Yreka DAR Hears Historical Talk

YREKA—Mrs. Jesse DeAvilla of Klamath River was the featured speaker at the recent luncheon of the Siskiyou Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. DeAvilla's topic was based on "Famous Historical Trailways," and opened her verbal tour with Daniel Boone's trip through Cumberland Gap in 1775. She then described the trek made by Lewis and Clark through the Northwest and also outlined a brief sketch of the part played by Jim Bridger as discoverer of South Pass and Great Salt Lake.

In her talk, Mrs. DeAvilla also covered the Pony Express, the Santa Fe Trail, and the Arrowhead Trail which led from Utah to Southern California.

Hostesses for the dessert luncheon included Mrs. DeAvilla, Mrs. James M. Allen Sr., Mrs. Laura Buckner, and Mrs. Marshall Fisher.

Atlanta Adams, regent for the Siskiyou Chapter, opened the business session, with Mrs. William Ensole, chaplain, following with prayer.

Mrs. William Newton read the president general's message, and Mrs. Robert DeNure reported on genealogy. Mrs. Albert Parrott reported on the museum display of the DAR, which maintains a case of articles there.

According to a report by Mrs. William Newton, eight girls from eight different high schools in Siskiyou County will be honored at the April meeting as winners of good citizens' pins. Mrs. Lawrence Lachens, chairman for national defense, reported on the Connel-
