

Caribou Foes Being Fought

OTTAWA (AP) — A team of trappers and hunters is working with white-collar scientists in Canada's North West Territories to save diminishing herds of the Barrens caribou.

An eight-man team headed by professional hunter Wilf McNeill, 43, sets trap lines and spreads caches of poisoned meat in a campaign against wolves and wolverines, killer enemies of the caribou.

Scientists are fighting another threat—low birthrate. The scientists are examining range lands, diet and caribou habits in hopes of solving the problem.

The programs are beginning to show results but Joe Bryant, superintendent of game for the Mackenzie district, says: "Another 10 years with the call drop the same as the last 10 and we are very likely to see the extinction of a species."

The Barrens caribou, distinguished by its hairy mane, long legs and broad, flat hooves, weighs between 200 and 700 pounds. It roams the vast treeless area bounded by Hudson Bay on the east, Great Slave and Great Bear lakes on the west, the northern border of the prairie provinces and the Arctic Ocean. Both male and female have antlers.

Demo Chief May Keep Job Despite Political Boo-Boo

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler seemed likely today to survive a political boo-boo that might have cost a less-agile performer his job.

Flynn 'Protegee' Won't Appear

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Beverly Aadland, the late Errol Flynn's 17-year-old protegee, won't make a scheduled personal appearance in Long Beach.

She was to have appeared at a theater to plug a movie produced by Flynn, "Cuban Rebel Girls," in which she had an important part. But the theater canceled Miss Aadland's appearance "in the interest of her safety" after getting many protests. PTA and church groups said her appearance would set a bad example for other teen-age girls.

Miss Aadland was with Flynn when he died of a heart attack in Vancouver, B.C., last year.

West Virginia has 21 state parks and forest reserves.

He was identified by the New York Post, which presumably had no representative there, as the highly placed Democrat who told a group of reporters at the National Press Club Monday that recent developments indicate a Kennedy victory.

National chairmen are traditionally supposed to be neutral in pre-convention contests. Under political protocol they are not permitted to side publicly with one candidate against another or even suggest that any particular individual is in the lead.

Some other chairman might have faced serious demands for his ouster from the temporarily united forces of Kennedy's rivals for the nomination. But only Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey came forward to say that Butler had "outlived his usefulness" by taking sides in the presidential contest.

Humphrey, an active candidate for the nomination, said he was sorry that Butler "injected himself into this situation," adding: "He has helped neither himself nor our great party."

The fact remained, however, that only the National Committee

Unemployment Shows Decline

SALEM (AP) — The state Department of Employment said that 27,400 persons asked for unemployment benefits last week. That was 200 fewer than the week before.

The figure a year ago was 29,377, and was 43,515 two years ago.

Sputnik III Demise Seen

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — The Soviet satellite Sputnik III is expected to spiral into the atmosphere and burn up in a couple of weeks, says the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory.

The co-s-shaped satellite, about 12 feet long and weighing 1 1/2 tons, was fired into orbit May 15, 1958. Its final stage rocket, itself in orbit for a time, plunged to destruction more than a year ago. Sputnik III will be visible to early risers in many parts of the United States later this week, scientists said.

Huge Crowd Attends Rites

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP) — An overflow crowd attended joint funeral services Tuesday for two young cousins shot to death last Friday while babysitting.

About 300 relatives and friends attended the services for Penny Qualls, 13, and Linda Qualls, 12. Henry Clay Warth, 29, has been charged with slaying the girls as they sat with his children. His attorneys said they will ask a mental examination for him.

Police said Warth, an expert marksman, signed a statement saying he shot the girls after a round of drinking. He gave no reason except he had "an urge" to kill.
