

MR. AND MRS. CORNELL ULLMAN

Ullman - Swickard Vows Read In Yreka Home Rite

YREKA—Patricia Joyce Swickard and Cornell Lee Ullman exchanged their nuptial vows on Sunday, February 14, at the home of the bride's parents before an improvised altar, banded with arrangements of red carnations and white chrysanthemums, and lighted candelabra. Approximately 70 guests were present at the 6 o'clock double ring ceremony read by Douglas J. Whitake of Hill, branch president of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints in Yreka.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Swickard of Yreka, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius G. Ullman of Ventura, California.

Ivan Swickard gave his daughter in marriage. For her wedding the bride chose a floor length gown of white lace over satin, fashioned with a bouffant skirt, which fell into a brief train. The snug fitted bodice featured a scoop neckline, outlined with inset pearls, and long sleeves. A crown of pearls held her fingertip veil, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses tied with white satin ribbon. Her jewelry consisted of a single strand pearl necklace, a gift from the bridegroom.

Maid of honor was Carol Stone of Santa Cruz, and serving as bridesmaid was Laura Ann Swickard, a sister of the bride.

Identical gowns of red tulle were worn by both attendants, which were fashioned with full skirts, short sleeves and scoop necklines. They carried white carnations and wore red headbands. Serving as best man was Gary Jewett of Williams, and guests were escorted by Maury Ullman of Ventura, the bridegroom's brother.

Mrs. Maurice Dittner sang "Because," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Leo Purinton, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Immediately following the ceremony, the reception was held at the Swickard home. Focal point of the bride's table was a beautifully decorated wedding cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Lori Miles of Chico, a niece of the bride's father. Following the initial slice cut by the newlyweds, the cake was served by Lorna Ullman, sister of the bridegroom, and Joan Gordon, aunt of the bride. Also served was a heart-shaped cake iced in white and decorated with a spray of red rosebuds in one corner, which was baked and decorated by the bride's parents. Guests were registered by Nancy Whitman.

Mrs. Swickard chose for her daughter's wedding a silk sheath frock in shades of blue. A gray green suit with a picture collar was worn by Mrs. Ullman, the bridegroom's mother. Both mothers completed their ensembles with white rosebud corsages.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Ullman changed to a beige sheath and coat, complemented with a corsage of white roses. The newlyweds traveled to Carmel for their honeymoon.

Mrs. Ullman is a graduate of Yreka High School, where she was a life member of the Caliform Scholastic Federation, and was winner of the Bank of America award in liberal arts. She also attended the University of California at Davis this year.

Her husband attended Davis High School and was graduated in January from the University of California at Davis with a bachelor of science degree in mathematics. He has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army, and will report in April to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, with his bride accompanying him there.

Bride Elect Feted At Shower

A bridal shower was given March 16 in honor of Judy Wheeler who became the bride of Gerald Geiger on March 26.

The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Martin Young, 2343 Wantland Avenue. Hostesses were Ruby Young, Olle Mae Pounds and Patsy Carr.

The gift-table was centered with a bride doll belonging to the honor guest. The doll has been used in many showers in preceding years.

Guests included Mrs. George Robertson, Mrs. Clyde Whitmore, Mrs. Cecil Finney, Mrs. Joe Chastain, Mrs. James Jones, Mrs. Marvin Horton, Mrs. Earl Vinson, Mrs. Sam Ramsey, Mrs. Lee Wheeler and Connie, Mrs. Lundy Clinton, Mrs. Lynn Wheeler, Mrs. Sone Wheeler, Mrs. Chester Johnston, Mrs. Frank James, Debbie Carr and Mrs. George Vinson.

Unable to be present were Mrs. George Pounds, Mrs. Phillip Hogan, Mrs. H. B. Pendergrass and Barbara Vinson.

DAR Conference Held In Eugene

Oregon State Society, DAR, held its 46th annual conference in Eugene on March 9, 10 and 11. Attending from Klamath Falls were Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, outgoing regent, and Mrs. J. M. Ager, newly elected regent of Eulalona Chapter. Also present at the conference was Mrs. George D. Paris, Eulalona member, presently living in Portland. Mrs. Paris, national vice chairman, American Indians, presided at the American Indian luncheon on Thursday. The interesting menu featured buffalo meat and the tables carried out the Indian theme.

Mrs. J. Edward Poltras, formerly of Clatskanie but now residing in Portland, entertained with several beautiful solos, including an arrangement of "The Lord's Prayer" which she had sung daily at the Indian encampment at Pendleton during the roundup. Emanuel B. Hudson of the Chemawa Indian school presented two Navajo students who performed several colorful Indian dances.

"No One Walks Alone" was the inspirational address of Martin H. B. Holm, assistant area director, Community Service, United States Indian Bureau.

At Friday's luncheon Mrs. Herbert W. White Jr., presented the Good Citizen Award to the state winner, Myrna Rantala of Clatskanie High School. Mrs. Golda

Parker Wickham, director of women's affairs, University of Oregon, was the honored speaker.

Earlier in the day Mrs. John Y. Richardson, chairman, had given a glowing account of the DAR sponsored restoration in Oregon and announced that the Country Fair at Champsoog would be held this year on August 13 and 14. The exhibits will center around the newly restored Newell House. Delegates at the conference elected the following state officers:

Mrs. Owen R. Rhoads, regent; Mrs. Craig Coyner, vice regent; Mrs. Robert McCombie, chaplain; Mrs. George Paris, recording secretary; Mrs. Kenneth Batchelder, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Lesch, treasurer; Mrs. George Goodrich, registrar; Mrs. Alfred Vick, historian; Mrs. Lester Horton, librarian; Mrs. William Prairie, custodian; and Mrs. Karl Engelmann, curator. Mrs. Claude G. Stotts was elected a candidate for vice president general, 1960.
