

PINEAPPLE is good in so many different dishes. Here, refreshing pineapple adds flavor-interest to hot muffins served with glasses of chilled milk for wholesome eating at snack-time. If self-rising flour is used, omit baking powder and salt from the recipe. Or, if you are strictly a muffin-mix fan, add the pineapple to the mix with the milk, adjusting amount of liquid to make the batter the right consistency.

PINEAPPLE MUFFINS

Hot breads add an extra-special touch to any meal—and for breakfast you can't beat fresh-from-the-oven muffins. You'll find Pineapple Muffins a special taste-treat in the morning with juice, ready-to-eat cereal and a beverage. Serve Pineapple Muffins at noon with soup and a refreshing seafood salad. Hot muffins may complement the evening meal, too. Everyone will love hot muffins teamed with glasses of milk at snack-time!

It's no wonder muffins are popular—they're so easy to make!

JET PUPS

All of the proceeds from Saturday's Jet Pup sale at the uptown Market Basket, Ninth and Pine streets, will go to the City Park and Recreation Department, according to Norm Duffy and Dick Hicks, co-owners of the two Market Baskets.

Jet Pups with coffee or a Royal Cola beverage will be available from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. on Saturday. The event is sponsored by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce.

It will be held at Market Basket No. 1 only.

"The contributions will go to a good cause—that of insuring better recreation for local youngsters," Duffy explained.

SHRIMP ROUNDELAYS

Shred 1/2 pound sharp cheddar cheese and combine with 1/4 pound soft butter. Add 5 tablespoons grated onion, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire, 1/4 cup lemon juice, 1/2 teaspoon paprika. Stir in 2 cups finely chopped or ground cooked or canned shrimp. Spread on crackers, toast rounds or split finger rolls. On each canape place a tiny whole cooked shrimp (if desired). Broil 3 inches from heat until cheese is brown and bubbling.

THIS WILL WAKE THEM UP

Wake up sleepy appetites at breakfast time with a broiled canned cling peach and French toast. Add butter and maple syrup for the toast, coffee for the grown-ups, and milk for youngsters, and the morning will be off to a good start. To get nice brown edges on broiled peaches, sprinkle lightly with brown sugar.

DESERT SUN

Desert Sun—the very name conjures up a blazing sun; yellow sands, brilliant skies!

The artistry of Germaine Monteil has captured all three in this magnificent new lipstick color. Deep ochre yellow from the sands, warmed with hot, hot red, melded with a touch of blue gives a strikingly beautiful shade as changeable, as lovely as the lights and shadows that play over the desert scene from dawn to dusk.

Desert Sun is a chameleon color. It seems deep-toned in the stock, turns a glowing pastel on the mouth. With beige, sand and yellow it takes on a russet tone. Apricot and willow-green bring out its rosy aura. Desert Sun is a beautiful complement to summer pastels. It is dramatic and arresting with white and a sun-tanned skin. And definitely—without exception—Desert Sun is deliciously becoming to blondes and brunettes alike, from a wide-eyed sixteen to a sophisticated sixty.

The famous Super-Royal formula, rich in royal jelly, Vitamin A (for moisture) and "Healset" (to protect lip texture) caresses the mouth with a wonderfully moist "feel," stays definitely and beautifully in place for hours.
