State Sets New Lakes For Anglers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The state Game Commission is setting out to create new lakes for Oregon anglers. The first will be in the Umatilla National Forest in Eastern Oregon.

The commission has set aside $58,000 to be used for development of Bull Prairie Lake, south of Heppner. The Forest Service will cooperate in creation of this lake. It will provide trout fishing in an area where no lakes now exist.

The commission plans eventually to build more than a dozen other lakes.

Sites being eyed for them include:

Southwest Oregon — A 90-acre lake, possibly for warm water fish on Reeves Creek, a tributary of the Rogue; 60 to 100 acres for trout on the north fork of the Smith River, and 100 acres for trout in Windy Valley near the head of the Pistol River.

Central Oregon — Aspen Lake, northwest of Klamath Falls, to be developed with other agencies, including Weyerhaeuser Co.; a 45-acre lake on Willow Creek between Madras and Prineville, Rosebush Creek, a tributary of the John Day in Sherman County, a 30-acre warm water fishery.

Northeast Oregon — A 20-acre lake in Canyon Creek Meadows, south of Canyon City; an 80-acre lake on West Eagle Meadows on the south slope of the Wallowa Mountains.

Southeast Oregon — A 100-acre lake on Roaring Springs at Drakes Flat in Lake County; a 50 to 75-acre lake on Pine Creek, a tributary to the Malheur River in Harney County.

Bowls 7th In ABC's

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—The top 10 standings in the open division of the American Bowling Congress Tournament got the first new resident in four days as the Cleveland Celery Market of Cleveland, Ohio, rolled a 3,020 series to claim seventh place.

James Blair led the quintet with a 183-228-268—679 series Tuesday night.

Pel '9' Has Rugged Tests; Bianchi Leads In Hitting

The Klamath Union baseball team faces a busy schedule this weekend when it encounters Grants Pass on Friday and Yreka on Saturday in a pair of twilight double headers.

Both clubs are tough and the twin bills are going to tax the Pel moundsmen considerably. However from the Whitebirds' four games thus far this season, they have shown frequent periods of brilliance. Only once the entire mound core fell to pieces, that coming in the fourth inning of the Prineville encounter last Saturday.

Baseball mentor Bill Mansfield has had a look at each one of his eight hurlers with the standout flinger being Blake Griggs. Griggs started and finished the first Prineville game and pitched flawless ball for six and one third innings. He apparently weakened when the Cowboys stormed three quick runs across the plate. However he settled down and struck out the tailend of the batting order to pick up the victory.

Wally Palmberg started the second Cowboy tilt and mowed the opposition down with formidable ease until the fourth inning when the opponents pushed seven runs home. Also seeing action in that game were three other flingers, John Webb, Paul Bishop and Denny Coleman.

The other pitchers on the diamond club saw action in the year's openers with the Weed Cougars. Marvin Edwards started the first game and gave up three runs, two of them unearned. Kent Hunsaker came in to relieve Edwards in the opener and pitched brilliant ball, coughing up only two hingles and one run. He was credited with the loss. Pat Carney was the starter in the second Weed tussle and suffered the setback.

Although the pitchers have done a very creditable job, their support for the infielders and hitters has been quite spotty. In four games, the team has committed 11 errors with the vast majority of them causing enemy scores. The biggest defensive letdown came in the second Prineville game when the horsehiders committed four errors in that fateful fourth.

On the stick end of the team, they are hitting .283 as a club. Twenty six hits have been sprayed so far for 92 times at bat. However only 13 runs-batted-in have resulted from the bingles. Only three hits have gone for the extra-base circuit. Don Willey blasted the only homer; Dean Dunson knocked the only triple, and John Bianchi has laced a double so far.

Bianchi is the club's leading slugger with a .555 average for nine trips. Closely following are first sacker Dunson with .400 and shortstop Sherm Allen with .375.

The leading rbi producer is Willey when he knocked in three runs with his homer in the Weed game.

Perhaps the team's hitting may be summed up as too many strikeouts (26) and not enough hits at the proper moment.

Canadiens Favorites

MONTREAL (AP) — The Montreal Canadiens today were rated a 16-5 favorite to win their fifth straight Stanley Cup. They open the best-of-seven National Hockey League final playoff series with the Toronto Maple Leafs at the Forum Thursday night.

The series will be a replay of last year when Montreal won in five games for a record-shattering fourth straight cup.

During the regular season, the two clubs met 14 times, with the Canadiens winning 10 and tieing one. Montreal outscored the Leafs 51-28.

The teams will play the second game of the final here Saturday night. The third and fourth games will be in Toronto.
