

Victory Won By West Over Soviet

BERLIN (AP) — A stubborn West Monday night won its battle with the Soviet Union over new travel passes for Western military missions in East Germany. Word of the passes implied recognition of the Soviet puppet regime.

The Soviets discarded the passes after month-long Western refusal to accept them and retaliation against Soviet missions in West Germany.

The passes would have authorized the United States, British and French military missions stationed at Potsdam, East Germany, to travel in the "German Democratic Republic." The old passes, now back in effect, authorize travel in "the Soviet zone of Germany."

The Western Allies contended use of the passes would imply recognition of the East German regime, which they contend is an illegal, unrepresentative government.

The Soviets' surprising about-face came at a meeting of the heads of the Western missions with the Soviet chief of staff in East Germany, Lt. Gen. G. V. Voronov.

The official East German news agency ADN said Voronov told the Western representatives: "guided by the desire not to worsen relations among the great powers, especially in view of the forthcoming summit conference, the Soviet government has authorized the supreme commander to make no changes until further notice in the passes issued previously."

The missions, created in 1947 for liaison among the four occupation powers, are considered very valuable by both the West and the Soviets as observers of what the other side is doing.

Since the new passes were issued Jan. 29, the Western missions in Potsdam—totaling about 50 men—had stopped all their travel to and from West Berlin except for supply trips and to get medical treatment.

In retaliation, the United States and Britain last week sharply curtailed the movements of the Soviet missions in West Germany.

Armed Forces Shackle Cops

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — The Argentine armed forces today took control of the police in Argentina's 22 provinces as part of the government's campaign against terrorist followers of ex-dictator Juan D. Peron.

Interior Minister Alfredo Vitolo issued the decree extending military control Monday night after a conference with President Arturo Frondizi.

Frondizi put into effect a "Plan Coninetes" — increasing military control almost to the point of martial law — after a series of explosions blamed on followers of Peron. The Frondizi government has been operating under a state of siege, or modified martial law, for about 18 months.

The word "coninetes" is derived from the Spanish "concoccion interna," or domestic commotion. One of the chief provisions of the plan is the death penalty for anyone found disrupting peace by sabotage or bombing. Persons accused of this will be tried by military courts.

Vitolo said the new anti-terrorist measures would have no effect on the congressional elections March 27. Candidates of the Peronist party have been banned from the elections.

Koreans Vote For Chiefs

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Ten million Koreans voted for president and vice president today in an election marred by tension, violence and charges by Democrats of widespread fraud.

The 84-year-old incumbent, Syngman Rhee, a Libera, opposed only by a dead man, needed the votes of one-third—3,732,164—of the 11,196,490 registered electors to clinch his fourth term as South Korea's only president. He was expected to hit this mark early Wednesday in the laborious manual count which began tonight.

Rhee's Democratic party opponent, Chough Pyong-ok, died Feb. 15 in Washington, D.C., after a stomach operation. It was too late to change the slate, so his name remained on the ballot. The Democrats asked the electorate to withhold a one-third vote from Rhee and force the old leader into a new election against a live opponent.

TULELAKE — A busy Tullake Grange session March 10 included reports of committees, a talk by Siskiyou County Supervisor E. A. R. Ager on issues that will affect the northern part of Siskiyou County, plans for future activities and a short program.

Ager discussed proposed reapportionment legislation for the nine Northern California counties and a proposed bond issue to buy on the ballot next fall, both judged to be detrimental to this area by local residents.

Grange women served more than 300 visitors to the annual John Deere Day meeting at the Don Porter Machinery Company, served lunch at the Herman Street farm sale and will serve March 24 for the district PTA meeting to be held in Tullake.

Pomona Grange will meet at Hornbrook March 19. Tullake grangers will go to Gazelle March 24 when a new grange hall will be dedicated and local grangers will have a goodwill potluck party at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, March 31, for grange members and friends. Members voted to hold only business meetings on the fourth Thursday of each month during the summer.

Roll call was answered with the naming of a hobby or where the speaker would live should he leave Tullake. Mrs. H. T. Street and Mrs. A. E. Ryckman presented a skit, "It Was a Terrible Night."

It was reported that Mrs. E. C. Schweitzer had major surgery recently in St. Vincent's Hospital, Portland. She is recuperating at the home of a sister, Mrs. J. R. Morrison, 12512 S.E. Boss Lane, Milwaukie.

Three Mail Thieves Hunted By Chicago Police, FBI

CHICAGO (AP)—The FBI and police hunted today for three mail thieves who shot and killed two post office investigators in their car minutes after they trapped the robbers.

A half-dozen shots were fired into the bodies of the two inspectors by the three robbers, all Negroes, who fled after the shooting late Monday night on the southwest edge of the Loop.

The inspectors had seized the trio and several sacks of mail from their car and were about to drive them to a police station when the shooting broke out.

The inspectors apparently overlooked guns the robbers had concealed and they had no chance to return the fire. Both men were armed with .38 caliber service revolvers but neither gun was lifted.

The victims were Ben Spizziri, 42, father of five young children, and John McAuliffe Jr., 36, father of two. McAuliffe, who was in the driver's seat, was shot in the right chest and shoulder. Spizziri was killed by shots in the right jaw and head. Police recovered one .32 caliber bullet from Spizziri's body.

Police said Winton Murray, 26, IKE'S PEAK — MOUNTAIN PALM DESERT, Calif. (UPI)—An 875-foot mountain here has been named Ike's Peak in honor of President Eisenhower.

a truck driver whose car was halted at a traffic signal at the Roosevelt Road-Clark St. intersection, saw the slayings and described the scene. His wife, Emma, 22, was with him.

He said the inspectors stopped three Negroes in a car and drove with them to a second car parked nearby. One of the two inspectors removed several bags of mail from the trunk of the robbers' car.

Seconds after he stepped into the car with the robbers and the second inspector, a half-dozen shots rang out. Three men jumped from the car. Two got into the other car and their companion jumped in a bus.

Murray, a Negro, said he called police. They found both inspectors slumped over in the front seat of their car.

Jerome Williamson, chief postal inspector in Chicago, said both inspectors were former transfer clerks in the Postal Transport Service who had been assigned to work with postal inspectors four or five years ago. They were detailed to watch mail handling points where mail sacks were transferred from trains to trucks.
