

WHAT PERFUME DOES NEW YORK (UPI) — "Through perfume, memories of beauty are awakened, and hearts and spirits are lifted."

That's what a writer had to say about perfume when asked by the Fragrance Foundation. An artist said perfume makes a woman more alive and complete than the most beautiful painting in the world.

BAIT

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Prop men used 35 pounds of dead fish to attract bit players while filming "Anatomy of a Murder" on location along Lake Superior. They scattered the fish along the shoreline and shot the action when flocks of seagulls arrived for dinner.

CORNELL GETS TIBETAN ART

ITHACA, N.Y. (UPI)—A robe once worn by a 16th century Tibetan priest and a collection of religious scrolls have been presented to Cornell University.

The gifts, from A. Lester Marks, of Honolulu, a 1915 Cornell graduate, are valued at $8,000 and considered among the finest examples of Tibetan religious art.
