Kennedy Wins

2 The religious issue did not enter the picture in New Hampshire. Nor did his Harvard accent and Eastern manner seem strange there as they did to many voters in Wisconsin.

Kennedy and Humphrey both waged intensive campaigns. Both candidates criss-crossed the state, appearing many times in the same place, and brought in outside days, where they will battle it out in another primary. Kennedy's aides cited several areas as proof of his vote-pulling power among non-Catholics. In Sheboygan where Catholic voters constitute 22 per cent of the total, he had 55.5 per cent of the vote. He took 44.1 per cent in Madison which has 22 per cent Catholics, and 48.3 per cent of the vote in Lacrosse where the Catholic vote is 23 per cent.

On election eve both men appeared bone-tired, hoarse of voice, with dark circles under their eyes and shortened tempers.

But Tuesday night, when the tested election. In 1952, the late Sen. Robert A. Taft rolled up 315,000 GOP votes to 262,000 cast the vote. He took 44.1 per cent in Madison which has 22 per cent Catholics, and 48.3 per cent of the vote in Lacrosse where the Catholic vote is 23 per cent.

As for his draw with the farm-looker on the vote for Nixon, Kennedy pointed to his victory in the 7th District, an agricultural area. He was a big winner in three of Wisconsin's major industrial areas, Milwaukee, Racine and Kenosha. The AFL-CIO leadership in the state opposed him and urged union men to support Humphrey.

Both Humphrey and Kennedy took the occasion to comment happily on the vote for Nixon, as badly as he did here," Kennedy said. "I didn't think Nixon would do an unopposed candidate in the Wisconsin primary.

But in Washington, GOP National Chairman Thurston Morton doesn't pay to play tricks with politics," he said. "I said it was the greatest ever given
