Mary Jo Hendrickson Weds David A. Berg

In a lovely spring wedding March 12, Mary Jo Hendrickson and David A. Berg exchanged their vows at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in the presence of 200 guests. Msgr. Timothy P. Casey performed the ceremony at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hendrickson of Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. James Berg of this city are parents of the bridegroom.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the blonde bride was lovely in a white gown of imported antique Swiss lace. A cascade of ruffles extended from the waist over the full white slipper satin skirt to the hemline and formed a chapel train. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped sash neckline outlined in iridescent sequins and long pointed sleeves. The fingertip veil of white silk nylon tulle was held by a clip on a shell of lace and sequins. She carried a white Bible with streamers of lily of the valley and hyacinth. For tradition she wore a blue garter, borrowed hose and lucky penny in her slipper and carried a handkerchief belonging to her paternal grandmother.

Penny VanderWeest of Ashland was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jean Smith of Ashland and Mary McCullough and Kathleen Moore, both of Merrill. The attendants were identically gowned in ballerina length white nylon organza dresses with flared hemlines done in yellow, green and pink with crushed tulle mid-riffs of the same color. Little velvet bows and tulle fashioned matching headpieces and each carried parasol arrangements of hyacinths.

Flower girls Vickie Shuck and Margaret May Ahern wore dainty white nylon full skirted dresses with white gloves and pink headpieces.

Sisue Moore assisted when the ushers, Ron Lawrence, Richard Buck and Alan Ezell, unrolled the white carpet along the aisle prior to the entrance of the wedding party.

The rings were carried by Bob Trofman.

Donald Berg of Klamath Falls was best man for his brother.

Traditional wedding music was played at the organ by Mrs. D. C. Heiley.

For the occasion Mrs. Hendrickson chose a costume of imported Chantilly rose beige lace over tulle with white accessories. Mrs. Berg wore a bone beige imported Italian silk suit. Her accessories were rose tones and beige. Both mothers had corsages of pink roses.

A reception at Reames Country Club followed the wedding. The club was attractively decorated in a color scheme of white, pink and yellow by Mrs. George Elliott, assisted by Mrs. Louis Stewart. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Robert Dragon and Mrs. Louis Stewart and other cakes by Mrs. Leo Audia and Mrs. Elton Bentley. Presiding at the coffee service was Mrs. Carl Coulson and in the punch bowl, Mrs. Ivan Kandra and Mrs. Raymond Hendrickson. Mrs. Hazen Olsen, Mrs. Eddie Campbell and Kathy Olson attended the guest book.

During the reception a musical program was announced by Louis Stewart. Piano selections were played by Pedro Colley, a student at Southern Oregon College, and Donna McFarland, also of SOC. Song "Sweet Mystery of Life" and "Ave Maria." James Chance of Merrill sang "Panis Angelicus" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Lawrence Geraghty of Merrill was the accompanist.

The new Mrs. Berg, a graduate of Merrill High School, attended Oregon State College for two years.

The most fabulous Naturalizer of them all!

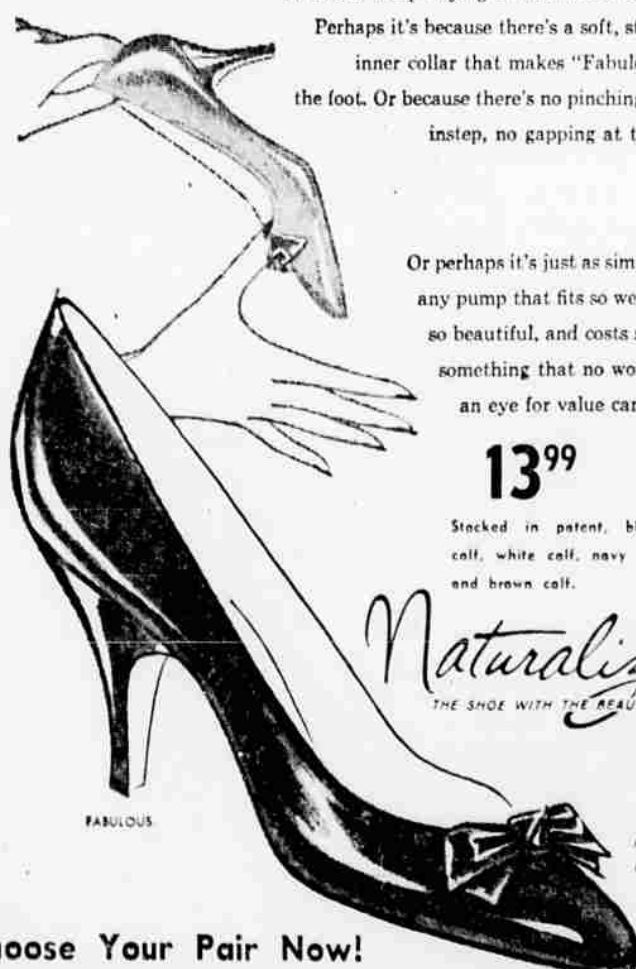

Why do women who have discovered
"Fabulous" keep buying it season after season?
Perhaps it's because there's a soft, stretchable inner collar that makes "Fabulous" caress the foot. Or because there's no pinching at the instep, no gapping at the sides.

Or perhaps it's just as simple as this:
any pump that fits so well, looks so beautiful, and costs so little is something that no woman with an eye for value can resist.
