

Evangelist Warns Americans

NEW YORK (UPI) — Evangelist Billy Graham warned today that unless the United States solves its racial problems through the Christian teaching of love the great question of "where is Africa going?" will be followed by the word "communism" — period.

The 40-year-old evangelist said his 11-week tour of Africa convinced him that Americans must by their own example find an answer to the racial problem or face the fact. Africa will be disillusioned with the United States and turn to the Communists.

"One of the greatest opportunities facing the American people is to help the people of that enormous, troubled continent of Africa as they grope their way out of the dark," Graham said.

"The task is a stupendous one and it calls for great patience and love on our part. We must show by example that freedom is as close to our hearts as it is to the hearts of Africans, who for centuries have been truly benighted."

Graham said in a UPI interview he was quite surprised to learn that racial troubles in the United States got scant attention in Africa at the present time — "probably because they have so much trouble of that kind of their own."

But he said time was running short and Americans should tackle the problem of race tension, close ranks, and show the peoples of newly-emerging Negro nations that such complex problems in human relations can be solved.

Graham returned from his crusade for Christ through nine countries in central Africa and Egypt, Jordan and Israel. Today he leaves for Washington, where he will report to President Eisenhower on his travels.

Ex-Actress Heads Drive

"He has it in both legs. Walks with the help of aluminum canes," said Shirley. "He's a deeply religious man and he's keeping his chin up."

WHERE'S SOLOMON?
KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — Judge J. Fred Bibb, pondering a complicated legal problem, muttered to himself Tuesday: "Call for Solomon."

Bailiff Carl Bell, hearing the judge, stepped out to the hall calling: "Solomon... Solomon... Solomon!"

"He doesn't answer, your honor," Bell reported.

"Thank you, Mr. Bell," the judge replied. "I guess we're several thousand years too late."

YOUNG BUSINESSMAN
NATIONAL CITY, Calif. (UPI) — Six-year-old Terry Allen Kinney decided to go into business when he noticed many cars lost their hub caps when driving over the washboard-like street in front of his home.

Terry started collecting the caps and put up a sign reading: "Hub caps—30 cents."

Tuesday the police closed down his business when they confiscated the caps and took them to headquarters for owners to claim.

Meditations for Lent

"I'm sending my son to college," said the owner of a Greek restaurant on the corner. "It's better to put my money into his head, where he can keep it, than into his pocket, where he might lose it."

While this sage observation has in it something of a monetary philosophy, it brings to remembrance the words of Jesus, who said in the Sermon on the Mount: "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." (Matthew 6:19-21)

A play that had a big run some years ago was entitled "You Can't Take It With You." It was based on the theme that money is perishable, and cannot be carried into life beyond the grave.

This, too, is in line with the teachings of our Lord. Whether it

THOUGHTS FOR MEDITATION

Why are we ever so blind to the many evidences of God's presence and help in our daily lives? We seek constantly for God's help, very much like the person who would not see the forest for the trees.

In First Samuel, 14, we find an account of Jonathan, the son of Saul, going with his armor bearer toward the camp of another nation which was at war with the Israelites.

It would seem only natural to us for a soldier of the camp of so vast an army to be brave against only these two. Yet, to Jonathan, the courage of an armed host against two men was not natural. It was a sign of God's presence!

We must ever be mindful that God has complete control over our lives. If He did not will that we be so blessed, it would not be so. How can we live—even for a day—among so many blessings and fail to see God's constant help?
