Girl Scout Head Speaks To Club
CHEMULT—The Chemult Community Club held its March meeting at the Do-Drop-In Cafe in Beaver Marsh with Irene Fletcher and her daughter, Delphine, as hostesses, on the evening of March 2.
Mrs. Cap Jessup, president, conducted a business meeting and introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Harriett Brotherhood of Klamath Falls, who is the council director of the Girl Scouts for the Klamath Area. She took time to explain the work of the Girl Scouts, and the Brownies, so that all would thoroughly become acquainted with the need for scouting in any girl's life and would want to make the effort to have the work carried on in any community no matter how small or how few girls there might be.
The women of the community club agreed to try to raise money by having the food concession at the Chemult Rod and Trap Club grounds each Sunday that the men shoot and a committee was appointed.

Reminders Given To Club Members

Last minute reminders of the several important dates of spring functions are given to members of the Klamath Yacht Club and Reames Country Club.

All past commodores and their ladies are invited as special guests at the Decennial Dance March 26 at the Yacht Club. Guest of honor will be Louis Kandra. The time is 8:30 p.m. In use will be the 10th anniversary gift from the Anchor Club, a stereophonic hi-fi system. Anchor Club members have also arranged an elaborate smorgasbord to be served around midnight.

Commodore Larry Whistal reminds members all to be on deck for the cleanup days April 2-3 and 9-10. These days are family days and picnics are in order or lunch will be available at the club.

Come rain or shine, the women of Reames will open the golfing season with a kickoff breakfast beginning at 9:45 a.m. on Friday, March 25. Mildred Merryman and Pauline Pernel, tournament chairmen, promise something unusual this year for the breakfast. Bridge players are especially invited to enjoy the get-together before the afternoon play. No special golf play is scheduled until April 8.

Another date for Reames women to note is April 1, the annual spring luncheon, in charge of Mrs. Charles Alward. Luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. following a social hour. A spring style show will be given by Whistal's.

TIN CANS and other scraps of tin become butterflies, flowers and other decorations in the expert hands of Mrs. Marie Kinstry of Mount Shasta. Ordinary barber shears are used by Mrs. Kinstry to fashion curls and lacy forms which turn into original decorations. Mrs. Kinstry does not sell any of her pieces, but is generous in loaning them for display at many Mount Shasta clubs. —Photo by J. O. McKinney
