AAUW College Preview To Honor Junior Girls

The Klamath Falls Branch of the American Association of University Women is hostessing a dessert luncheon for the junior girls of Klamath County Saturday, March 26, at 1 p.m. at the Willard Hotel. Mrs. A. H. Patterson Jr., local president, announces that this is in conjunction with the state and federal policy of the American Association of University Women in interesting girls before their senior year to further their college education.

A well rounded program has been planned by the committee in charge: Mrs. Julian Eccles, Mrs. P. D. Mead, Mrs. A. Ivan Thompson, Mrs. R. Frank Tucker, and Mrs. C. Buz Larkin, chairman. Mrs. Walter Badorek will be presented in a group of musical selections; short talks about Oregon State College will be given by Shirley Mock and Jane Henzel; talks on Southern Oregon College and Stephens College by Gail Nerseth; and talks on the University of Oregon by Janie Larkin. A question and answer period follows, so that the junior girls may ask any questions that might arise in their minds. Thirteen colleges and universities of the Northwest have sent catalogs and brochures to be placed on tables for the junior girls' use.

Climaxing the program will be a style show presented by the Bon Bazaar and the Fashion Villa with Mrs. Paul Angstead in charge. Six college girls will model campus clothes, as well as three AAUW women modeling clothes geared for spring wear. All AAUW members are urged to attend this regular meeting and act as hostesses to the junior girls of Klamath County.

MRS. DAVID MONTGOMERY, the former Emilee Ann Carter, was graduated from Mt. Zion Hospital School of Nursing in San Francisco February 28. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Carter, 421 Alameda Street. Mrs. Montgomery is a graduate of Klamath Union High School, class of '56, and received one of the Soroptimist Club scholarships that year. She will be on the staff of Good Samaritan Hospital in Corvallis where her husband will attend Oregon State College.

DENNIS McGEE is 4 years old and 16 little playmates helped him celebrate with party favors and treats. Dennis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGee, Bly, and his maternal grandmother is Mrs. Jennie Schneider of Downey, California. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Students Present BPW Program

YREKA—Members of the Yreka Business and Professional Women's Club learned how the high school student of today thinks and feels on the subject of national security. Four Yreka High School seniors discussed the various phases of the topic under the supervision of their English teacher, Mrs. Olive Young.

Mrs. Young and her four students were present at the dinner meeting of the Yreka BPWC held in the Melody room of the Yreka Inn on Tuesday evening, February 23 with the president, Mrs. Betty Dow, presiding.

Program chairman for the evening was Mrs. Thora Sellstrom, national security chairman of the club. Mrs. Sellstrom introduced Mrs. Young, who in turn introduced Tom Nelson, student body president; Annette Huntsman, Susan Friedman and Janet Elsea.

Prior to the program club members welcomed Mrs. Marguerite Hayden to the club as a new member.

Also present as a guest of Mrs. Dow was Mrs. Joyce Sanderson, soon to join the club as a member. Mrs. Sanderson and Charlene Cordes, 14-year-old daughter of Mrs. Rachel Cordes, past president of the club, played a variety of musical selections. Charlene with her violin and Mrs. Sanderson accompanying her at the piano. Earlier in the evening, Mrs. Sanderson also accompanied the group.

The Yreka BPWC will hold its next business meeting on Tuesday evening, March 8, 8 p.m. at the Yreka Inn.
