for grade school students.

Cast members and characters follow: Deann Van Nortwick, Julie; Linda Lewis, Lindy; Faye Adams, Beatrice; Mary Sura, Eloise; Donna McBride, mother; Robert Maharry, father; Joe Rogers, Mr. MacDoughee; Kathy Byron, Mrs. MacDoughee; Karen Anderson, Miss Mennen; Marsha Calkins, Gertie; Ron Long, Kenny LeRoy; Tom Alcorn, Bill; Fred Whitaker, Mr. Bounce; Paul King, Mr. Peckin; and Mike Pierce, Mr. Beamer.

The play depicts the trials and tribulations of a stage struck family, forced to share one bathroom with four other families of apartment dwellers.

J. W. Quinn is directing. Assistant directors are Kristine Thomas, Betty Kjos and Carolyn Essman.

Audience Enjoys Benefit Program

An appreciative audience of more than 250 persons saw a beautifully costumed cast of 35 adults and teenagers and children present a unique dance and musical program at Fremont Junior High School, Friday night, March 11.

The community benefit performance, arranged by the Klamath Reservation Discussion Group of Chiloquin, was given by an all-Indian cast for benefit of the proposed hospital to be built at a future date in Klamath Falls. Money will be held in escrow until such time as needed.

Ticket sales totaled $262.50. The show was the second benefit performance given this year by the cast, which raised more than $100 for the New March of Dimes.

Mrs. Paul (Goleta) Wampler directed. Bill Norval, Indian education program representative on the reservation, also assisted. The program included Indian Day: Cheyenne War Dance, hand game, war dance, Indian Song, Running Bear, Hoop Dance, Victory Dance, Shield Dance, Modern ways: Pale Moon, Bugle Call Rag, Blue Danube, baton number, ballet, Valley of the Moon, Sugar Time, Eagle Dance and finale.

Ushers were Norman Jackson and John Wright. A reception arranged by interested Klamath Falls residents honored the cast and friends at the YMCA following the show.

Bailey Named Rotary Head

Chuck Bailey of Motor Investment Co. will serve as president of the Klamath Falls Rotary Club for the year starting July 1. It was announced at the club meeting Friday noon.

Other officers elected by the board of directors are Gene Balle of Underwood's Camera Shop, vice president, and Mal Gellup, who has been secretary the current year, reelected to that post. Walt Badorek of Sixth Street Oxygen and Steel, and Dr. George Nitschelm, dentist, were announced as new members of the club.

Jack Douglass, Rotarian and official of Oregon Technical Institute, spoke to the club on the function of technical institutes in the educational system. Harold Ashley was chairman of the day.
