Council Picks Rev. McKinnie

MALIN—The Rev. Marshall McKinnie, pastor of the Klamath Falls Congregational Church, will head the 1960 corps of new officers who will serve the Klamath Basin Council of Churches as president. He was named at the annual meeting of the council in Malin, March 24.

Other officers elected include Raymond Hall, member of the First Presbyterian Church, Klamath Falls, first vice president; Chaplain Jefferson C. Davis, Kingsley Air Force Base, second vice president, and Jack Hopkins, member of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Klamath Falls, treasurer. The Rev. Wilbur Brumbaugh, pastor of the Church of the Brethren, will continue for the present as secretary.

Bill Kurtz, principal of the Merrill Grade School, will head the important Migrant Commission this year. Kurtz has been associated with the migrant program in the Basin and two years ago received an outstanding citizenship award from the Oregon Journal for his work with the migrants.

Present for the meeting was a team of 14 college students from the Wesley Foundation Methodist Church, Eugene, who volunteered their time to come to Malin to help finish the Migrant Center for migrant potato harvesters.

The frame building at the migrant camp operated each year by the Klamath Basin Potato Growers Association was started two years ago by a similar party of young people from the Presbyterian Church of Stockton.

A report from the building committee indicated that the center will be finished except for painting and ready for use by the Oregon Migrant Ministry in the fall when the potato harvest gets under way.

Pastor of the Malin Presbyterian Church is the Rev. Ethen Whitman.

Vienna Visit

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — The Austrian government announced today that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will visit Vienna, probably in September. Austrian Chancellor Julius Raab first invited him in 1958, when Raab headed an Austrian government delegation to Moscow.

If you add nuts to a chiffon cake you'll have to make sure that they are very finely chopped so they will stay evenly distributed.

Venezuela Tries To Ease Tension

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—President Romulo Betancourt is reliably reported trying to ease growing tension between the United States and Cuba.

He is holding talks with Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa, who is here on a semi-official visit.

Informed sources said the Venezuelan president had succeeded in getting Cuba to postpone a worldwide conference of underdeveloped countries. Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro had been expected to use the conference for an attack on U.S. foreign economic policy.

U.S. Family Takes Tour On Windfall

NEW YORK (AP)—What would you do with a windfall of $20,000?

Vernon O. Johnson bought a 13-year-old bus, converted it into a mobile home for himself, his wife and their eight children—and set out to see the world.

Johnson, 39, a real estate man, and his family lived in Santa Barbara, Calif.

When a business deal produced an unexpected $20,000 profit, Johnson decided to pack up and start moving.

"We always believe in living up to the hilt," he said on his arrival Tuesday with his family after a leisurely, month-long, cross-country junket.

Today the Johnsons and their bus-home will leave for Italy aboard the liner Vulcania.

From Italy, they'll tour southern Europe. The summer months will be spent in Scandinavia.

The winter months will find them visiting Egypt, India and the Far East.

The Johnson children range in age from 2 to 17. Christie, the oldest, was just graduated from high school.

As for the others papa Johnson said, "We'll be doing some studying along the way, and if we stay any place long enough we'll put them in school. But we think they'll get a pretty good education as it is."

SGT. DALE ALLEN

Classes Held By Police

The final course of a series of six advanced police training courses for interested officers was conducted here this week.

Sgt. Dale E. Allen of the Eugene Police Department instructed students in the art of one-man car patrol.

He became a patrolman on the Eugene force in 1952 and was advanced to his present rank in 1955. He attended police basic training school and advanced schools annually through 1958.

The courses were sponsored in 15 Oregon cities this year by the state Association of City Police Officers, the state Sheriffs Association, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, state police, the League of Oregon Cities and the University of Oregon Bureau of Municipal Research and Service.

Area Speaker Wins Contest

For the third consecutive year a Modoc toastmaster has taken first place honors in the annual Toastmasters' Area Three speech contest.

Joseph W. Mercer won first place in the area contest at Medford March 26. He is associated with the West Coast Life Insurance Company, here, and has been a member of Klamath Falls Modoc Toastmasters for about six years. He will represent the area, including clubs at Yreka, Medford, Ashland, Grants Pass and Lakeview, in a Tri-Area contest here, April 16.

Toastmasters Clubs are non-sectarian and non-profit and seek to promote better thinking, listening and speaking. The local club meets at the Willard Hotel at 6:30 a.m. each Tuesday.
