Carmichael Church Scene Of Nixon-Schulz Nuptials

YREKA—Before an altar banked with tall standards of white chrysanthemums, carnations and ferns, and lighted tapers in floor candelabra, Sandra Lee Schulz and Gordon L. Nixon were united in marriage on Saturday afternoon, February 20, in the Carmichael Community Presbyterian Church.

The impressive 2 o'clock double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Byron McMillen in the presence of 250 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Schulz of Sacramento, and the bridegroom, who is an ensign in the naval reserve, now on active duty, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Nixon of Yreka.

Escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was lovely in a traditional gown of ivory silk peau de soie and Alencon lace. The portrait neckline and three-quarter length sleeves of the fitted bodice were appliqued with a trim of scalloped Alencon lace and seed pearls. A band of the same lace trimmed the front of the full skirt cascading into a full sweep train. A coronet of seed pearls secured the fingertip silk illusion veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and hyacinths.

Matron of honor was Mrs. John A. Bode of San Francisco, a Chi Omega sorority sister of the bride at the University of California. Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Lloyd Seison of Elk Grove, Roberta Rahlis of Willows and Margaret Davis of San Jose.

The four attendants were identically gowned in champagne colored silk, styled with full-gored, ballerina length skirts gathered onto fitted bodices, which featured a portrait neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Their costumes were completed with matching hats and shoes, and they carried bouquets of blue iris, lavender hyacinths and daffodils.

Best man for his fraternity brother was Michael Newton of Yreka. Both were members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity at the University of California. Seating the guests were Andy Davis of Yreka, Clifford Schulz, brother of the bride, and Gus Giamullas, both of Sacramento.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schulz donned a blue silk print, complemented with blue accessories, and she carried an evening bag which was centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Nixon, mother of the bride, chose a beige brocade sheath, worn with beige and coral accessories, completing her costume with a corsage of brown and yellow orchids.

After the church ceremony, a reception was held at the Officers' Club of McClellan Air Force Base, where Michael Newton proposed the first toast.

Following the initial slice cut by the newlyweds from a beautifully decorated, three tiered wedding cake, they drank a toast from a silver loving cup. Guests were registered by Cherie Bernardo of Sacramento.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Nixon honeymooned in San Francisco and Las Vegas, and are now residing in the East Bay area. For her honeymoon, the bride chose a dressmaker suit of black wool, with cocoa print scarf trim and complementary accessories.

A graduate of El Camino High School in Sacramento, she is now a senior at the University of California. Prior to her marriage she was honored with a kitchen shower in Berkeley given by bridesmaids, Roberta Rahlis and Margaret Davis; a personal shower in Sacramento by Mrs. Seison, and a dinner given in San Francisco by matron of honor, Mrs. Bode.

The bridegroom, who attended Yreka High School and Sacramento State College, was graduated from the University of California in 1958. He was also honored

Judith Barnett Is Bride In Dorris Church Service

DORRIS — Judith Nan Barnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Barnett of Dorris, became the bride of Darrell Corron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Corron of Hamilton City, on February 20 in the First Baptist Church. Lighted yellow tapers stood on either side of altar arrangements of white spider chrysanthemums and yellow forsythia for the two o'clock ceremony read by the Rev. Walter Russell.

Prior to the service Sandra Skoog, wearing a frock of blue polished cotton, and Steven Barnett, niece and brother of the bride, lighted the candles.

Mrs. Byard Kelly played the wedding music and sang "O Promise Me."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bone white brocade sheath made with scoop neckline, cap sleeves and trimmed at the waistline with matching satin bands. With it, she wore matching accessories, a pink feather hat and corsage of butterfly orchids.

A blue brocade sheath, beige flowered velvet hat and bone accessories were worn by the matron of honor, Mrs. Arnold Skoog, sister of the bride. Her corsage was of white and bronze carnations.

Arnold Skoog was best man and Byard Kelly usher.

Following the wedding a buffet luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Barnett greeted her daughter's guests in a dress of royal blue crepe with white accessories and a corsage of prior to the marriage with a bachelor dinner in Sacramento by Michael Newton and Andy Davis, and the following evening, his parents entertained at a rehearsal dinner at Coral Reef in Sacramento.

Those attending the wedding and reception from Yreka, and others known in the Yreka area were Mrs. Ruth Marsh, Mrs. Hilda Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bigelow, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Dickson and son, John; Deanna Dickson, Julie Dickson, Mrs. Adeline Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sidner, Mrs. A. yellow and white carnations at her shoulder. A four tiered cake, decorated with pale green leaves and topped with miniature bridal couple, was served. Assisting were Mrs. Ralph Barnett, Mrs. Bill Barnett and Mrs. M. A. Hogan.

For traveling Mrs. Corron chose a powder blue suit with pink hat and bone accessories. She is a graduate of Butte Valley High School and has attended Chico State College one year. Her husband, a Hamilton City High School graduate, attended the same college before joining the Navy. He recently returned from a year in Japan and is awaiting reassignment. The newlyweds will reside in Chico.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barnett and Bill Jr., Mrs. W. F. Sellars and Gordon and Wilbur Joe, Joyce Prellari, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barnett and Mark, all of Klamath Falls.

Bridal Shower

The home of Mr. Ross Avent on Green Springs Drive was the setting for a bridal shower March 12 in honor of her daughter, Margie, who will become the bride of James Patrick Smith of Wocus in April. Hostesses were her two sisters, Mrs. Carol Flowers and Mrs. Ruby Harris of Oakridge.

Following luncheon the guest of honor opened her many gifts. The afternoon was spent playing appropriate games.

Guests included Mrs. Faye Baker, Mrs. Augustine Crowell, Mrs. Lola Ray, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mrs. K. G. West, Mrs. Loyd Andrews, Mrs. June Hoover, Mrs. Delia Tomlin, Mrs. Loyd Childs, Mrs. Louis Mandrouse, Mrs. Ida Plunkett, Mrs. Carol Glowers, Linda Flowers, Emma Avent, Mrs. Ruby Harris and Diana Harris of Oakridge, Mrs. Ray Smith of Wocus and Mrs. R. Emmett of Childs.

MAY 14 is the date set for the wedding of Karen LaVonne Samplauski to Larry R. Comer. Rites will be read in Klamath Lutheran Church. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cogburn, 1320 Pleasant Avenue. Her future husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alba Comer, 1764 Eldorado.

SNOWY WHITE GLOVES

If you like to wear white gloves in the winter, keep them sparkling clean. Whether they are leather or cotton, they should be snowy.

FLOOR SAVERS

You won't get permanent indentations in your rubber and solid vinyl flooring if you equip furniture that is frequently moved with casters with soft rubber treads. Heavier furniture should rest on plastic cups.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Virginia Hatchett to Jerry Longhofer has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Hatchett of Poe Valley. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Longhofer of Klamath Falls. The wedding will take place in early June.
